Message from the Editor

Dear Readers,

Well, the festivities are finally over here in Malaysia, and it really feels like it's time to finally get down to business!

I think the ancient Romans got it right when they placed March, or Martius as they called it, as the first month of the calendar, using it to mark the beginning of the farming and warring season. If you, like me, have been wondering where the year has gone, let's use the month of March as a re-start, and get to sowing the seeds of our goals and aspirations, so that we'll have a good harvest at the end of the year.

Love,

Eu Geen

FAME AND FORTUNE

~ DUMB FAME

Do you want to turn heads while walking down the street? Be asked for autographs? Or be asked to take a photo together with a stranger? This is the public life of famous people. It seems glamorous and desirable for many of us, as along with the fame comes respect, acknowledgment and recognition as well as wealth.

In Bazi study, there is “Dumb Fame” and “Smart Fame”. Dumb fame refers to people who get lucky, or in this case, famous by accident. While smart fame comes as a result of sweat and toil.

In this article, lets look mainly at “Dumb Fame”. Some people have more chances of getting famous than others. In Bazi study, the Career Palace can give a very strong indication of whether you can be famous or not. When the Peach Blossom star appears on the Career Palace, there are very high chances of becoming famous. There are four zodiac signs that represent the Peach Blossom star as shown in the Table 1.

Table 1: 桃花星 Peach Blossom Stars

桃花星 Peach Blossom Stars
卯 Mao Rabbit	午 Wu Horse	酉 You Rooster	子 Zi Rat

As long as you have one of these Peach Blossom stars, fame and fortune will shine on you. These Peach Blossom stars may be your personal Peach Blossoms or otherwise. Refer to Table 2 to find your Personal Peach Blossom star. However, if you are getting famous by accident, the Peach Blossom star in your Career Palace is most likely not your Personal Peach Blossom star.

Look at PSY's Bazi chart as an example. PSY is a stage name. His birth name is a Park Jae-sang. He was born on 31 December 1977, time unknown. He became famous when he released the song, "Gangnam Style" in 2012. He was subsequently recognized by the media as the "King of YouTube". The latest record shows that there are over 2.4 billion views of the Gangnam Style video on YouTube. It is still one of the most viewed videos on YouTube.

In PSY's Bazi chart, the Career Palace (Month Branch) contains the Rat zodiac sign which is one of the four Peach Blossom stars. PSY's Personal Peach Blossom stars (Refer to Table 2) are the Rabbit, based on the Day Branch (Dog) and Horse, based on the Year Branch (Snake). This explains why PSY's fame is accidental. His fame is not a result of his work or charisma. In fact, many consider him unpolished and unpredictable. And he doesn't look like your typical Korean idol.

Gangnam Style became popular outside of South Korea in 2012, a Water Dragon year. This is where another Peach Blossom star in PSY's Bazi Luck Pillar, the Rooster sign, triggered the Rat sign in his Career Palace. It involved a combination and uncivilized punishment relationship as the zodiacs interact with each other. PSY considers Gangnam Style one of his greatest achievements.

However, there are many controversies about the originality of the song. His former best friend, Kim Jang-hoon, accused him of stealing the song and dance move from him. On the other hand, some have said that Gangnam Style was copied from "Chespirito" who has been entertaining young Latino audiences since 1968. While others said that it was an imitation of the famous Taiwanese singer Jay Chou, who also had a similar dance in his music video, ‘Cowboy on the Run.’

Selling Yourself

As A Small Business Owner or Freelancer

Are you an insurance agent, a property agent, a consultant, a freelancer or small home-based business owner? All businesses start in a small way. Most successful business owners or self-proprietors know how to sell themselves. We're not talking about sales. We're talking about "Selling Yourself". Selling yourself is very close to marketing. It is a strategy to bring awareness to the business and also build trust. This is a very effective way for small business owners to build a brand for themselves and their business. Even employees need to sell themselves.

