MEET JOSEPHINE

Live the life you love!

Hi!

I'm Josephine, Founder of BaziChic. Welcome to the first issue of BaziChic.

I was introduced to Chinese Metaphysics in 2006, and it has changed my life. By using my knowledge of Bazi and FengShui, I have slowly but surely created a life that I love. It gave me the courage to quit my old job, which was not right for me, and create a new path for myself. Now, I wake up happy and motivated to do work that matters to me, and in the process I am doing things that I never imagined I could do.

Take this magazine as an example. I could never have imagined publishing a magazine, even 3 months ago.

I have always wanted to make what I've learnt in Chinese Metaphysics accessible to anybody who wants learn about this fascinating subject. However, I hadn't quite figured how to do it in a relatively inexpensive and accessible way. So, seeing a lull in my schedule coinciding with the arrival of the Deities 騰蛇 Surging Snake and 朱雀 Red Phoenix, I thought it was a good time to do a 法奇門 Fa Qi Men manifestation on how I can take BaziChic to the next level. Not long after that, while playing a game, I got this idea. "Hey! I can price a digital magazine at a very reasonable price and reach out to more people."

And voila! BaziChic Feng Shui & Chinese Astrology Magazine is born!

It's been an incredible experience starting a magazine from scratch. I had so much fun putting the magazine together. In this magazine, I try to keep things lighthearted, with little bits of seriousness. Don't worry if you have no experience with Chinese Metaphysics, as I will be starting from the basics and we will slowly progress over the course of the magazine's publication. So please enjoy the magazine and I hope to see you again in the next issue.

Sometimes my Hurting Officer just wants some glamour, so you're seeing my face on the cover this issue! But not to worry, I won't be on every cover. In fact there are some juicy and interesting cover stories coming up! Get a sneak peek of next issue's cover on page 24.

Love,
Josephine

The Chinese Zodiac sign we're most familiar with is the one related to our year of birth. Most forecasts are based on this sign. However, if you've read this issue's Bazi 101 (page 50), you will know that there are three more Chinese Astrological Signs corresponding to your month, day and hour of birth.

So although this forecast is based on the birth year Zodiac, we've included bonus information on what each sign means when it appears on the hour, day and month pillars. So don't forget to check that out too.

HORSE

Year of Birth

1918 1930 1942 1954 1966 1978 1990
2002

Auspicious Stars

金匱 Golden Lock
將星 General Star

Inauspicious Stars

太歲 Grand Duke
伏屍 Hidden Corpse
三刑 Triple Punishment
劍鋒 Sword Edge Star

OVERVIEW

Those born in the year of the Horse can expect an agreeable year ahead, especially in terms of professional and career success. The 金匱 Golden Lock brings wealth and financial gain. This star is especially beneficial for those who are employees. You may receive good increments and extra bonuses before the year is over. This star also bodes well for investments. Therefore, you should keep a look out for good investment opportunities. Business people will experience steady sales and profit with the help of this star.

The 將星 General Star brings authority and power. With this star, expect a promotion or an upgrade in status. However, the presence of 太歲 Grand Duke also brings challenges, setbacks and obstacles. Luckily, the 將星

General Star also acts as a nobleman. It brings support and help from friends and acquaintances in high places.

With the presence of 太歲 Grand Duke and 三刑 Triple Punishment, Horse babies will be feeling pessimistic about the external environment. This may blind you to the opportunities that are out there. So try to stay positive!

CAREER

Your career will have its fair share of ups and downs this year. However, as the year progresses you will triumph over obstacles if you are honest in your dealings. The influence of 三刑 Triple Punishment means that you may be tempted to do things that you know is not right. You need to be especially vigilant in maintaining your integrity and trustworthiness this year.

RELATIONSHIP

For single Horses, this is not a year to focus on relationships. If you are already attached, you need to bring the spark back into your relationship. The 伏屍 Hidden Corpse and 劍鋒 Sword Edge stars can cause quarrels and hurt feelings if you are not careful in managing your emotions. However, do network and meet new people, as that is good for you this year.

SAFETY AND HEALTH

Your health outlook is rather weak due to the influence of 伏屍 Hidden Corpse. It also causes sadness and depression. Coupled with 劍鋒 Sword Edge Star, there is the possibility of injury, especially to the face or head. As such, remember to take care of both your emotional and physical well-being this year. Find time to unwind or take-up a new relaxing hobby!

SPECIAL TIPS

Water Day Masters will see more wealth opportunities. Ren Water Day Masters are likely to see success in career and wealth matters while Gui Water Day Masters need to put in more effort before they can achieve the same.

It is especially good to have the Horse sign on the month pillar this year, due to the presence of the 金匱 Golden Lock and 將星 General Stars. These stars bring good fortune to employees.

However, the Horse brings disruption to the family and romantic relationships if it appears on your day pillar.

On the hour pillar, the Horse brings good investment opportunities. However, this comes at a price - it also brings gossip and bad vibes among colleagues.

Those born in the year of the Goat will have a smooth-sailing Horse year. The auspicious stars, 太陽 Sun / Great Yang and 歲合 Grand Duke Combination indicate great noble helpers. The 太陽 Sun star indicates male noble helpers. It is also beneficial for business people and employees working in solar energy, telecommunications, IT, motivational teaching and metaphysics.

star brings transformation. Appearing together with the 歲合 Grand Duke Combination, it indicates strength and willpower as well as the presence of helpful people to help you overcome any obstacles.

Your view on the external environment is also optimistic. You see opportunities in every challenge.

CAREER

For employees this is the time to get your work noticed by your superiors. Do not be shy to contribute your ideas. Going the extra mile this year will give you the edge in clinching a promotion. Relationships are not your main agenda this year. Single Goats will have good relationships with people but not in a romantic sense. However, single Goat ladies are likely to meet high profile people this year. Married or attached Goat people will have a wonderful time with their partners.

SAFETY AND HEALTH

The 黃幡 Yellow Flag star indicates a minor illness. This star can cause distractions and an unexplained feeling of uneasiness. The presence of 晦氣 Bad Qi also indicates that your immune system is weak and you may easily contract illness.

SPECIAL TIPS

The 天空 Sky Emptiness means emptiness. 天空 Sky Emptiness is a spiritual star. As such it is a good star for those planning to go on a religious pilgrimage. It is also good for those going into monkhood as they can shed all material and emotional baggage away.

For ordinary folks like us, 天空 Sky Emptiness means illusion. It indicates dreams that are unable to materialize. Strung together with 晦氣 Bad Qi, this indicates false hope. Be careful of people leading you on with no intention of keeping their promises.

Fire Day Masters born in the year of the Goat have higher chances of meeting the right people at the right time. Ding Fire people can meet genuine people who really want to help, so open your heart and gratefully accept their offer.

A Goat on your month pillar indicates a chance for promotion.

Goat sign on the day pillar may mean that you will feel isolated and lonely. The best remedy is to go out and socialize more.

Goat sign on the hour pillar indicates that your creation, be it products or services, will meet with a lot of approval and recognition. Your staff will be your noble helper too.

In 2014, if you have both Goat and Rooster in your Bazi Chart and/or current luck cycle, you may experience the same issues as Andrea "Andy" Sachs in this novel.

Inauspicious Stars

小耗 Lesser Consumer

劫煞 Robbery Sha

死符 Death Charm

OVERVIEW

Those born in the year of the Pig can look forward to a smooth sailing year after a challenging Snake year. Although only one auspicious star, 月德 Monthly Virtue, shines on you this year, it is enough to ward off the negative effects of the three inauspicious stars which are also present. In the first half of the year it can even bring some fame and fortune.

So how do the other three inauspicious stars influence those born in the year of the Pig? 小耗 Lesser Consumer indicates that you will spend unnecessarily on small items. You may regret your purchases. So think twice before buying anything. As its name implies, 劫煞 Robbery Sha brings robbery, injury and loss of money. 死符 Death Charm brings sudden illness especially to those who have always looked the picture of health.

