Editor's Message

Property investment has a special place in my heart. My father is passionate about investing and growing wealth, and he was especially fond of investing in property. I have happy childhood memories of driving around Kuala Lumpur going property hunting with my father.

Papa is also a great believer in Feng Shui. He read up about Feng Shui extensively, and applied this knowledge to his property purchases. He carried a compass with him everywhere, and would whip it out to check out the direction of the property being viewed. Any property facing 210°, or SW1 is worth a second look.

So, I'm delighted that we're dedicating an entire issue to Feng Shui and property investment. I really believe that when you combine Man Luck (your own research on the property you want to buy) and Earth Luck (buying in an area with good Feng Shui), you'll be able to achieve good results in property investment.

Happy investing!

BAZI FOR PROPERTY INVESTMENT

In the March 2014 Issue of Bazichic Magazine, we talked about how certain Profiles (which you can find under the title ‘Investment and You’ on page 6) are better suited to certain Investments. In this article we want to zoom in a bit deeper on how affinity and luck cycles impact property investment.

Property investment means putting your money into a property such as a house, office or factory with the expectation of capital gain or rental income.

While everyone can invest in any type of investment instrument, some people have more affinity or luck with property investment than other investments. Some may have better opportunities investing in a start-up company or in equities. There are no hard and fast rules as to what you can invest in. All types of investments need different types of analyses and understanding, thus each need a different skill set.

Bazi can show you what type of investment you have more affinity with. However, there are people who have a conflict of skill and affinity with certain investments. Why is this so? Basically in terms of investments, when we talk about skills, we refer to the Month Pillar and when we talk about affinity we refer to the Hour Pillar.

Hence, the elements in your Hour Pillar as shown by the Bazi Chart below – whether on the Heavenly Stem, Earthly Branches or Hidden Stem, indicate the type of investments you have affinity with.

| 八字 Bazi Chart | | | | |
|----------------------|-------|---------|--------|---------------------------|
| 時 Hour | 日 Day | 月 Month | 年 Year | |
| | | | | 天干 Heavenly Stems |
| Investment | | | | 地支 Earthly Branches |
| | | | | 藏干 Hidden Stem |

People with Earth or Wood element usually have more affinity with property investment. Refer to Table 1 to find out which investments the elements on your Hour Pillar corresponds to.

Table 1: Type of Investment by Element

| Element | Type of Investment | Time Frame |
|------------|---|-------------|
| 木 Wood | Property | Long-term |
| 火 Fire | Knowledge i.e. Intellectual Property, Copyright, etc. | Long-term |
| 地 Earth | Property | Long-term |
| 金 Metal | Equities | Short- term |
| 水 Water | Equities and Business (as an Angel Investor) | Short- term |

Table 1 also shows that some people have better luck at short-term investments – e.g. flipping property, speculating or trading in equities.

If you are a full time property investor or trader, you should not be looking just at the Hour Pillar. The Pillar you should also be looking at is the Month Pillar in your Bazi Chart which is your Career Palace. This Pillar shows you where your natural talents and skill lie. You can apply similar information on Table 1 to your Month Pillar.

Some people can do any type of investment. Not because they are skillful in investing but because they just have the ‘Midas’ touch to turn any investment profitable. In such cases, there is usually a Wealth element on the Heavenly Stem in the Hour Pillar.

|--|---|---------|--------|---------------------------|
| 時 Hour | 日 Day | 月 Month | 年 Year | |
|   Wealth Element   |   日主 Day Master   | | | 天干 Heavenly Stems |
| | | | | 地支 Earthly Branches |
| | | | | 藏干 Hidden Stem |

You can refer to Table 2 to find your Wealth element in your Bazi Chart.

Table 2: Finding Your Wealth Element In Your Bazi Chart

| 日主 Day Master | Wealth Element | |
|-------------------------|-------------------------|-------------------------|
| | 正財 Direct Wealth | 偏財 Indirect Wealth |
| 甲 Jia Yang Wood | 己 Ji Yin Earth | 戊 Wu Yang Earth |
| 乙 Yi Yin Wood | 戊 Wu Yang Earth | 己 Ji Yin Earth |
| 丙 Bing Yang Fire | 辛 Xin Yin Metal | 庚 Geng Yang Metal |
| 丁 Ding Yin Fire | 庚 Geng Yang Metal | 辛 Xin Yin Metal |
| 戊 Wu Yang Earth | 癸 Gui Yin Water | 壬 Ren Yang Water |
| 己 Ji Yin Earth | 壬 Ren Yang Water | 癸 Gui Yin Water |
| 庚 Geng Yang Metal | 乙 Yi Yin Wood | 甲 Jia Yang Wood |
| 辛 Xin Yin Metal | 甲 Jia Yang Wood | 乙 Yi Yin Wood |
| 壬 Ren Yang Water | 丁 Ding Yin Fire | 丙 Bing Yang Fire |
| 癸 Gui Yin Water | 丙 Bing Yang Fire | 丁 Ding Yin Fire |

Besides the Wealth element, other elements such as Output and Resource elements (refer to page 64) at the Hour Pillar also indicate that you will do well in investments. However, having Companion and Influence elements (refer to page 64) in the Hour Pillar is less than ideal.