Selling yourself is easier when you aim for a niche. You need to be different but this doesn't necessarily mean being wacky or doing something offensive. It is about differentiating your products and services from your competitors. It can also mean targeting a different segment of customers such as different income group, age group or location. A lot of the time, it is only the "one thing" that helps you settle into your niche.

Realizing your angle is finding your unique value proposition. Once you've found it, then it's time to start evaluating how you're going to reach these people. In Bazi study, the Year Pillar of a person's Bazi chart, besides representing grandparents, friends and acquaintances, also represents your door to the outer world. The Five Elements and Ten Gods that reside on the Year Pillar indicate how people perceive you and how you reach out to people.

By knowing the Ten Gods in Year Pillar of your Bazi chart, you can improve the odds when you are selling yourself. Refer to Table 1 to discover the suitable tactics or media to use to reach out to your target audience.

Table 1: 十神 Ten Gods and Selling Yourself

十神 Ten Gods	Channel to Reach People

七殺 Seven Killings	Meeting In Person / Word of Mouth
正官 Direct Officer	Meeting In Person / Word of Mouth
偏印 Indirect Resource	Telephone / Skype / Email / Virtue Office
正印 Direct Resource	Publishing Books / e-books

For example, Alan Lee is born on 22 March 1982 at 10:53 in the morning.

His Bazi chart's Year Pillar contains Indirect Resource on the Heavenly Stem and Indirect Wealth on the Earthly Branches as well as Hurting Officer and Direct Officer on the Hidden Stem. According to his Bazi chart, he has several options to use to sell himself. He can reach out to people through social media, main stream media, videos or personal meetings.

The best choice is social media since the Heavenly Stem contains Indirect Resource. Heavenly Stem refers to what is given by heaven – things that easily come to you, whereas Earthly Branch refers to your man luck - what is immediately available if you put effort into it. The secondary channel is to use main stream media such as television, radio, newspapers or billboards. Hosting a live-show or participating in a live-show that is related to him and his aspirations can help him spread awareness about his business faster. The Hidden Stems usually indicate what is available, but are more difficult to access. In Alan's case, he can actually use a combination of channels to help him out. Since Hurting Officer's channel is video, he can do a promotional video on television networks or social media. Since Direct Officer is about meeting the right people in person, Alan can also accept interviews hosted by special news network channels or television networks. A recorded video of the interview can then be spread across his social media channels.

The above methods can also apply to your sales tactics.

Happy selling for 2016!

A Simple Guide To Investing

After careful studying and analyzing of stocks to invest in and having considered all the important factors such as the stock's expense ratio, management stability, sector weighting, style and asset allocation to ensure that the investment is likely to perform positively, you are ready to invest. Still, the price of the stock may not rise as expected due to unexpected market conditions or you may have already missed the boat, price wise, if your investment decision is based on an event or catalyst. 奇門遁甲 Qi Men Dun Jia ("QMDJ") can be used to help you estimate a time frame to enter or exit your investment.

QMDJ is originally devised to help form military strategies and tactics. It is used for the purpose of strategic planning. Over the centuries, the QMDJ system has been expanded to many uses, most notably as a forecasting tool. Through careful study of the system by practitioners who have knowledge in business, finance and QMDJ, this forecasting system has been expanded further to investments. It is popularly used by Chinese businessmen in China, Hong Kong and Taiwan in their business strategic planning.

Let's take a look at the QMDJ chart on 23 February 2016 at 20:54, and how this chart can give you simple investment guidance. For investment related matters, the focus point to look into is the 生門 Life Door. Therefore, the Southwest Palace (Earth Element) is used for this reading. Southwest Palace shows positive structures, 跌穴 Die Xue and 月使 Yue Shi with positive stems 丙 Bing Fire and 戌 Wu Earth. This can simply mean that the stock that you intend to invest in has positive fundamentals. The Heavenly Hero Star indicates that the stock is popular in the stock market now. There is a lot of positive news about this company. The Surging Snake Deity further confirms the presence of positive news about the company many times.