CAREER

月德 Monthly Virtue brings a noble assistant to help you in your career. Those in the sales line will benefit from the presence of 月德 Monthly Virtue, as it brings good connections. 天哭 Sky Cry

災煞 Calamity Sha

OVERVIEW

Those born in the year of the Rat may be feeling overly ambitious. Whether this is positive or negative depends on the other zodiac signs in the Bazi Chart. The 月空 Month Emptiness brings with it the power of creative thinking and intuition. This is a star of dreams and transformation. However, given that this is the only auspicious star appearing for the Rat this year, you may want to aim for more realistic goals.

The presence of 災煞 Calamity Sha and 闕干 Lan Gan, indicates that you may be faced with many obstacles this year. Thus it is better to take small baby steps towards your goal.

CAREER

The 月空 Month Emptiness brings many creative and ambitious ideas for employees and business people. However, this year it is best to stick to doing just the planning and ground work. Do not over-expand as your financial situation will be adversely affected by the 歲破 Year Breaker and 大耗 Greater Consumer / Personal Breaker Stars. Put aside some money for unexpected expenses this year.

RELATIONSHIP

The 月空 Month Emptiness star is a star for personal and emotional healing. It will bring a sense of serenity, peace and self-confidence. With the emotional instability caused by 天哭 Sky Cry Star, the appearance of 月空 Month Emptiness is a blessing. ## Inauspicious Stars

大煞 Great Sha
天雄 Sky Warrior
指背 Back Poking
白虎 White Tiger
飛廉 Flying Chaste
地煞 Earth Sha

OVERVIEW

Those born in the year of the Tiger need to be patient and stay calm in the year of the Wooden Horse. There are no auspicious stars in 2014 to smooth the path for the Tiger. Instead there is a constellation of inauspicious stars to deal with.

The presence of inauspicious 大煞 Great Sha is negative for wealth. Think twice before you decide on any matters related to money, purchases and investment.

This is not the year to put yourself out there and to try to call the shots. The 天雄 Sky Warrior brings the danger of being too offensive and defensive. In this state, you can easily cause miscommunications. Inauspicious 指背 Back Poking star and 白虎 White Tiger indicate that people are going to be less forgiving. The presence of 地煞 Earth Sha indicates that these people are likely to create trouble by making mountains out of molehills.

Be diplomatic at all times. Put in extra effort and stay focused.

CAREER

You are in an aggressive mood this year and can be rather hasty in work. This may rile those working with you. Your opinions and views may also clash with your superior's. It is best that you lay low for the year. Be open-minded and accept other people's views and instructions.

RELATIONSHIP

Romance is the sole bright spot for Tigers this year. Couples in long term relationships can consider taking the next step into marriage. Single Tigers can look forward to meeting someone special.

SAFETY AND HEALTH

Inauspicious stars like 大煞 Great Sha, 白虎 White Tiger and 飛廉 Flying Chaste, indicate that you will be prone to accidents and injuries in the legs and spine. Health is generally good although your body may be susceptible to heatiness that causes sore-throats and coughs.

SPECIAL TIPS

Earth Day Masters with a Tiger in their Bazi Chart should take note of their diet. Best to avoid fried and processed foods. You are likely to be prone to back injuries too.

If the Tiger sits on the Month Branch, keep a low profile career-wise, this year. Stay focused and be diligent in your work.

A Tiger sign on the Day Branch indicates good and harmonious relationships with family members and loved ones.

If you have a Tiger on the Hour Branch, think twice before you make an investment.

2014 AT A GLANCE

"We must consult our means rather than our wishes." - George Washington

2014 is the year of the Wooden Horse (甲午 Jia Wu) and when the fiery horse meets wood, we can expect the theme of the year to be "hot and dry". What does this mean? Read on to find out.

Consumers

For consumers it's not looking too good. There's going to be a shortage of water and food. Be ready for increases in petrol, transportation and food prices.

Businessmen

For those in business, competition is heating up. Not only will you be competing for earnings and income but also for natural resources.

With an expected oversupply of goods and services, cash will be king. However, those with less cash can still do great if they can find ways to barter trade in a way that is beneficial to both parties. Be on the look out for win-win situations!

Employees

Those in employment may face high competition among colleagues. Salary increment may also be minimal. However, this will most likely be compensated by other benefits.

HOW TO TAP INTO 2014 FENG SHUI YEAR STARS

Every year when it is time to check-in on the annual Feng Shui outlook, people tend to focus on the Feng Shui afflictions. But each year also comes with auspicious influences. So I decided that I would like to talk about some of these positive influences and how you can tap into them.

The luopan diagram above shows the location of both positive and negative Feng Shui Auxiliary Stars in 2014.

Tapping into the Auspicious Stars

Boosting your Immunity against Annual Afflictions

歲德神 Duke Virtue

Now if you are worried about those annual affliction stars like Grand Duke, Three Killings and Five Yellow, you want to not only avoid using the sectors, but have a prevention plan in place. Duke Virtue can help – if your home is sitting on a negatively afflicted sector, and you want to cushion the impact of negative Qi. It is like taking vitamin C to prevent a cold or a cough. Duke Virtue is located in East 1 in 2014.

歲德合神 Duke Virtue Combo

The Duke Virtue Combo has a similar effect to Duke Virtue. So what is the difference between Duke Virtue and Duke Virtue Combo? Duke Virtue is Yang in nature and Duke Virtue Combo is Yin in nature. Hence, Duke Virtue benefits and protects external matters like career, travel and appointments while Duke Virtue Combo benefits internal matters such as communication, matters at home and marriage. Duke Virtue Combo can only be found in the centre of your home.

Positive Bank Account Balances

歲祿神 Duke Reward

Are you wondering why you cannot save no matter how much extra money you make every year? It has to do with your discipline. To improve your discipline, you might want to ensure that Northeast 3 is spacious and uncluttered so Duke Reward can help you keep your accounts in a state of surplus.

Clearing Obstruction

龍德星 Dragon Virtue Star

Sometimes, no matter how hard we work and how we plan, things will go wrong. Suddenly people are out to get you. Your bank loan is not approved. Projects are withheld due to supply issues. These are some of the hindrances that we face from time to time. Activating the Dragon Virtue in Northeast 1 sector can help you clear away these blockages, enhance your wealth luck and boost your reputation.

It is best to skip activating the Dragon Virtue star this year as it coincides with the Annual Sha.

Remedying Accidental Activation of Negative Sector

太陽 The Sun

You may be taking all precautionary measures against activating the Feng Shui Afflictions. However, accidental activation of negative sectors can still happen. Your neighbour may be drilling a hole on her wall which is where your Grand Duke is sitting. Or, there could be a pylon hovering outside this sector of your home, and your Duke Virtue sector is slightly missing so instead of bringing powerful protection it becomes (Oops!) powderful. Or if you've only gotten around to reading this article now, you may not have activated the Duke Virtue sector to activate immunity. Not to worry, you can still remedy this by activating The Sun at Southwest 1.

Effective Communication

太陰 The Moon

Communication is important for everyone, especially people in public relations, sales, marketing and customer service. The Moon Star not only improves your communication skills, but also resolves issues like miscommunication and the ability to talk to the right person. This year the Moon Star is located in West 2.

Happiness and Well-being

福德 Fortune Virtue

If you want good health, care and help from people as well as opportunities, East 2 is the sector to activate. Fortune Virtue Star takes care of your general well-being. It is a star that brings happiness.

Flip through to our calendar to find out when you should activate the stars in their designated sectors.