The Hour Pillar can further indicate what type of property is most suitable for you. Should you focus on high-rise buildings, the city area or low rise property? Check-out Table 3.

Table 3: Type of Property by Elements

| Elements in the Hour Pillar | Type of Property |
|-----------------------------|---|
| Wood | New property development, high rise buildings |
| Fire | New property development, high rise buildings, hostels, places near education centres or campuses |
| Earth | Old property development, established housing or city area. |
| Metal | City area, busy places, financial hub |
| Water | Low rise property |

If you have both Water and Earth or Wood elements in your Hour Pillar, you can also consider REITs as another option in your investment basket.

Besides investment skills and the discipline needed for property investing, everyone goes through their own wealth luck and asset luck cycle during the 10-year or annual luck cycle.

In a nutshell if you are going through Output, Resource, Influence or Rob Wealth elements, it is the best time for you to accumulate your assets. When going through a Wealth element cycle it is the best time to cash-in on your investments. Any short-term investments such as trading, speculating or flipping of property is best done within your Wealth element cycle.

Any form of combination, clash, harm, punishment or destruction relationship between your 10-year Luck Cycle or Annual Luck Cycle with your Hour Pillar usually indicates an obstruction to you accumulating assets or wealth. Take note that a combination relationship that happens to your Hour Pillar can work for you or against you. This requires a deeper knowledge and understanding of Bazi and it is best that you have a consult if such a combination takes place.

FENG SHUI FOR PROPERTY INVESTMENT

There are many investment tools that can help you manage your risk in property investment. Feng Shui can be one of them. Where property investment is concerned, the external Feng Shui application is used. It studies the land form and the environment which include the surrounding mountain and water formations in the area.

We are not concerned about the internal Feng Shui of the property when it comes to property investment because the internal Feng Shui does not affect you, the investor. It only affects the people who are living or working in the property.

Feng Shui can help you select a good property for investment in an area which is already bustling and prosperous or in up and coming developments that have potential to grow, depending on your budget, target market, and time frame for the investment.

Why are these three factors – budget, target market and time frame important when applying the Feng Shui aspect in helping you find a property to invest?

▪ Budget

Your budget is the predominant factor that determines the type of property investment, and hence the target market, available to you. A higher budget gives you the option to invest in both higher-end properties and those in the mid-range. If you have a smaller budget then your obvious choice is property with mid-range prices. Lets put a price tag to differentiate the high-end and mid-range properties so that you have a better picture of what type of market or people buy the properties you want to invest in.

| Property | Price | Target Market |
|-----------|------------------------------|--|
| High-end | Above RM6 million | High income group i.e. businessman, CEO, tycoon, etc |
| Mid-range | RM 1 million to RM 3 million | Middle income group i.e. Senior Executive, Senior Manager, General Manager, Small business owner |
| Low-cost | Below RM 1 million | Lower income group |

- Target Market

Different people and potential buyers will have different luck and will be attracted to different Feng Shui with different land forms and Qi in the external environment. In a nutshell, you need to find the environment that will attract the right market.

- Time Frame

Are you looking to flip your property to the next potential buyer? Or are you willing to pay a lower price and wait for the development to grow ?

These are the 3 factors you need to consider because the Feng Shui application is different for each of these 3 factors.

FENG SHUI FOR MID-RANGE PROPERTY

The landform above has no Table Mountain to lock the Qi, and Pylons are seen cutting through the mountain. These are some of the negative features that you do not want to see in your living environment. However, for investment purposes such landform indicates that this is suited for low to mid-range income groups. If you are investing in such areas, then you should adjust to the target market accordingly.

If you are targeting middle income customers, then you should be looking at areas or housing estates with less perfect external land form. The water and mountain may not exactly fit to the location in the Diagram 1 or you may have some form of Sha Qi like a pylon or satellite dish obstructing your property.

You may also find a mixture of less majestic mountains with the shape of Water, Metal and Earth.

If the external land form is good without any obstruction, people staying in this area usually work in high management level or may be good sportsmen or small business owners.

| Five Element Mountain Shape | |
|-----------------------------|--|
| Water Star Mountain |  |
| Metal Star Mountain |  |

Pylons are considered a negative Feng Shui feature for residential property. They are usually found in areas of low to mid-range properties. Depending on the location and the Annual Flying Star effect, it can affect you in terms of income, health and relationship.