Another important focus point to look at is actually the Palace that contains the 戌 Wu Earth Heavenly Stem which is on the West Palace (Metal Element). Wu Earth represents profit or loss. The Southwest Palace produces to West Palace. This indicates that the catalysts or news for this company has already been priced into the stock. Notice the 馬 Horse and 空 Death & Emptiness signs on the Southwest Palace? The 馬 Horse means that the price has already gone up very fast while 空 Death & Emptiness means the stock is not available for you to purchase during the time of this QMDJ reading. This can happen if you are doing the reading during a long holiday where there is no trading or if the stock is being suspended for the time being.

Conclusion: Although this is a good stock to invest in, this is not the right time to buy as the price has already shot up. You may want to wait for the price to decrease to a reasonable level. You may ask, "Will this stock price fall then?" The answer is "Yes" because the Southwest Palace produces to West Palace. You can do the reading again after 2 days to check if it is the right time for entry.

QMDJ Forecasting gives a straight forward and simple answer. It is easy to understand and use. You can learn QMDJ Forecasting or consult a QMDJ consultant about your investment. Feng Shui Tips To Sell Your Property Fast

Want to set your property up for a quick sale? Looking at the current property market, especially in Malaysia, the peak homebuying season may be over. Still, Malaysia generally has a young population where 80% of Malaysians are below the age of 50. This means that the demand for houses is only going to increase as more young adults come into the workforce, and look to settle down to form their families. The development of the LRT/MRT lines which enhances connectivity to the outer Klang Valley will bode well for the residential and commercial property market too.

The slowing economic conditions and the depreciating ringgit caused Malaysia's property market to slow sharply. Overall property prices, especially house prices in Malaysia will continue to rise, but at a slower pace. Property transactions will be negatively affected. Property developers, taking the cue from the market, have slowed down construction activities.

Property investors with plenty of cash, this is the best property hunting ground now. For those who are looking to dispose of the properties in their investment portfolio, here are some Feng Shui tips for you to ensure a speedy sale.

The only Feng Shui that affects you is that of your home or the office that you work in. The following Feng Shui tips should be applied based on your home or office measurements.

Tip 1: Placement of Sales Banner and Billboard

The placement of property sales banners and billboards is very important. Everyone knows that placing the banners or billboards at visible and busy areas will give rise to higher chances of attracting more buyers. You can further enhance this effect by placing sales banners and billboards at the Nobleman direction of your home or office (if you are a business owner who has your own premises). You can place the sales banners and billboards far away from your home or office using your home or office as the centre point to measure the direction. This nobleman sector is calculated from the opposite position of the main door of your home or office. It is not based on the property that you intend to sell. Refer to Table 1 to find the Nobleman direction .

Tip 2: Activate the Nobleman Sector of your Home or Office

You can place water or spring clean the Nobleman sector of your home and office on a selected auspicious date (refer to Good Date Planner for auspicious dates). The Nobleman sector of your home is actually the same as the Nobleman direction. Refer to Table 1 to find the Nobleman direction.

You should take into consideration the Annual Affliction sectors such as the Grand Duke, Five Yellow and Three Killings sectors. Should the Annual Affliction fall into the same sector of your house's Nobleman sector, then avoid activating the sector. Refer to BaziChic December 2015 Issue, page 38 on Avoiding the Feng Shui Afflicted Sectors in 2016 to find out more about the Annual Affliction.

Tip 3: Activate the Flying Star 2 Sector of your Home or Office

Flying Star 2 represents property and business

Table 1: Nobleman Direction of your Property

Main Door Location	Nobleman Direction
Northeast 3 East 1 Southeast 1 West 1 Northwest 1 Southwest 3	Northeast 1	Southwest 1
East 2 East 3 Northeast 1 Southwest 1	North 2	Southwest 3
South 1 South 2 South 3 Southeast 3	Northwest 3	West 2
North 1 North 2 North 3 Northwest 3	East 2	Southeast 3
West 2 West 3	South 2	Northeast 3
Northwest 2 Southwest 2 Southeast 2 Northeast 2	NIL	NIL income. By activating the Star 2 sector of your home, besides enhancing your business income, it also increases the earning opportunities from your property investment. However, activating Star 2 creates a side effect. Flying Star 2 is also known as the Illness Star 2. Thus, after activating this Star 2 sector, occupants will be prone to illness.