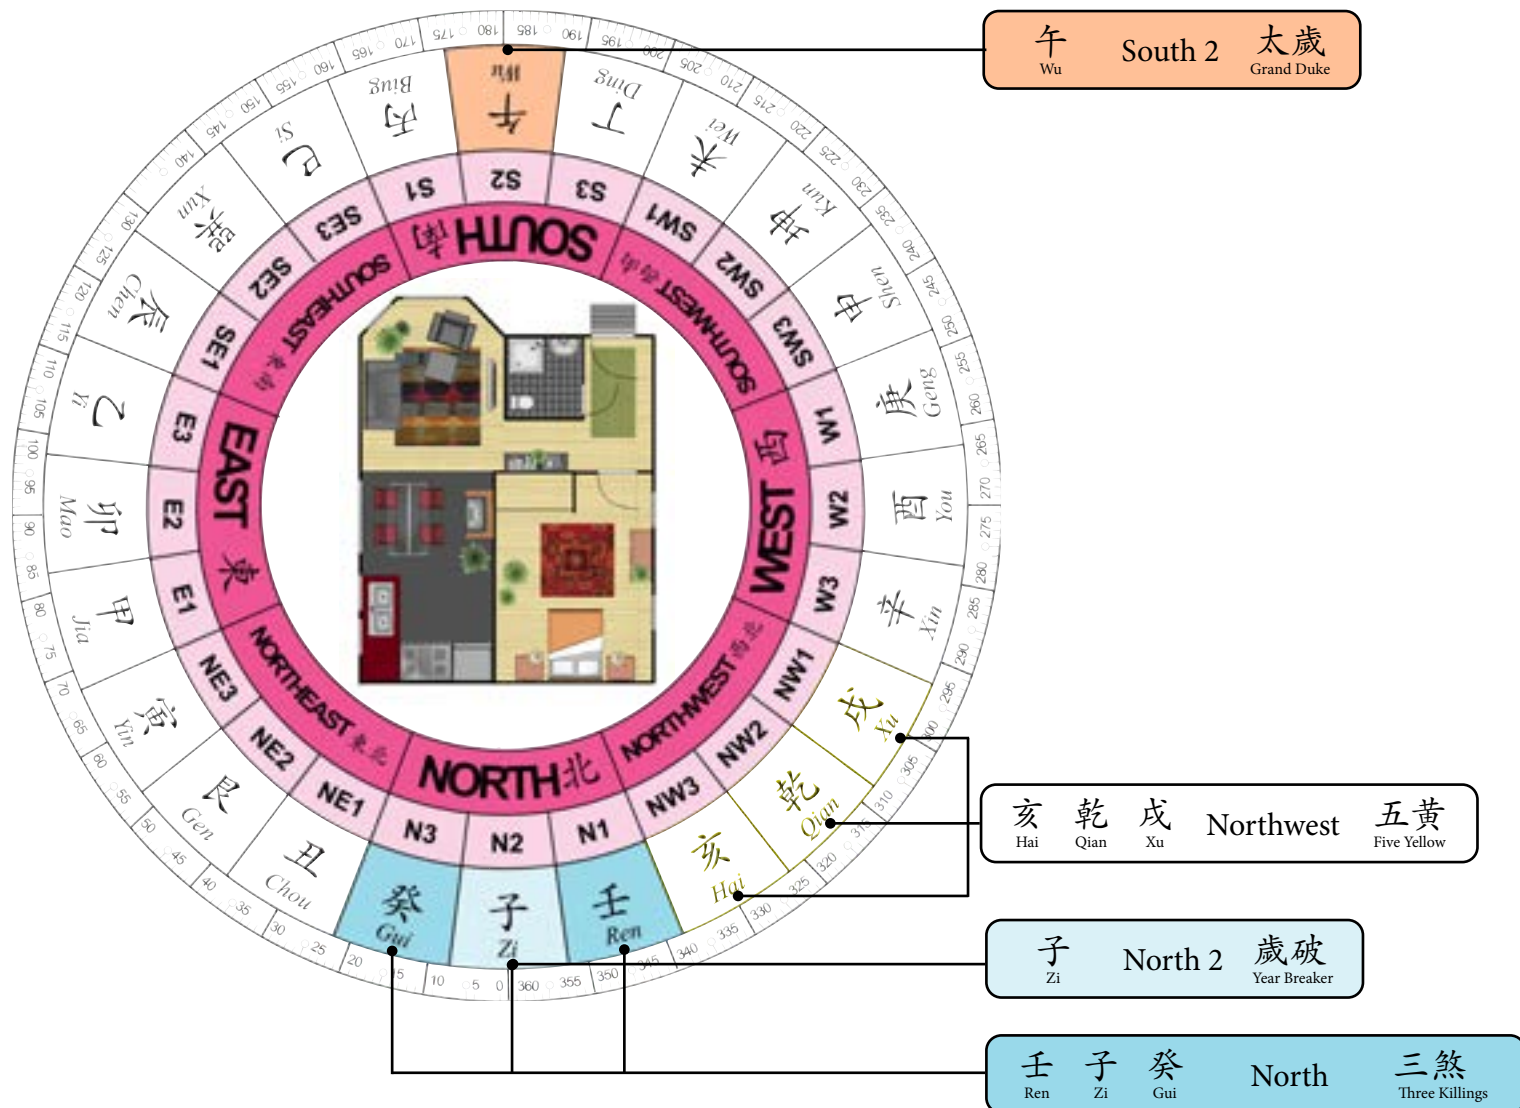

If you are new to Chinese Metaphysics and have only just taken an interest in Feng Shui, you may be wondering what is Feng Shui activation. How do I actually activate a sector? Refer to page 46 and check out, “How to do a Feng Shui Activation”

Did you know...

You will not become prosperous just because you painted your door red. Your door acts as a gateway to receive Qi from the environment so it is location that matters, not the colour.

HOW TO AVOID THE FENG SHUI AFFLICTED SECTORS IN 2014

To 'avoid' here means not to carry out important activities like renovations, drilling or groundbreaking in the Feng Shui afflicted sector as it can bring unwanted repercussions like loss of wealth, illness, accidents, disputes and arguments. In more serious cases it can indicate the death of a family member. You may also want to keep these afflicted locations quiet and have fewer activities there.

太歲 Grand Duke

In 2014, Grand Duke sets foot on the South 2 sector of your home or office. You do not want to irritate the Grand Duke through renovation. The inauspicious star will give rise to accidents, injuries, unwanted mishaps and serious health problems. For business people it can potentially lead to loss of income and wealth.

五黄 Five Yellow

Five Yellow enters the Northwest sector in 2014. The star is a harbinger of bad influences. Avoid any major work, renovation, drilling and even furniture rearrangement in this sector. The best remedy is actually having an open vast spacious area in the Northwest sector to counter the negative Qi.

三煞 Three Killings

In general the Three Killings is located in the North sector this year. However to pin-point the exact location, Three Killings is actually located at Northeast 1, North 2 and Northwest 3. This is because Three Killings comprises three inauspicious stars, namely 劫煞 Robbery Sha at Northwest 3, 災煞 Calamity Sha at North 2 and 歲煞 Annual Sha at Northeast 1. As its name implies, Robbery Sha brings robbery, injury and loss of money, Calamity Sha causes accidents, mishaps and illness whilst the Annual Sha creates obstacles and setbacks. Some have poetically categorised the misfortunes into 3 types of losses, namely loss of wealth, loss of a loved one and loss of one's reputation. You want to leave this sector in peace and quiet. It is important not to undertake any major renovations or groundbreaking here.

It is best to skip activating the Dragon Virtue star this year as it coincides with the Annual Sha.

歲破 Year Breaker

The Year Breaker is also known as the 'wrath of Grand Duke'. It comes to the North 2 sector this year sitting together with Calamity Sha. The repercussions of the Year Breaker can be greater than that of the Grand Duke. It is usually associated with loss of wealth. Steer clear of this area. Do not carry out any renovation, groundbreaking, drilling, and knocking on the wall, or even furniture rearrangement in this sector.

KEEP YOUR NEW YEAR'S RESOLUTIONS THIS YEAR!

Learn how harness the Annual Qi to set and keep New Year's Resolutions

The year end is always the time to reflect on the changes we want or need to make. And every year, we resolve to follow through on those changes with our New Year's resolutions. However, how many of us have accomplished our yearly resolutions? The sad truth is, not many of us hang on to our New Year's resolutions past January. Our enthusiasm fizzles out and we get distracted. So you might think to yourself this year, "I'm going to make a simple New Year resolution so I can keep it." A simpler resolution is easier to keep, right? Maybe or maybe not.