FENG SHUI FOR HIGH-END PROPERTY

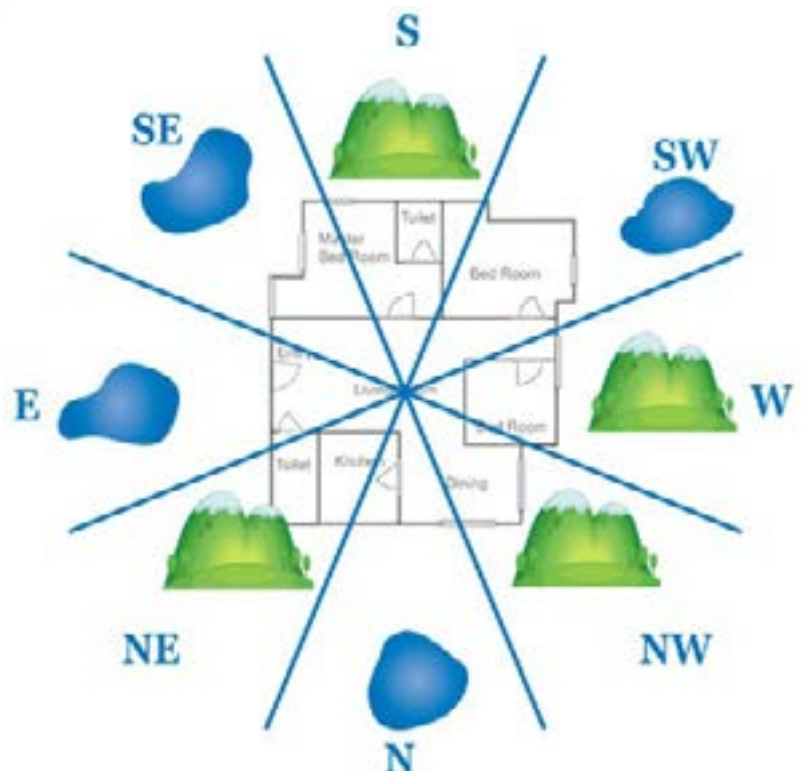

The landform below shows a perfect living environment. High income earners are usually drawn to this kind of environment. Your investment should target the high income group market when you invest in such places.

It may take a trained Feng Shui practitioner to spot such a land form. If you are unsure about how to spot such a beautiful land form, the easiest way for you is to at least ensure that the mountain and water are at the right locations as shown on Diagram 1 on the right.

Places that attract high net worth individuals, businessmen or tycoons, have three types of mountains in their external environment. They are the earth, fire and wood-shaped mountains known as the Huge Door Mountain, Chastity Mountain and Greedy Wolf Mountain respectively in Feng Shui studies.

INVESTMENT TIME FRAME FROM A FENG SHUI PERSPECTIVE

You have to decide whether you are buying the property for the long-term or short-term.

For short-term property investments, you want your target investment area to be timely. Timely means that it is in a prosperous position. Usually locations or developments which are timely are already busy and bustling with activities. There are people flocking to these areas to start businesses and to settle down. Looking at the Feng Shui at a micro level, you will find the Water Mouth or Qi Mouth with the entry and exit at Southwest and Northeast in the period of 8. Water Mouth in Feng Shui is the point where Qi is most vibrant. Water Mouth can be:

- Where two rivers meet
- Where a river runs into a sea or lake
- The turning point of river
- The turning point of a road
- The junction of a road

Where development of a township is concerned, if we want the area to be prosperous we want an entry or exit to the township to be located at Southwest and Northeast to tap into the current prosperous Qi.

If your property investment is for the long-term you can target developments with North and South entry and exit points that have potential to grow and become prosperous. As the Qi for the period of 9 starts to rise in 2014, you can see some of the prices of these areas slowly picking up.

FENG SHUI - REMOTE VIEWING OF A PROPERTY

A woman with long, curly hair, wearing a vibrant, multi-colored geometric pattern dress, stands on a grassy field. She is reaching up with both hands to touch a large, white, angular sculpture that resembles a stylized, multi-faceted arrow or a modern architectural structure. The sculpture is composed of several large, white, triangular and quadrilateral planes meeting at sharp angles. The background is a clear, bright blue sky. The overall scene is bright and sunny.