Tip 4: Activate combination of Flying Star 1-4-7

Activation of the combination of Flying Star 1, 4 and 7 is greatly restricted due to the time factor. This is because you have to wait for Star 1, 4 and 7 to fall into the same sector.

In 2016, Yearly Flying Star 4 falls into West sector. In the Month of May 2016, Flying Star 1 also resides at the West sector. Hence, you only have to wait for the Daily Flying Star 7 to fly into the West sector of your home. Refer to Table 2 for the dates where the combination of Flying Star 1, 4 and 7 happen to be in the West Sector and the best time to activate the West sector.

The Yearly Flying Star 1 falls into Southeast sector. In the Month of August 2016, Flying Star 4 also resides at the Southeast sector. Hence, you only have to wait for the Daily Flying Star 7 to fly into the Southeast sector of your home. Refer to Table 2 for the date where the combination of Flying Star 1, 4 and 7 happen to be in the Southeast Sector and the best time to activate the Southeast sector.

Similarly you can activate the Yearly Flying Star 7 which falls into the North sector. In the month of August 2016, Flying Star 1 also resides at the North sector. Hence, you only have to wait for the Daily Flying Star 4 to fly into the North sector of your home. Star 7 at the North sector is also known as Robbery Star. It can bring negative influences such as scandal, robbery and legal disputes. Thus, it is best to only activate this star on an auspicious date to mitigate the side effects. Refer to Table 2 for the dates where the combination of Flying Star 1, 4 and 7 happen to be in the North Sector and the best time to activate the North sector.

Table 2: Sector with the Combination of Flying Star 1, 4 and 7

Sector	Date	Auspicious Time	Not Suitable for Zodiac Sign
West	7 May 2016	13:30	Goat
	16 May 2016	15:30	Dragon
	25 May 2016	09:30	Ox
Southeast	3 June 2016	09:30	Dog
North	11 August 2016	05:30	Goat
	20 August 2016	05:30	Dragon
	29 August 2016	09:30	Ox
North	29 August 2016	09:30	Ox

With the tips above, we hope that you successfully sell off your property.

Top 5 Tips for Determining Direction without a Compass

Application of Feng Shui requires you to roughly know the direction of your home or property. Apart from Feng Shui, Qi Men Dun Jia and the Yi Jing 易經 divination method may also require you to know the direction, depending on what type of question you want ask. Nowadays, most people with a smart phone can access a compass easily.

However, if you still manage to find yourself without a compass, here are 5 tips to determine direction without a compass.

No. 1: The Divination method

If you do not have a compass and are not sure of the direction, you can use the Chinese Metaphysics divination method to determine your direction. This is not the actual direction. It is used mostly when you have a question to ask related to a certain direction as a focal point. In this method, you are the centre. To your front is the South, to you left, the West, to your right is the East and the North is at your back.

Do not worry about this divination direction not being the actual direction in the compass. It will give you an accurate answer because this method taps into the universal energy which is called Yi (易).