HARNESSING THE ANNUAL QI FLOW OF 2014

Here's a tip for setting a resolution that you're more likely to keep. You can do this by working with Qi flow of the year. Here's how.

2014 is the year of the Wooden Horse. Therefore the Qi for 2014 is represented mainly by Yang Wood. To know how you can get this Qi to work for you, you must first find out what 'Yang Wood' represents to you [your Day Master]. If you don't know your Day Master, you can request for a copy of your Bazi Chart by emailing us your date and time of birth.

MAKING YOUR NEW YEAR'S RESOLUTION

Once you know what Yang Wood represents to your Day Master, you can make resolutions that help you use the power of the Qi to more easily keep your resolutions.

So for those who are Wood element Day Masters, you are going through companion energy or Qi flow. As such, the year's energy will work best for you in the areas of building human relationships, interpersonal skills and improving your powers of persuasion.

Fire Day Master or Fire people will experience resource energy in 2014. Resource relates to charity, donation, learning and enjoying life. Resource energy is also about time management. So this is a good year to work on creating a more balanced life and make time for rest and relaxation, especially if you've been leading a hectic, stressful lifestyle.

For Earth people, Yang Wood represents the influence element. This means discipline. This year's energy is very good for Earth element people to set goals that need hard-core self-control. Apart from this, the influence element also represents reputation, status and good-will. So, doing something that can elevate your status is also good for Earth people in the year of the Wooden Horse.

Metal element people will be going through wealth energy. The theme for you this year is resolutions that relate to finance or money matters.

Lastly, Water element people will experience output energy. Output is about being creative, trying something new, standing out and making your voice heard. You can also work on improving your image, self-esteem and confidence, as these are also output. Output also refers to a buzz of activities so keep busy.

MORE TIPS ON KEEPING YOUR NEW YEAR RESOLUTIONS

Making a New Year's resolution that makes use of the annual Qi is like having half the work done for you. The other half is still up to you, and here are tips to keep your enthusiasm up for the rest of the year.

1 Conspire with the Universe. The universe always works with you, but you need to make sure that you send her the right request. Why is it some people aim to lose weight only to gain more weight? This is because of FOCUS. They focus on the weight so the weight can only keep increasing. You need to word your goal carefully as it has its own qi or energy. Choose words that give off positive vibrations like, "I want a healthier me, or I want to look lean, fit and glowing."

Meeting Wealth Star

Recommended New Year's Resolutions

1. Financial Independence
2. Save money
3. Start a business
4. Buy less coffee from Starbucks/big chains
5. Sell old unwanted stuff on eBay

Instead of saying that you want to get out of debt, say instead that you want to be financially independent. Getting out of debt is just one of the activities toward your goal. Thus, you focus less on the negative word and give it less power.

2 Ask, believe and receive. Ask the Universe to help you along. On 20 December 2013, sit with your back facing southwest. Calm your mind and heart. Send your request to the Universe.

3 Flip through our Good Dates calendar for a 'SUCCESS' day to start your resolution.

Did you know...

戊 Wu Earth and 己 Ji Earth Day Master,

A simple 'Hello' could lead to a million things.

4 Commit to your goal. Do your part of the bargain.

Make a resolution that you really want. Keep only a few resolutions. It doesn't matter the size or the importance. What matters is, it has to fit with your own values. Align the elemental activity according to what you want to achieve.

Define your goal. Besides laying out your New Year's resolution using positive words, you need to break it down into a series of small, actionable, bite-size steps.

Give it time. You need to be realistic about how long it will take to achieve your goal. Losing a few pounds over a few months is possible; losing a few pounds in a few days is unrealistic. Improving your relationship with your lover or spouse is achievable over an entire year; trying to do so overnight is irrational. Schedule a time to work on your goal. It can be done daily or weekly, at specific times of the day or specific days of the week.

6. Sing and dance
7. Less time on Facebook
8. Buy a tablet
9. Redecorate
10. Take better photos

Don't be discouraged by setbacks. Setbacks and delays are part and parcel of life. We are human, and we make mistakes. It does you no good to get frustrated, depressed or disillusioned. Temporary obstacles can help you put thing into proper perspective.

Be able to receive. You cannot do everything on your own. Consider enlisting help from a professional, a family member, a friend, or some type of formal support group where necessary.

IN THE MOOD FOR LOVE

Are you looking for friendship, romance, or marriage? Although there is no guarantee of a happily-ever-after, there is plenty of opportunity for romance this year for some of us. Whether or not this blossoms into everlasting love depends on you.

So, who will the gods of love smile on this year? Let's find out.

ROMANTICALLY INCLINED DAY MASTERS

The ingredients for successfully starting a new relationship is much simpler than that that goes into sustaining one. All you need is to be able to enjoy each other's company. This means that you cannot do without smiles, laughter and fun. And these come naturally to Xin Metal Day Masters, who are known to be chatty, good at sharing jokes and having fun.

So, will 2014 bring romantic relationships to Xin Metal singles? Yes, especially for the Xin Metal guys. This lovey-dovey energy will also extend to their Geng Metal brothers. Whether Geng Metal bros are ready or not, they are going to knock into someone. A shouting match may ensue. Will it be the shout of LOVE? That depends on the zodiac signs on their birth charts, which we'll look at later.

Ladies of Wu Earth and Ji Earth will also find people paying them more attention. If you are interested, show it. Don't wait for a promise of the world before you act. Things do not need to be this serious. Experience some fun in the courtship and get to know the person. If two people are not compatible, any promises will be of little use. The courtship is where you get to know each other before deciding to pursue anything more serious.

Besides male Metal Day Masters and female Earth Day Masters, Metal ladies and Water guys will have their fair share of chances too. For them, some extra confidence, a little initiative and action are the ingredients for success in love this year. Be bold to pursue the person you have an interest in.

LUCKY-IN-LOVE ZODIACS

If your Day Master isn't lucky in love this year, don't be disheartened. There is another chance – the zodiac of your Day Branch. If you have Tiger, Goat or Pig on the Day Branch, you are likely to meet someone you like. However, you will have to make the first move and do the pursuing because the person you have an eye on may not share your feelings yet.

The Bazi Chart in Example 1 shows where your Day Master and Day Branch are located.

HEAVENLY SUPPORT

Now that we have identified those who will potentially find romance, we want to know whether this new love has the support of the universe. This is where the auspicious stars come in.

So, will the path to true love be smooth? If you have Roosters, Rabbits, Goats and Oxen in your chart, you're set. You only need to be found by that special person.

How do you increase your chances of being found? It depends on where the auspicious zodiac signs reside on your Bazi Chart.

If either one of zodiac signs, Rooster, Rabbit, Goat or Ox appear on the Year Branch then you should go out to meet more people. Socialize more! If they appear on the Month Branch then someone related to your career may be captivated by your charm. You should ask close friends or relatives to introduce you to someone interesting if the zodiac sign is on the Day Branch. And for those with auspicious zodiac signs on the Hour Branch, your hobby may send someone your way.

Still unsure of what to do?! Maybe you should seek counsel with the 太陰 Moon / Great Yin. If you are still single and have not met anyone yet, you can send a message to the Universe seeking the guidance of 太陰 Moon Deity by using the 法奇門 Fa Qi Men technique. When the New Year comes in on 4 February 2014 after 06:05, take some quiet time for yourself. Sit facing east. Calmly ask the Great Yin to bring your special someone into your life. Lastly, you can seek the advice of a person who has Rooster in his or her chart.

MAKE YOUR OWN MAN LUCK

If the heavens are not smiling on you this year, hope is not lost. There is always Man Luck. Man luck is the luck created by your own positive actions and mind-set. Here is how you can enhance your chances at romance using Man Luck.

1. Know yourself

1. In any form of relationship, be it love, friendship or a professional working relationship; you must know and accept yourself for who you are before you can expect other people to accept you. You must know the “self” you are projecting out to others. If you are not projecting your true self, you can’t expect people to accept the real you. Love is about sharing yourself with your partner. If you don’t know yourself how do you offer your best qualities to others?