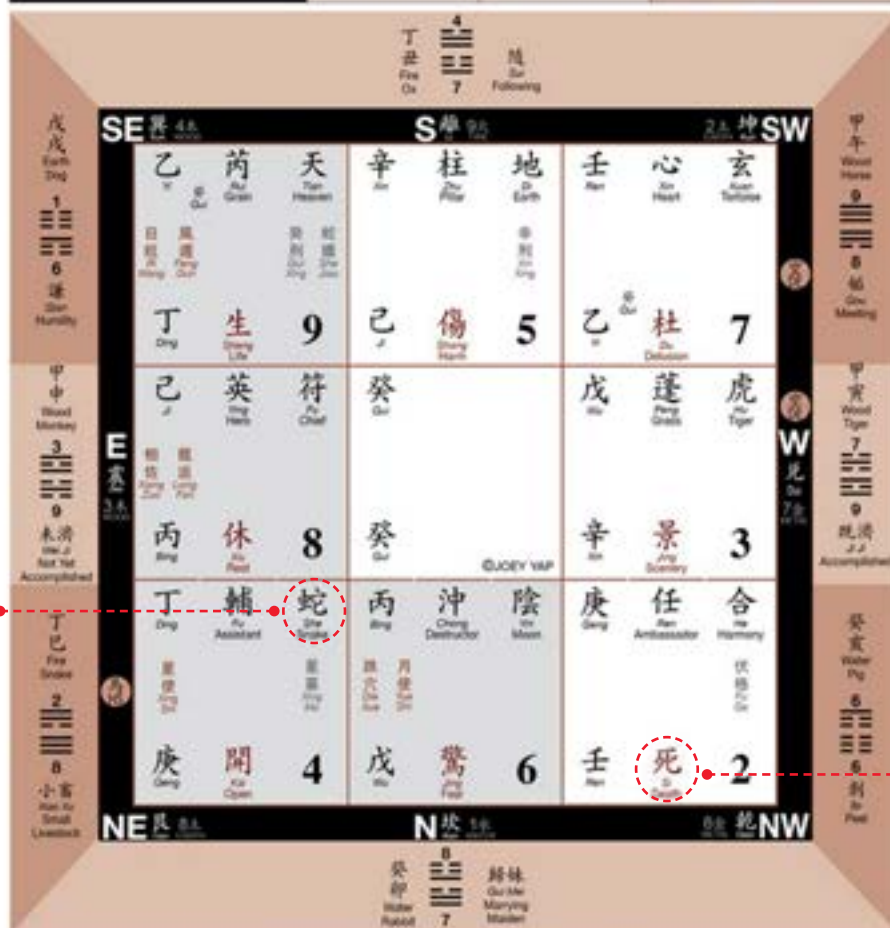

Getting a Feng Shui consultant to help you hunt for a home or a property for investment can be costly and time consuming. So, you'll be glad to know that 奇門遁甲 Qi Men Du Jia, also known as the Mystical Door Hiding the Jia system gives you an alternative to engaging a Feng Shui consultant to hunt for property, at least until everything is finalized.

We have been discussing the Fa Qi Men under the Law of Attraction with a Twist segment. Fa Qi Men is a subdivision of Qi Men Dun Jia that taps into the Universal Qi to help us attract or easily access what we desire. Besides this, there are many other ways to use Qi Men Dun Jia, one of which is accessing the Qi of the environment using the Qi Men Chart with no need to be physically on site. This is called 'remote viewing' which comes under Feng Shui Forecasting.

Here is an example of what the Qi Men Chart looks like. The Qi Men Chart is dated 28 July 2014 (00:00).

The Qi Men Chart can show us an internal and external view of a property.

Qi Men can help you find the answers to some of the questions that arise while hunting for a home or investment property:

- 1. House or Land Hunting: If you seem to have trouble finding a home or acquiring a suitable piece of land, the Qi Men Chart can tell where to look. Sometimes it will indicate to you that it is not the right time yet so you should wait awhile.
- 2. Property Analysis: The Qi Men Chart also indicates to you whether the property in question has good Feng Shui or otherwise. It can also show you exactly where the problem is and what you should be looking for to find the cause of the problem as well as whether it is fixable.
- 3. Property Selection: The Qi Men Chart indicates to you which property is better suited to your objective if you have more than 1 choice to choose from. Your objective can be a home with good Feng Shui or, for investment purpose, whether the property can appreciate further.
- 4. Property Investment: Besides assessing the potential appreciation of the property, the Qi Men chart can also help you determine whether you are able to finance the property. It can also indicate to you whether it is the right time to sell the property.

To find out the above information, you need to find the marker in the Qi Men chart to give you the answer. To make this article simple to understand and immediately applicable, we will stick with point no.1 on hunting for a house or land:

Marker for House Hunting: 騰蛇 Surging Snake

Marker for Land Hunting: 死門 Death Door

Using the example of the Qi Men chart above, which is dated 28 July 2014 at 00:00, Surging Snake is located in the Northeast. Based on the Feng Shui Forecasting method, this is the direction that you should be heading towards to hunt for a house while Northwest should be the direction that you should be looking at for land. To keep things simple, take note that for house hunting, the 甲 Jia, 乙 Yi, 丙 Bing, 丁 Ding and 戊 Wu Stems with Open, Life and Rest Door as well as positive Stars always indicate positive results. For land, 甲 Jia, 乙 Yi, 丙 Bing, 丁 Ding and 戊 Wu Stems with the good Stars and Deities indicate good outcomes. Hence in comparison, this Qi Men Chart shows a better opportunity in getting a house than land. Stay tuned to our Qi Men segments to have a better understanding of Stems, Stars and Deities.