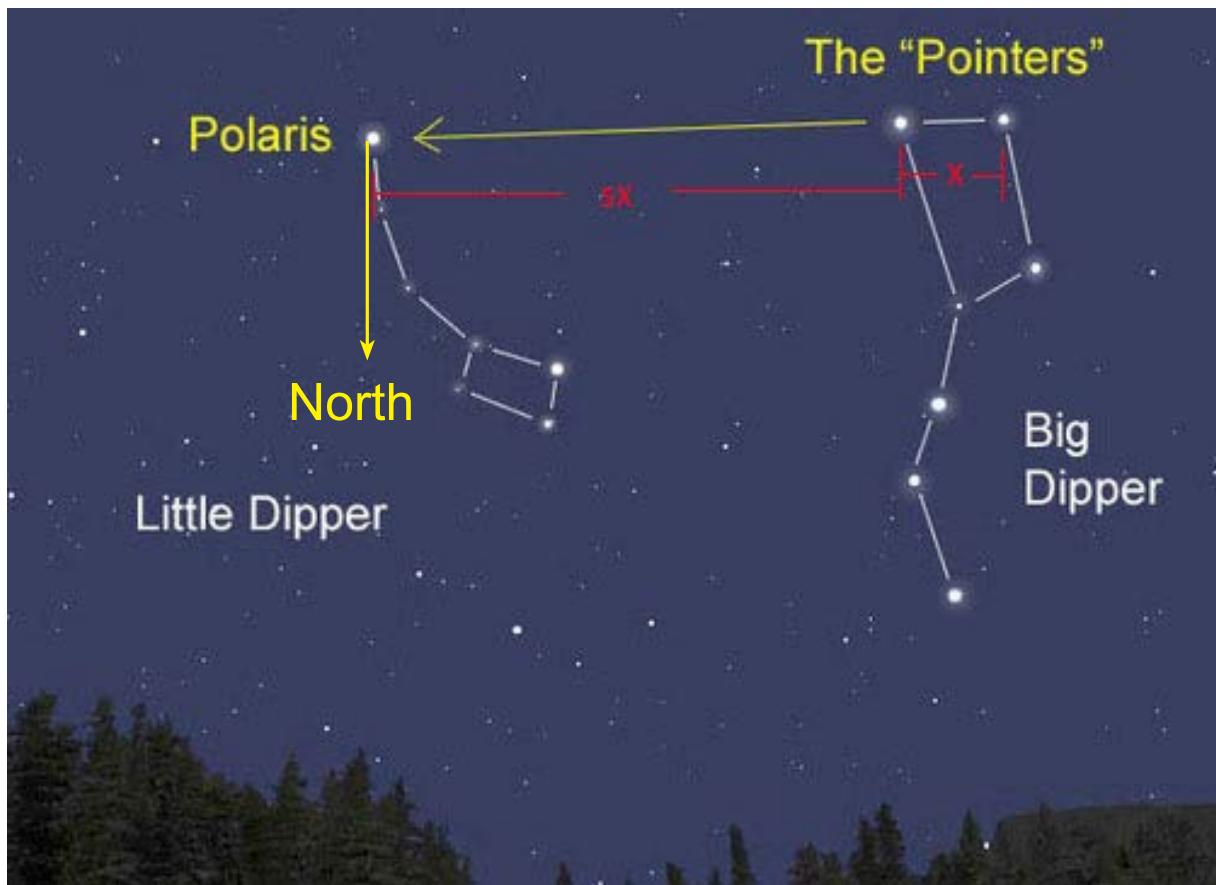

For example, Annie sees a red Porsche that she loves so much right in front of her car as she is waiting at the traffic light. She has a strong feeling that it is a divine message telling her something. She wants to know what the message means. As this occurred on 15 February 2016 at around 11:42, she uses the QMDJ chart based on the date and time given to do the reading. The focal point for interpreting the message is the South Palace since the Porsche is right in front of her.

No. 2: Big Dipper

Now, we move on to methods of determining the actual directions. We are unfortunately not able to use the Divination method for Feng Shui purposes.

In the old days, people could find their way in the outdoors without a compass, using nature's own signs. The most accurate and reliable direction during the night is right over your head. Yes, it is Polaris, the North Star. Sailors at sea and nomads in the deserts navigate at night using the North Star.