2. Be confident

2. Everyone has a chance at love. In fact you can have many chances if you are willing to put yourself out there. There is no right or wrong type of personality or traits when it comes to finding love. Popularity and beauty do not guarantee you a man or a woman in your life either. So just be yourself, be confident of what you have to offer, whether you are the glamour puss, the shy guy next door or the funny guy.

3. Know what you are looking for

3. Part of knowing yourself is about understanding what kind of relationship you need. You may be an independent person, so a partner who is too clingy may not be your cup of your tea. Do you have the same passion? If you are a successful businessman, you may want a partner who is comfortable with your high status and is able converse on the same intellectual wave length. It is also important to note the personality traits that matter to you. Besides this you also want to be clear on what is not acceptable in a partner. You may not want a partner who is always travelling. For some a smoker is definitely a ‘no’. Chances are, the person you love may not have all the qualities on your wish list. However, he or she must have the qualities that are most important to you.

4. Put yourself out there

4. If you have been single long enough, you most definitely will not find love in your existing social circle. You need to make more new friends. Making friends is a great way of building relationships based on caring and trust. You will find it easier to be your true self when your guard is down among friends. The same goes to the person you are considering too. Making friends require you to be generous with your time. You need to spend time to get to know people. So accept invitation to parties, concerts or outings. If you don’t like crowds, ask a few people for lunch or tea or a movie.

5. Show yourself as someone who’s available

While you should not appear desperate, you still need to subtly let people know of your availability. Here are a few things to consider:

- Dress up as the best version of you. Be sure that you are comfortable in clean well-styled clothes. This can help you project confidence and individuality. Always have a pleasant expression on your face.

- Most people want their story to be heard. It is an added plus point to be an attentive and encouraging listener. Ask a lot of questions if you find yourself interested in the topics and the person.
- Be honest and sincere to all the people around you, not just the person you like. Be your authentic self.

world, you show up more fully in your life, and that's how love finds you."

I hope that love finds you in 2014!

6. Ask people for dates

Dating doesn't mean you have signed a contract to a life time commitment. You are in the 21st century, freedom comes in many forms. Dating is about getting to know the other person better. It should be fun and free of pressure. If you are the conservative type and not comfortable with the idea of dating, go for a short outing like lunch or tea where you are less likely to be nervous. If you like the experience, go for another one. Dating is a just signal that you're ready to move from the "friend" stage to something deeper. In fact, you can actually date as many people as you like until you feel you have found the special one. Just be honest and open about your dating to maintain the friendship with all your potential partners during the dating period.

7. Be vulnerable

At some point, you will have to take a risk and be open about your feelings. It may be a little uncomfortable, but it is the only way to know whether this relationship is turning into love. To know this you have to find out if the feeling is mutual between you and your love interest.

8. Try again

If you do not share mutual feelings, it's important to eventually try again. You may feel hurt by the rejection, but this is alright if you keep on dating. This helps you to regain confidence sooner.

Robert Holden said, "The way to find love is to be the most loving person. That means willingness to love everyone. Not date everyone! Love everyone. When you love the

BOH TEA PLANTATIONS

A Feng Shui Visit

My family and I have been up since early morning, taking in the sights of Cameron Highlands. And now, we're headed towards our last stop, the Boh Tea Plantations at Sungai Palas. I had been looking forward to this visit from the moment I saw photos depicting its breathtaking scenery.

It was drizzling as we drove up the narrow, winding road toward our final destination for the day. The path was just wide enough for one car to pass by. My friend later saluted me for my bravery. To her, the road to Cameron Highlands is one of the most dangerous highways in Malaysia, let alone the narrow path to the Boh Tea Plantations. However, this being my first outstation drive, I just thought that it was all part of a fun adventure.

The road was narrow and often treacherous, but it was worth the drive. The view on the way up was truly spectacular. And when we arrived, it turned out that not only was it a great sight-seeing attraction, it also made for a good Feng Shui case study.

Before we study the Boh Tea Plantations further, let's just re-cap some Feng Shui basics. Remember, the quality of the Feng Shui entering a home, office or building is 70% determined by the external environment. The other 30% comes from the structural design of the building. If you have an environment supportive of good Feng Shui, it brings such positive Qi and influence that the occupants of such a building are always able to take positive steps and action to overcome any challenges that come their way. As such, temporary troubles brought by short-term annual Feng Shui afflictions like Grand Duke, Three Killings and Five Yellow, can be overcome without lasting damage.

And what is the best landform for great Feng Shui? Good quality mountains with rivers. Let's look at why this is so.

In Feng Shui, mountains are the origin of Qi, while water stops the flow of Qi from the mountain, thus creating a collection point for the flow of Qi from the mountains. The quality of the mountains governs the well-being of people and relationships. Water on the other hand represents opportunities.

In Feng Shui it is always perceived that the water effect works faster than the mountain influence. You may think that since water offer opportunities, it is best to reside near a waterfront. Yes, opportunities do come faster, but without the support of good people, opportunities can turn into challenges. Good mountains create an environment for people to cultivate positive attitudes. With the help of such people, we can create opportunities instead of waiting for them to come by. Hence the importance of having the right mountains. However, the mountain effect is much slower. As such, the best landform is where you have waterways converging and meeting the mountains.

The Boh Tea Plantations is blessed with such environmental support. Cameron Highlands fits the description of a good quality landform mountain with rivers. The whole area of Cameron Highlands is shaped like a bowl which is another plus point. In fact Cameron Highlands is nicknamed “Malaysia's Green Bowl”. In certain areas, the bowl shape is more obvious. One of these places is the Boh Tea Plantations at Sungai Palas near Gunung Brinchang.

As I drove through the narrow and winding road snaking around the mountain, stopping every now and then to let another car pass through, I caught glimpses of the beautiful landscape. Rows of tea appear to tumble out of the mountain ridges. As we arrived at our destination at the foot of the plantation, we are greeted by a bright hall, a big open car park, that creates a collection point for Qi.

Getting to the Tea Centre required a climb up a flight of stairs. As we neared the top, once more we were greeted by a bright hall. I could hear children's laughter and saw many running around, having fun amidst the tranquil scenery.

The mountains seem to circle the Tea Centre, which features an exhibition hall, a souvenir and tea shop and a Tea'ria (tea refreshment area), like a dragon guarding its pearl. Now imagine the BOH centre sitting on the pearl itself. Stunning! The Chinese have always referred to the mountains as the dragon and the mountain range as the Dragon's vein. You can see many Dragon veins undulating from all the directions from where I was sitting in the Tea'ria.

As I sat at the Tea'ria enjoying my cup of tea, clouds draped themselves across the top of the mountains. I actually felt that if I reached out with my hand, I could touch the clouds. This is not far from truth as I could feel the clouds turn into soft misty rain as they passed by. The cool breeze mixed with the misty drops of rain was truly refreshing. Once you're seated and enjoying your tea with some cake, you really won't feel like leaving. Here, you are brought back to colonial times where people had the luxury of leisurely enjoying tea in the garden while chatting with friends. The hustle and bustle of the city felt very far away.

*“Each cup of tea represents an imaginary voyage.”
~ Catherine Douzel*

However, there is another type of hustle and bustle at the Tea'ria, as tourists wait their turn for seats at the Tea'ria. Far too soon, it was time to go. As we gave way to the next wave of tourists, I looked back at the plantations. This is really a great case study in how choosing an area with correct landform can create powerful and long-lasting good Feng Shui that lasts through many generations. BOH Tea Plantations was founded by J.A. Russell in 1929. The company is still going strong under the leadership of Caroline Russell, the founder's granddaughter.

Although the creation of such FengShui is less prevalent now - modern technology makes it too easy to destroy what seems to be permanent landforms, there's no reason not to seize the opportunity to create long-lasting Qi for your office or home if you come across the perfect FengShui environment.

ARE YOU A MONEY MAGNET?

You may have come across people who seem to attract money easily. They may make money easily, or they don't have to worry much about not having enough or how to generate more income. Maybe their mind-sets and attitudes send out a signal of abundance and the Universe responds in kind.