Success

is liking yourself,
liking what you do,
and liking how you do it.”
– Maya Angelou

Do you have it in you to be successful?

Drive, persistency and consistency!

These are some of the characteristics of successful people. These are also the factors that make the difference between keeping your New Year's resolution and just giving up one month down the road.

Some of you may already have these characteristics built into your DNA. How do you know you have it? From a Bazi perspective, a person's drive to succeed can be seen from his Hour Pillar. In the Hour Pillar we want to see a Wealth Star or Companion Star especially the Rob Wealth Star. The Stars here must be timely and not be in a clash, harm, punishment or destruction relationship. Timely means that the season supporting the Star's element. Having these Stars here indicate that you have the drive to do whatever it takes to succeed.

However, this doesn't mean you are consistent and persistent.

| 八字 Bazi Chart | | | | |
|--|-------|---------|--------|---------------------------|
| 時 Hour | 日 Day | 月 Month | 年 Year | |
| | | | | 天干 Heavenly Stems |
| Direct Wealth Indirect Wealth Friend Rob Wealth | | | | 地支 Earthly Branches |
| | | | | 藏干 Hidden Stem |

Being consistent and persistent is a form of discipline. The Stars that govern discipline are the Influence Stars – Seven Killings and Direct Officer. We want the Influence Star near our Day Master. Hence, we want to see either Seven Killings or Direct Officer on the Month Heavenly Stem, Day Earthly Branch or Hour Heavenly Stem. We do not want to see these Stars appearing in all the locations mentioned. Quality is more important than quantity. The Influence Star should be in good condition which means it must be rooted and not being clashed, harmed or punished.

| 八字 Bazi Chart | | | | |
|----------------------------------|----------------------------------|----------------------------------|--------|---------------------------|
| 時 Hour | 日 Day | 月 Month | 年 Year | |
| Seven Killings Direct Officer | | Seven Killings Direct Officer | | 天干 Heavenly Stems |
| | Seven Killings Direct Officer | | | 地支 Earthly Branches |
| | | | | 藏干 Hidden Stem |

Fulfilling these qualities indicates that you are a person who is self-motivated, able to accept challenges and proactive in achieving success be it climbing the corporate ladder, starting up a business or just completing your New Year's Resolution.

Each person has a different motivation style. The first step you should take in order to motivate yourself is by understanding your motivation style.

If you have Resource Stars – Direct Resource and Indirect Resource, in your Hour Pillar, you are only motivated when there is trouble or disaster. At any other time you will let life take its course. It is okay if you feel happy in that state. However, to achieve results, it is better for you to practice consistency. Keep up your momentum of doing.