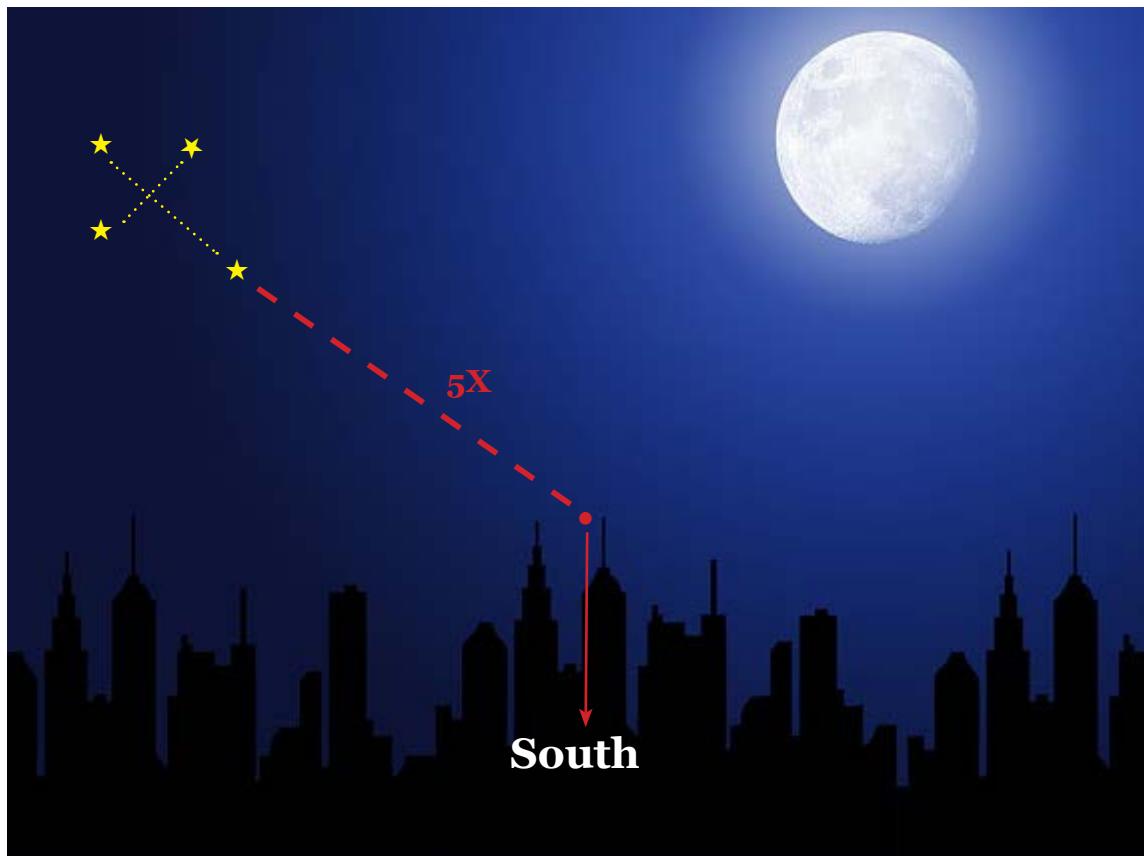

Here's how to find the North Star:

1. First find the Big Dipper in the night sky.
2. Then, find the two stars at the outer edge of the Dipper's bowl. These are pointer stars, pointing to the North Star.
3. Extend an imaginary line from the pointer stars across the sky to the next bright star.
4. Stretch your arm out full length and spread your fingers, and the North Star should be about as far away as your thumb is from your middle finger.

The North Star is important in many Chinese Metaphysics studies and Taoist practice. There is an old Chinese saying, “An excellent Feng Shui Master study stars and constellations, and a good Feng Shui Master study the landforms whereas a low grade Feng Shui Master runs around the mountain trying to spot the meridian spot.”

No. 3: The Crux

The North Star is however, not visible in the Southern Hemisphere. However, from the Southern Hemisphere, you can see the Crux constellation. The Crux is also known as the Southern Cross because it is dominated by a cross-shaped or kite-like asterism. It points you towards the South. To find the direction from the Southern Cross constellation:

1. Find the Southern Cross in the night sky
2. The Southern Cross constellation is formed by five stars. The four brightest stars form a cross that is angled to one side.
3. Identify the two stars that make up the longer axis of the cross.
4. These stars form a line which "points" to an imaginary point in the sky which is above the South Pole.
5. Imagine a line down from the two stars five times the distance between them.
6. Extend a line at the end of the imaginary point to the ground.
7. Identify a corresponding landmark to steer by.
8. Since this is true south, true north is directly opposite it which is behind you if you are looking at the point.