Example 1

This does not necessarily mean that they are rich. You need certain characteristics, drive and discipline to accumulate material wealth. But they may have money luck. This easy money luck is not necessarily gambling luck. However, people with this kind of luck can easily win prizes and gaming money, get projects without much effort or even receive great gifts from friends and family.

Example 2

Your Bazi Chart shows whether you're a money magnet or not. Here is how to find out.

Step 1:

You need to find the Metal elements on the Heavenly Stem or Earthly Branch of your Bazi Chart as set out in example 1 and 2.

Step 2:

See if there is a wealth star next to the Metal element (check the reference table for your wealth element).

Reference Table : Wealth Element

Wealth Element
日主 Day Master	正財 Direct Wealth	偏財 Indirect Wealth
甲 Jia Yang Wood	己 Ji Yin Earth	戊 Wu Yang Earth
乙 Yi Yin Wood	戊 Wu Yang Earth	己 Ji Yin Earth
丙 Bing Yang Fire	辛 Xin Yin Metal	庚 Geng Yang Metal

癸 Gui Yin Water	丙 Bing Yang Fire	丁 Ding Yin Fire

Metal acts as the magnet in your Bazi Chart. If your Wealth star is next to the Metal element, you will easily attract money into your life, be it borrowed or generated income.

However, this does not apply to Metal Day Masters. So Metal people, you need to work intelligently for your wealth. No dumb money luck for you.

It is great if you find out that you are a money magnet. For those who are not, do not fret. Here are some tips for you to improve your wealth luck.

Focus on your value. Are you a money driven person? If the answer is yes, you need to shift your focus to a value-based mindset.

Money usually comes

if you can provide good value to people. For instance, a great coach, a highly creative interior designer and a reputable marketer are all higher value people. You should set higher standards. Give your best.

Worry drives money away. Worrying sends a signal of lack whether it is about health, wealth or relationships. Money does not come easily to those who constantly worry. In fact it drives more negative events into your life to reaffirm your worry.

Invest. Warren Buffett said, "If you buy things you don't need, you will soon sell things you need." This is very true. Put your money somewhere that gives you a return. Your money will become a magnet and attract more money for you.

Activate your Earth Luck. Find an environment that supports you. You must be thinking that it is hard to find the perfect Feng Shui location for your home. However, if you do not try you will never get one. Besides, you can always activate your current home's wealth sector to boost your wealth luck to the next level. You can make a move to a better house with solid Feng Shui later. Look for opportunities to activate the yearly flying star number eight for faster results.

HOW TO DO FENG SHUI ACTIVATION IN YOUR HOME

The best tip for Feng Shui activation is to have your main door located where there is good and prosperous Qi. The house's main door acts as the Qi mouth to your home as the environment's Qi flows into your home through your main door. Most people believe that prosperous Qi is wealth. This is not far from the truth because good environmental Qi flow brings many opportunities relating to wealth, noblemen help, smooth undertaking and good reputation. Suffice to say your house's main door governs the household income.

However, not many of us will not be fortunate enough to live in a house with the ideal environmental Qi. Not many of us can get our main door positioned in the best sector of our homes. Hence, this is where Feng Shui consultants come in. They help you to do Feng Shui activation in your home on selected good dates to improve the different areas of your life such as health, wealth and relationships.

Here are some Feng Shui activation methods that you can use to improve your life.

1 Use the good sector in your home more often. You can have your family time there. You can also locate your work desk there so that you spend time working at home in the good sector. Another choice is to locate your sleeping room in the good sector.

2 Water placement. Apart for the option above, another choice is to have water placement in the good sector. A three feet deep aquarium is good enough for a 900 sqft to 1,200 sqft house.

You must now be thinking, "How many fish do you need to put into that aquarium? Eight (a homonym for prosperity in the Chinese language) for prosperity?"

Let me debunk the myth. You can have an empty aquarium. Water collects the flow of Qi, not the fish. Also, do not cover your aquarium, as it will cut off Qi. If you decide to have fish, and your fish dies, it doesn't mean that it had just warded off your bad luck either. It just means that you need to clean the water. Fish warding off bad luck is another myth.

asked you to put an auspicious number of fish inside your aquarium are either superstitious themselves, or want to keep their trade secrets by devising a crafty way to get you to activate the Qi. You see having fish in your aquarium means that you will spend time there enjoying your pets besides cleaning and changing the aquarium water. Hence, your activities become the activation.

In the old days, practitioners who

3 De-clutter. If you are familiar with Feng Shui, you will know that a bright hall can collect Qi too. Therefore, cleaning, throwing old things that are no longer useful to create an empty bright space at a good sector is a form of activation too.

4 Spring clean. If you can't clear out your best sector completely, due to furniture, at least do some spring cleaning. Clean, move the furniture out and then place it back into its original position.

5 Movement. If you already have a bright hall in the good sector of your home and for some reason you are not using this area, then what you can do is switch on the fan to stir the Qi on a good date.

Among the different methods for activation, the methods that give the fastest results are methods 1 and 2.

HUNTING FOR A NEW HOME THE FENG SHUI WAY

(TIPS FOR EXTERNAL FENG SHUI)

Buying a new home is an exciting experience. The anticipation of getting and moving into a new home is really thrilling. It is also going to be one of your biggest investments and at the same time most expensive liability. So, it is understandable that you would want everything to be perfect.

As people are becoming more conscious of the importance of Feng Shui, it is now more common to ask a Feng Shui consultant and practitioner to do a Feng Shui audit before making a purchase. People these days not only want a house that will give them capital appreciation, but the intangible benefits that come from the environmental Qi.

But more often than not, people will buy their home first, then do a Feng Shui consult later. This is not the best practice because it is the environmental landform that determines the quality of the Qi that enters the home. Landforms govern 70% of your overall Feng Shui with the balance coming from the internal structure of your home.

Location of Mountain and Water for the Period 8

As such, it is best to get your external environment audited by a Feng Shui consultant before making the purchase. This is because while you can make internal adjustments, you cannot really do much about the environment around your home. You cannot move mountains and place natural lakes to optimise your environmental Feng Shui.

However, it can be a drain on your income to get a Feng Shui consultant to go house hunting with you. What you can do then? You can do some preliminary checking on your own before employing a consultant to do a final audit for you.

What should you look out for when you're house-hunting? The picture above shows one of the most ideal Feng Shui landforms, so be on the look-out for it! Although, it often takes experience and a trained eye to find such a place.

However, even if you're not experienced, you will be able to spot the presence of greenish healthy mountains and natural water bodies, which form the basic building blocks of good Feng Shui. Ideally the Qi Mouth, or main door should be located in the Southwest to tap into the prosperous Qi in Period 8. The ideal location of mountains should be on the South, West, Northwest and Northeast. Water bodies should be located at Southeast, Southwest, North and East.

If you're still not sure, print a copy of the diagram in the previous page and buy a compass. You will be able to spot a good house with ideal Feng Shui as the diagram shows you the correct location of mountain and water, relative to the house.

Making sense of 8 characters

Welcome to our first Bazi 101 column. Over the course of these columns, we'll be helping you make sense of all those Chinese characters in those little boxes.

In this column we'll introduce the Bazi Chart, which is a natal or birth chart.

Bazi literally means eight characters. In Bazi, each person's date and time of birth is translated into 8 characters that fill up the 8 boxes of the Bazi Chart.

As you can see, the 8 boxes of the Bazi Chart comprise 4 columns and 2 rows.

The 4 columns are referred to as the Four Pillars and represent Pillars for your hour, date, month and year of birth. Each of these Four Pillars relate to different aspects of your life in terms of relationships, career and health.