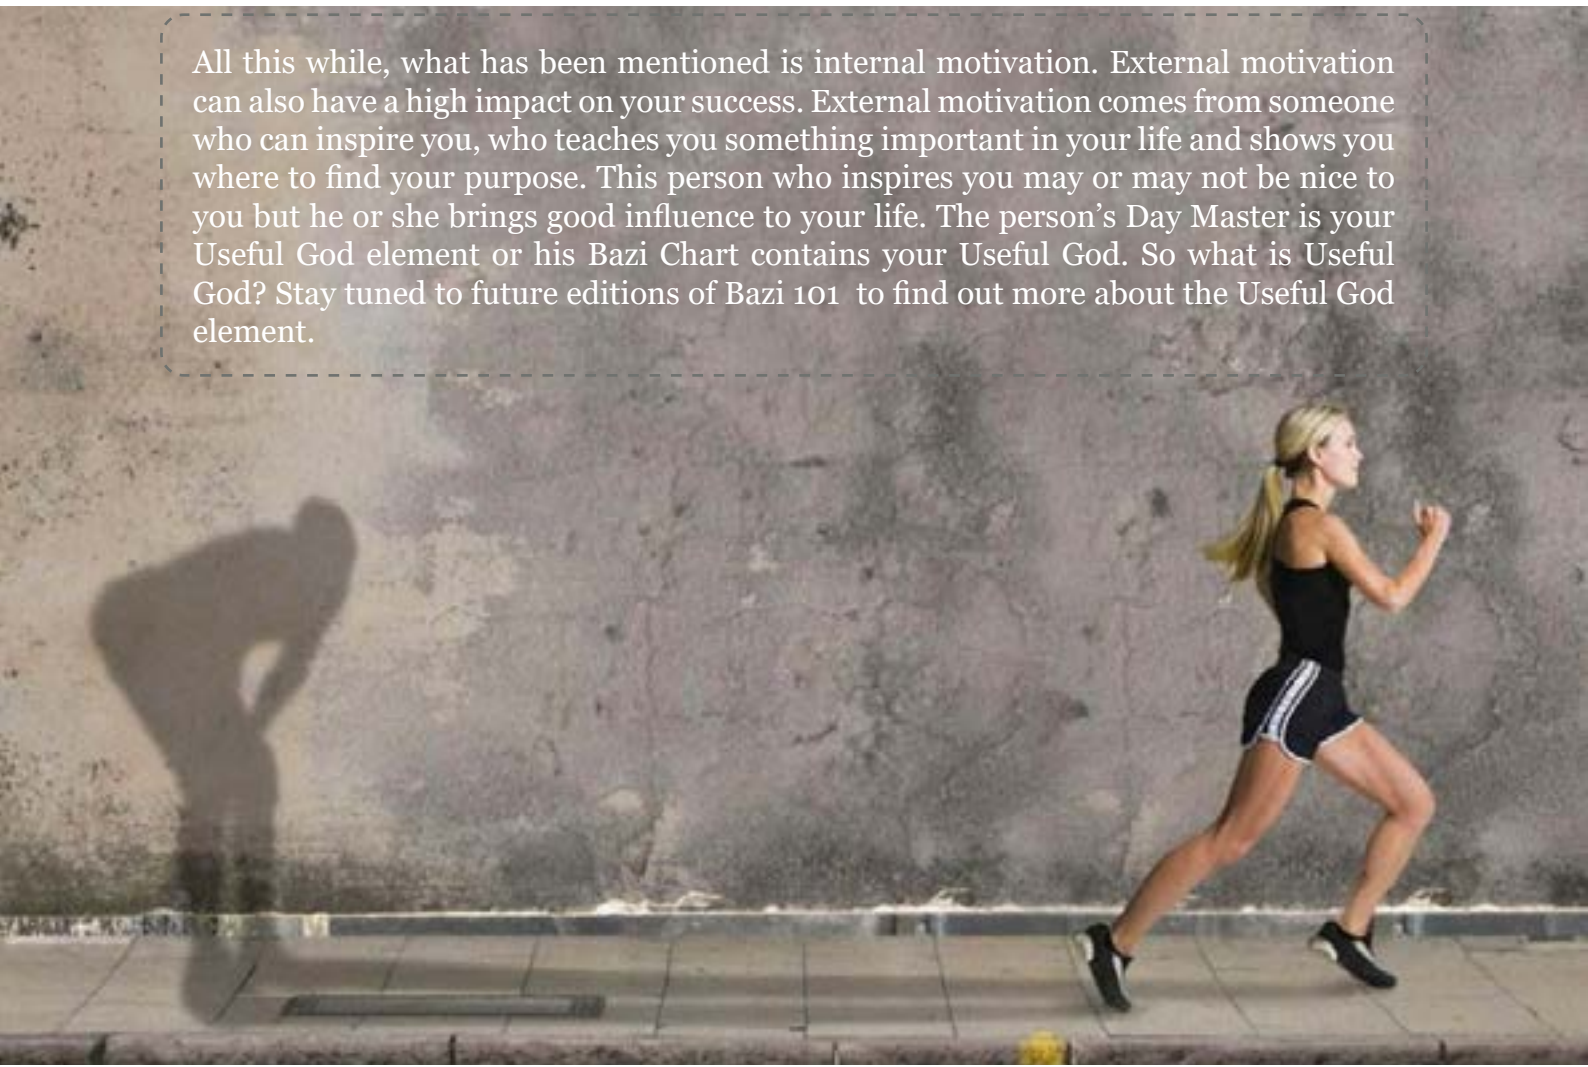

Influence Stars at the Hour Pillar, indicates that you are a disciplined person but you are risk averse. You have no problem setting a goal and achieving it. However, sometimes you need to take more risk to achieve a higher level of success.

Between the two Output Stars, Hurting Officer likes to compete with others. Surrounding yourself with people who are doing well and doing better than you can motivate you to up your game. Eating God is generally motivated by having the good things in life. Luxurious treats can move you to do more.

Usually if you find that your Hour Pillar is in a harm, clash, punishment or destructive relationship, you may be plagued by fear and anxiety. Most of the time you are afraid of failing and you try to avoid failure. Fear can be a good motivation when used wisely. Visualize all the horrible things that might happen if you didn't take a certain action or didn't achieve something. This will drive you to do what must be done.

Both positive and negative motivation have a very powerful impact on your desire to succeed. Sometimes you need to have a little fear to push you to the next level. Other times, motivate yourself positively by visualising the rewards that will come with success.