No. 4: The Sun's Path

An excellent Feng Shui Master not only studies the stars and constellations during the night but also observes the sky during the day. The biggest star in the solar system is actually the Sun. It makes a good indicator of direction.

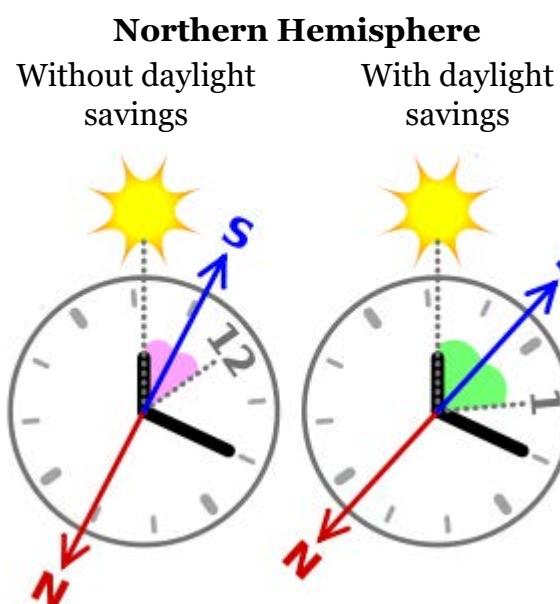

The Sun's Path is the most popularly used method to determine the East-West direction. Here's how to determine directions from the Sun's Path:

1. When you determine that the sun is in the east (early in the morning), then north will

- be roughly a quarter turn counterclockwise.
2. If you're facing the sun, you would turn to the left. This is the north.
 3. When the sun is in the west during the evening, then north is roughly a quarter turn clockwise.
 4. Face the sun and you turn to the right. This is the north.
 5. South is directly opposite it.
 6. At 12 noon, and depending on daylight savings time, as well as your position within the time-zone, the sun will be pointed due south in the northern hemisphere, and due north in the southern hemisphere.

No. 5: The Sun and Wristwatch

The sun and wristwatch can be excellent tools for finding direction. You'll need an analog wristwatch - the kind with hour and minute hands. With a little extra practice, this method can help you locate the 24-Mountains directions popularly used in the Feng Shui compass.

Here's how to determine directions using a wristwatch if you're in the Northern Hemisphere:

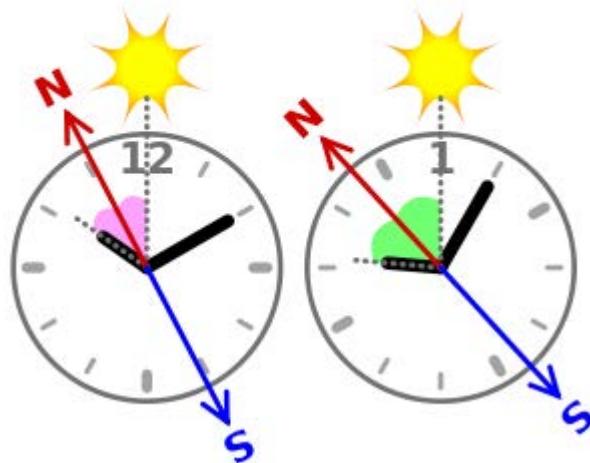

1. Set the time on the wristwatch accurately.
2. Hold it horizontal in your hand.
3. Point the hour hand at the sun.
4. Find the angle between the hour hand and the twelve o'clock mark
5. The centre of the angle between the hour hand and twelve o'clock mark is the north-south line.
6. If you are not sure which way is north and which way is south, just remember that the sun rises in the east and sets in the west.
7. In the Northern Hemisphere the sun is due south at midday. (Important: If your watch is set to daylight saving time, use the centre line of the angle between the hour hand and the one o'clock mark instead)

If you are in the Southern Hemisphere, here is how to determine directions using a wristwatch:

1. Ensure that the watch is set accurately.
2. Point the twelve o'clock mark of the wrist watch toward the sun. (Important: If your watch is set to daylight savings time, point the one o'clock mark toward the sun.)