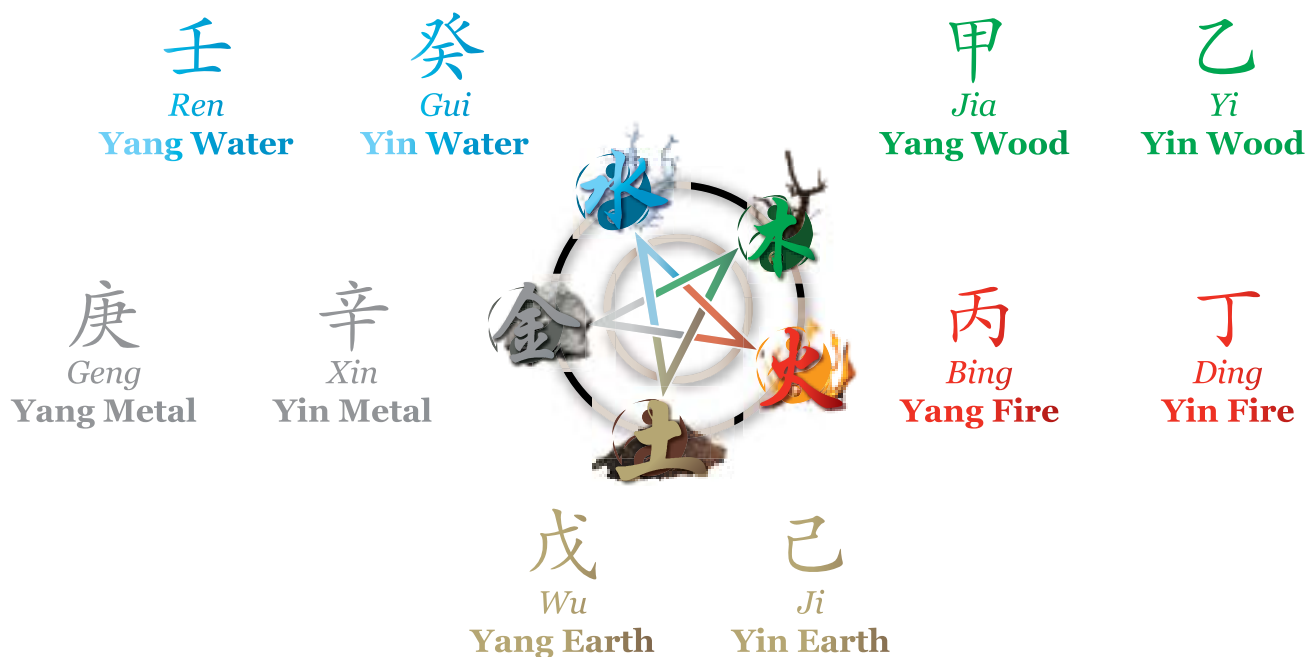

What does the Bazi Chart tell us? All about you! Your character is revealed in your chart. You will know your strengths, your weaknesses and your attitudes.

Also, remember how we said earlier that each pillar represents different aspects of your life? So you will also get clues about your relationships, your health and your career in your Bazi Chart.

But all these information are static. In the next edition of Bazi 101, we'll introduce the time pillars, which represent the experiences, events and people that will come into your life at different times. By combining your Bazi Chart and time pillars, you can plan your life path to make the most of opportunities and reduce obstacles.

Heavenly Stems

The 2 rows of the Bazi Chart are referred to as the Heavenly Stems and Earthly Branches.

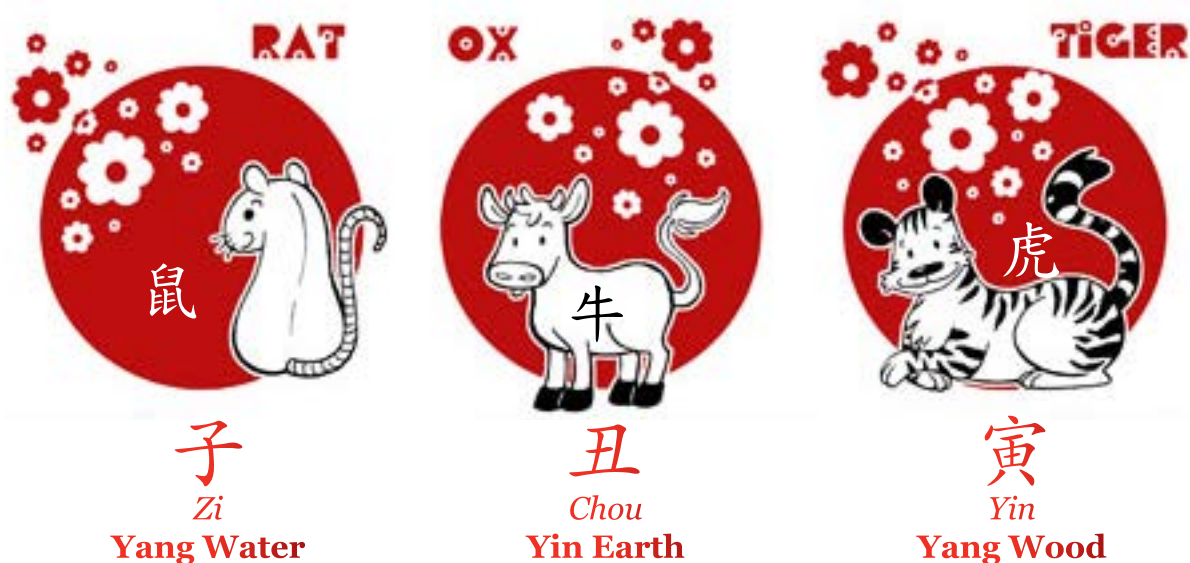

The Heavenly Stems contains the five elements, Water, Fire, Metal, Earth and Wood, which are further divided into yin or yang elements.

The Earthly Branches contain the twelve astrology signs. Therefore, you actually have four Chinese astrology signs in your Bazi natal chart, one each for your hour, date, month and year of birth.

JUDGING A BOOK BY ITS COVER

100 Year Map for the Male

The female age map is the opposite of the male.

‘Don’t judge a book by its cover,’ we’re often advised.

But we do it anyway. Sometimes we do this to protect ourselves. For instance, we will automatically back away from a drunkard who is swearing profusely at no one. Much as we do not want to judge, it is still human instinct to make snap judgements of another person.

Face reading, however, is not about judging people's superficial appearance such as whether they are beautiful, if they dress well and whether they carry branded stuff. Instead it is about understanding a person's character, potential, past history and future destiny at a deeper level. The study of 'Physiognomy' or 'Mian Xiang' encompasses not only one's face but also one's palms, body, voice and physical movements.

Face reading techniques have evolved in both the East and the West, and Chinese physiognomy has a long history dating all the way back to 2,700 B.C. It was first developed to assess a person's health. Gradually the technique of face reading was developed and evolved into away to assess the personalities and destinies of people. These days, Chinese Traditional Medicine practitioners still gauge their patients' health using Chinese physiognomy, albeit with the help of modern technology.

In the study of physiognomy, we assess the following information about the face, body, palm and voice:

- Shape
- Features
- Movement
- Qi colour

All these information combine together to paint a thousand stories about a person.

So let's get started with the most observable part of the body: the face. We'll start with how physiognomy divides up the face into regions for further analysis.

The face can be mapped into 100 points indicating ages 1 until 100, thus giving insights into a person's luck at a particular age. Due to the yin and yang nature of the world, males and females have the age points located on opposite sides of the face.

The face is then divided into 5 Officers and 12 Palaces which are used to assess a person's character, nature, challenges, talents and potential. Assessing the combination of the 100 age points together with the 5 Officers and 12 Palaces gives us an accurate analysis of a person's destiny.

The face can be divided again into three regions, namely the Upper, Middle and Lower Regions which govern different periods of a person's life. And lastly, the face is further divided into five areas representing the 5 Elements.

For now we have broken down the face to the 100 year map, 5 Officers, 12 Palaces, Regions and 5 Elements. In our next issue, we put more meaning to this information.

LAW OF ATTRACTION with a Twist 法奇門 FA QI MEN

"If you know what you are looking for, you will find it... or it will find you." ~ Nohemi Dragonné

The Law of Attraction is the belief that "like attracts like". By focusing on positive or negative thoughts, we can bring about positive or negative results into our lives.