All this while, what has been mentioned is internal motivation. External motivation can also have a high impact on your success. External motivation comes from someone who can inspire you, who teaches you something important in your life and shows you where to find your purpose. This person who inspires you may or may not be nice to you but he or she brings good influence to your life. The person's Day Master is your Useful God element or his Bazi Chart contains your Useful God. So what is Useful God? Stay tuned to future editions of Bazi 101 to find out more about the Useful God element.

The Qi Men Chart on 3 March 2014 01:09 below is plotted based on the date we received your question. As your question is about relationship matters, we look at the East and West Sectors to answer your question. These two sectors are opposing each other so it is advisable not to move in with your boyfriend. You should do some self-reflection on the real reason behind your desire to move in with your boyfriend. It may be due to some emotional competition. Your action may harm your relationship.

Based on your Bazi, you can invest both in equity and property. You have just walked into your wealth luck cycle which starts from 2013 to 2022 that is good for investment. This is your best time. Bazi 101

Heavenly Stems and Earthly Branches Relationships (Part II)

In the last issue of Bazi 101, we introduced Combination-Relationships and how the Heavenly Stems and Earthly Branches interact to form relationships. Now, Heavenly Stems and Earthly Branches not only interact with Luck Pillars, they also interact with each other in the Natal Chart to form relationships.

In this issue's Bazi 101, we want to explore two more relationships formed between Heavenly Stems, Earthly Branches and Luck Pillars.

Clash-Relationships

There are two levels of Clash-Relationships:

1. Heavenly Stems Clash
2. Earthly Branches Clash

Some Heavenly Stems Relationships do not have a clash, it is called a Control or Counter relationship because its effects are less severe than a Clash-Relationship.

Clash-Relationships indicate change or events forced by circumstances that are already prevailing.

It usually involves drastic or shocking change that affects the person's health, safety, relationships, wealth, and other endeavors.

Heavenly Stems Clash-Relationships

The Heavenly Stem Clash-Relationships are shown in the Table 1.

Table 1: 天干克 Heavenly Stems Clash or Control-Relationships

Beware when this type of relationship appears in a person's natal chart. Harm is the most unpleasant relationship and is usually emotional in nature. The person experiencing a Harm relationship feels hurt emotionally due to being cheated and betrayed by the person closest to them or the person they trust the most. Often it is unexpected and comes out of the blue. The impact of this betrayal usually lingers and takes time to resolve. The Harm relationship may sometimes refer to a health issue.

FACE READING THE SHAPE OF THE FACE

Scarlett Johansson

Robert Downey Jr

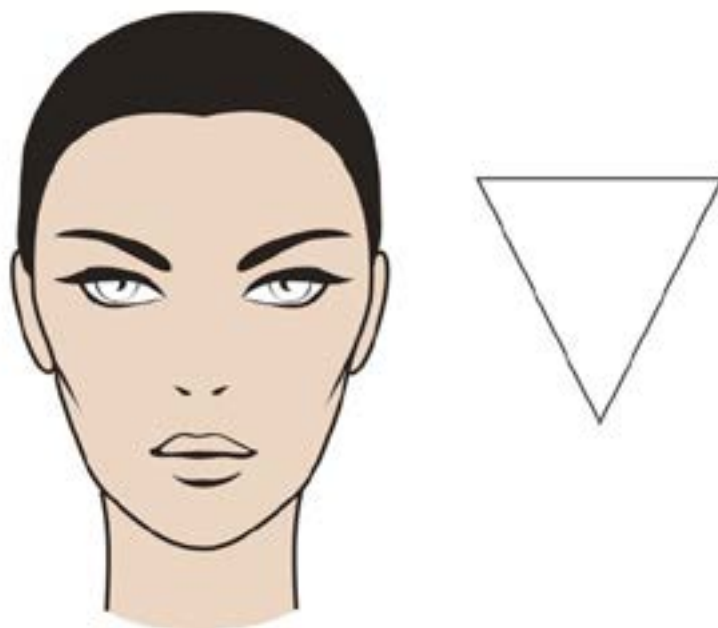

THE WOOD ELEMENT FACE

Your face tends to reflect the emotion of your heart as well as your health. As you grow older, the shape of your face changes to reflect your inner emotional well-being.

Although the shape of the face does change, everyone has their own original shape. The face can be classified into five basic shapes based on the five elements:

- Wood
- Fire
- Earth
- Metal
- Water

In this issue, we will discuss the Wood element face.

Shape: A Wood element face usually assumes the form of an inverted triangle with a broad forehead and sharp-narrow chin.

Positive Features: A tall, lean and sturdy body should hold the Wood element face high. Since Wood element also represents hair, a person with a Wood element face should have a healthy crown of hair. The fingers should be long, knotty and slender.

In the producing cycle, Wood produces Fire element which indicates intelligence. Fire element represents a person's expression and passion. Therefore, for a person with Wood-shaped face to come across as credible and intelligent, they should have lively, big expressive eyes.