The Chinese have been practicing this as far back as the War of Three Kingdoms. They have been using the technique, 法奇門 Fa Qi Men and implementing it into war strategies to influence the mind of the enemy. It was then adopted by the Chinese Imperial Astrologists and included in their rites and rituals. Later, mediums and Taoist monks began using it in their chants and prayers too. I believe this is the oldest form of Law of Attraction, although people may not have practiced it in a positive and honest way. Hence, I like to call it, 'The Law of Attraction with a Twist'. Nowadays it is referred to as Spiritual Qi Men.

What exactly is Fa Qi Men? Let me briefly give you the background of 奇門

Qi Men so you can have a better understanding of the technique before we go into the details of practicing our Law of Attraction with a Twist.

The 法奇門 Fa Qi Men is one part of the 奇门遁甲 Qi Men Dun Jia system. Before the appearance of sophisticated metaphysical tools like Bazi and Feng Shui, Chinese Metaphysics was mainly practiced using the 三式 San Shi method, which comprises the three disciplines of 太乙 Tai Yi, 六壬 Liu Ren and 奇门 Qi Men.

太乙 Tai Yi was used to understand natural phenomena. However, we now have CNN and their weather forecasts to give us more precise information.

六壬 Liu Ren was a method of destiny analysis before the introduction of Bazi and Tzi Wei.

奇门遁甲 Qi Men Dun Jia was used in war strategy.

Actually, when you understand the concept of Qi Men, you will realise that people in ancient China did not really depend on luck. Instead they created their own luck by making the most of the resources available to them. Therefore, you do not wait for luck to bring you to the right place and right time. Qi Men helps to locate yourself “in the right place at the right time.”

Qi Men is a tool for tapping into environmental energy to create the reality that you desire. This was used in war in the old days. This system is slowly being converted into a forecasting tool for business, investments, interviews, relationships and examinations.

Every date and time has a Qi Men Qi Map specific to it. The aim is to select the best Qi map available to you to support you in carrying out your strategies. You can see a Qi Men Qi Map on page 77.

There are four major components in 奇门遁甲 Qi Men Dun Jia:

三元奇门 San Yuan Qi Men

禽遁奇门 Astronomical Qi Men

法奇門 Fa Qi Men or Spiritual Qi Men

飛宮小奇門 Fei Gong Xiao Qi Men

The 奇門 Qi Men tools can be applied in the following areas of our lives:

1. Forecasting – help us to understand the external circumstances so that we can take action to get the desired outcome.
2. Destiny Analysis – help us understand how the universe influences us in various aspects of our life.
3. Qi Men Feng Shui – energy map of external environment

4. Strategic Execution – date and time selection for action / execution
5. Power of Body, Mind and Soul – how to control our minds to get and create what we want. This is the 法奇門 Fa Qi Men technique.

The ‘Law of Attraction with A Twist’ is mostly based on 法奇門 Fa Qi Men.

The most important tool in 法奇門 Fa Qi Men is your mind. So the first thing you need to do and practice is to ‘Be Mindful.’ See the next page on tips on being mindful.

Special Tips

Three Quick Steps to Mindfulness by Peter O'Donoghue.

1. Realize your thoughts are not ‘you’.
2. Commit to bringing all thoughts into conscious awareness.
3. Do not get drawn into the dialogue of thoughts.

Mind full or Mindful?

“Try to keep your mind in the present. Whatever there is that arises in the mind, just watch it. Let go of it. Don't even wish to be rid of thoughts. Then the mind will reach its natural state. No discriminating between good and bad, hot and cold, fast and slow. No me and no you, no self at all. Just what there is. No need to cling to isolation or seclusion. Wherever you are, know yourself by being natural and watching. If doubts arise, watch them come and go. It's very simple. Hold on to nothing. It is as though you are walking down a road. Periodically you will run into obstacles. When you meet defilements, just see them and just overcome them by letting go of them. Don't think about the obstacles you have passed already. Don't worry about those you have not yet seen. Stick to the present. Don't be concerned about the length of the road or about the destination. Everything is changing. Whatever you pass, do not cling to it. Eventually the mind will reach its natural balance where practice is automatic. All things will come and go of themselves. Don't try to get anywhere in the practice. The very desire to be free or to be enlightened will be the desire that prevents your freedom. So, simply let go. Watch the mind and body mindfully but don't try to achieve anything.” ~Ajahn Chah

So for now ‘BE MINDFUL!’ We'll have more on how you can use ‘The Law of Attraction with a Twist’ in the next issue. So stay tuned!

The month of December 2013 is about gaining status, power and authority through knowledge and charity.

For those who benefit from the Qi of Wood and Water, you will be able to tap into the month's Qi to bring opportunities, favours, good reputation, goodwill, a rise in status and recognition. This can be achieved through charitable acts and the sharing of relevant and helpful information. For those building brands, creating a loving, helpful and giving image for the brand can boost the brand.

For those whom the month's Qi is negative, don't be too complacent, as it can get you in trouble with the authorities. The month also indicates the need for a lot of documentation, and compliance with new rules and regulations.

This month's energy favours those with the following zodiac: Rabbit, Dragon, Monkey and Rooster.

Tiger

January 2014 favours matters related to unconventional knowledge and ideas that give rise to ingenious work, products and inventions. People are feeling content and indulging in the finer things in life. Such an environment is conducive to networking and meeting new people.

On a less rosy note, if the month's Qi does not favour you, you can become indolent and focus too much on having fun. People will also tend to be more gossipy, hence there will be a lot of unkind rumours floating around.

This month's energy favours those who are born in the year of the Tiger, Rabbit, Monkey and Rooster.

Tiger

You will have an enjoyable time filled with good food and new friends. Singles may find themselves the center of attention. This is a good time to put your best foot forward and find that special person to share your joy. Over indulgence in good food may cause stomach problems later on. Do watch your diet.

Rabbit

This is a great month for you with good luck in all-areas. Everything will be going your way. You can see rapid progress in your career and an increase in wealth. There may be many gatherings, visits and celebrations this month. Remember to schedule some me-time for yourself.

Dragon

Expect some changes this month for the better. Petty people may try to bring you down in your career through gossip. This may cause you some heartache. Do not fret, you will have the last laugh if you believe in your work and work diligently.

Snake

A meeting of like-minded people can bring some new money making ideas. Do look into the plan thoroughly. It may prove to be a good investment later. There are plenty of helpful people around to offer you assistance, so go ahead and go for your dreams.

Horse

Some sad and unexpected news may be coming your way. Know that this is short-term. Stay positive. Postpone any major plans this month. Ask for help if you need assistance. There are many helpful people around you.

Goat

Property in your portfolio may exchange hands. Expect some delay in documentation. Apart from this, it is best to avoid any major activity. This is not a favourable month. Pay extra attention to your health too.

Monkey

Excellent luck is shining on you. Expect a promotion or recognition of some sort as a result of your dedication to your work. Single males will also be especially lucky in love. Be brave and show your interest.

Rooster

Your good luck continues especially in relation to wealth. Make the most of your good fortune. Give your 100% in everything. You will reap the rewards.

Dog

There may be some delay in your plans or an obstacle in your way. Hang in there, as good luck is on your side. Many things will be resolved sooner than you think. Ask for assistance from your noble people.

Pig

Someone may deliberately give you false information so that he or she can outshine you. Beware of manipulative words that undermine your work and good name. Do not easily trust people around you. Do your homework before making any decisions.

Rat

Both positive and negative luck will come to you this month. Your career may see a positive turnaround. However, you may suffer from setbacks in your personal and professional relationships. Jealousy may be brewing within your current circle of friends despite everything looking rosy on the outside.

Ox

Your luck is on the downturn. There may be some unexpected expenses so keep some extra cash on hand. Be patient and do things moderately, and you will soon see the silver lining in the clouds.

A month full of inauspicious stars will make everyone feel gloomy. This month brings about competition, with people trying to outshine each other. However, there won't be any real solid work done despite the ideas that are being thrown around.

However, where there is crisis there is also opportunity. The month's energy favours the Horse, Dog, Rabbit and Snake.

Dragon

This is a busy month for you. Problems and unexpected issues will crop up. Although, there is no cause for alarm, you just need to be more patient and focus on resolving matters by any means possible. Noble people are there to offer you advice and help.