Negative: We do not want to see a Wood element face on a flabby and obese body. This indicates that the person has no sense of direction in life. The short body also denotes that the person finds life unfulfilling.

Small eyes are a “no-no” as this indicates that the person has trouble expressing himself or herself clearly. He or she can come across as having a confusing personality.

As you grow older, the shape of your face tends to change slightly. If the corners of a Wood element face turn rounder around the jawline, this indicates the following possibilities:

- health problem that needs surgery
- betrayal
- accidents

Character: People with Wood element faces have a thoughtful, understanding and benevolent personality. They are magnanimous and generous. At the same time they are persistent and very independent. They are thinkers, thus good at strategizing.

Career: Given their high IQ, they are suited for careers in the medical field, research and development (R&D), and education. Their kind-hearted nature also leads them to social and volunteer work.

There are different variations to the Wood element face, namely, the Heart-shaped face and Diamond-shaped face.

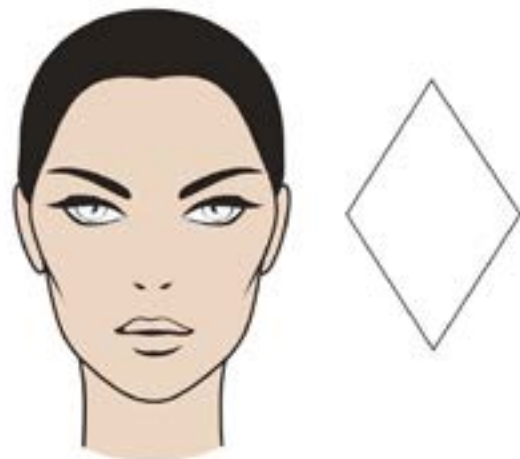

Heart-shaped Face

The Heart-shaped face is fleshier with pronounced cheekbones that are wide apart. Sometimes the face is characterized by a pointy dip on the hairline toward the middle of the forehead.

People with heart-shaped faces have a cheerier nature compared to other Wood-shaped faces. They are easy-going, shy and yet independent.

Diamond-shaped Face

The Diamond-shaped face is a combination of Fire and Wood elements. It is characterized by a narrower forehead, wide cheekbones and sharp narrow chin.

People with this type of face shape tend to be perfectionists by nature. They are self-confident and strong-willed. While they make good leaders, they may not have successful marriages. This is probably due to their quick-temper, unpredictable moods and demanding nature. They achieve success late in life.

So What Do You Want?

Before going further into the details of the Four (4) Realms – Deities, Stars, Doors and Stems, we must first understand what we want. If you don't know what you want, you won't be able to attract it into your life. You must already know what you want before using the Fa Qi Men method.

To get clear on what you want, you can ask yourself these three questions.

1. What do you really want?

Sometimes people mistake what they want with what they think they should be doing. The Fa Qi Men is not about how to find your higher purpose. It is not about what you should be doing.

Your astrology tells you what you should do. What you want is a spiritual thing. This can be a spiritual enlightenment of sort.

2. Where are you right now?

You need to know where you are to get to where you want to be. Are you happy now? What do you like and dislike about your life? How do you feel everyday? What would you want to feel more of?

3. Which path should you take?

There are probably many different paths available to you, and deciding on a path to take can keep you in analysis paralysis.

The best way to move forward is to decide. Think about what you want and how you want to feel and pick the path that will take you there. Don't worry about making the wrong decision. It is rare that you cannot make a U-turn.

If you really don't know what you want and also don't know where you are, then continue to do what you are doing but try to do it better.

Basically the whole idea of these three questions is to understand yourself better.

Now, what do you do once you are clear about what you want?

Everything we talk about is based on the Law of the Universe, the metaphysics forces of yin and yang. In the world of metaphysics, you need to give to get something back. This is the Law of Equivalent Exchange. It means yin and yang has to balance. You need to give to receive. If not the Law of Manifestation or Law of Attraction will not work.

So what have you got to give? Sometimes it can be money when you give in the form of charity. However, it is more about what you can give of yourself - your mind, body and soul. It can be your skills and your willingness to achieve whatever you want without any resentment, fear and anxiety. This requires calmness and clarity on your part. It also requires acceptance on your part. Chinese Metaphysics refers to these as Heaven, Earth and Man Luck. This is how it is represented :

These three areas – body, mind and soul affect each other. You may have already noticed that you have a little voice in your head, constantly talking to you. More often than not this internal conversation can be negative. When you indulge in too much negative self-talk it damages the soul. People think that the mind and the soul are the same. They are not, and it is all too easy for your mind to damage your soul.

You must think in such a way that the Heaven, your mind, and the Earth, your body, always conspire to help you, your soul. This starts from clarity of mind of knowing what you want and your belief that it is possible to achieve your dreams.