Southern Hemisphere

Without daylight savings With daylight savings

3. Find the angle between the twelve o'clock mark and the hour hand. The centre of the angle between the hour hand and twelve o'clock mark is the north-south line.
4. In the southern hemisphere, the sun is due north at midday.

In the final step, imagine the 24-Mountain compass superimposed onto the wristwatch. Now you can estimate the 24-Mountain (Refer to page 64) directions.

There are many more methods for determining direction. However, I think these 5 methods are good enough to give you an indication of the direction when you want to check on minor issues with a Feng Shui consultant but find yourself without a compass.

The Art of 食神 Eating God Living!

On the auspicious day, 15 March 2016, make a wish for prosperity and happiness at 17:30 with your back facing North. Then indulge in a luscious dinner. And have a cup of coffee!

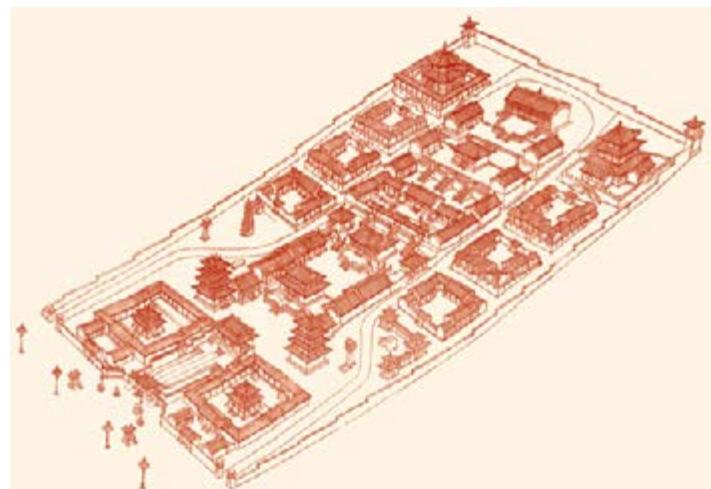

(A proposed refurbishment of Shaolin Temple)

I've been fortunate enough to visit many famous Feng Shui landmarks and one of my favourite places is the Shaolin Temple and Bodhidharma's cave, which I visited in 2014. The legendary Shaolin Temple is located in Song San. Funnily enough, it actually does not have the ideal Feng Shui environment. So why is it one of my favourite places?

I feel that this is a place where you have a choice as to what you want to be. You have a choice to choose immortality or just be a mortal. Around the Shaolin Temple, there are mountain formations that give rise to power, fame and fortune. There are also mountain formations that create wise men. This place births warriors, and also stoic labourers. You can choose the path of enlightenment, as Bodhidharma did in his sacred cave, or just be an ordinary girl, planting some vegetables and enjoying a peaceful life. It is not like the labyrinth that is Qing Long Mountain in Zhengzhou, where only spiritual mountain formations can be found.

Bodhidharma came to Song San and chose enlightenment. He was a Buddhist monk who lived during the 5th or 6th century, who many say brought Ch'an Buddhism to China. Many of us know Ch'an Buddhism by the more familiar term, Zen Buddhism, as it is called in Japan. Legend also has it that Bodhidharma began the physical training of the Shaolin monks which led to the creation of Shaolin Kung Fu.

(A large Pen Holder mountain formation)

The Shaolin Temple

Shaolin Temple sits on an embrace formed by two mountains and a water crossing. The embrace moves outward and is regarded as a non-ideal embrace. Who would have thought that, seeing the fame of the temple and its monks? But it seems that it is this non-ideal formation that gave rise to its fame. It's not ideal Feng Shui in the conventional sense because it causes the descendants of the people living in this type of embrace to leave their home. That's definitely not what any family patriarch would want to hear. However, it was great for a temple wanting to spread its teachings and influence. As students and monks left the temple and went out into the world, they spread the teachings and name of Shaolin, turning it into a household name.

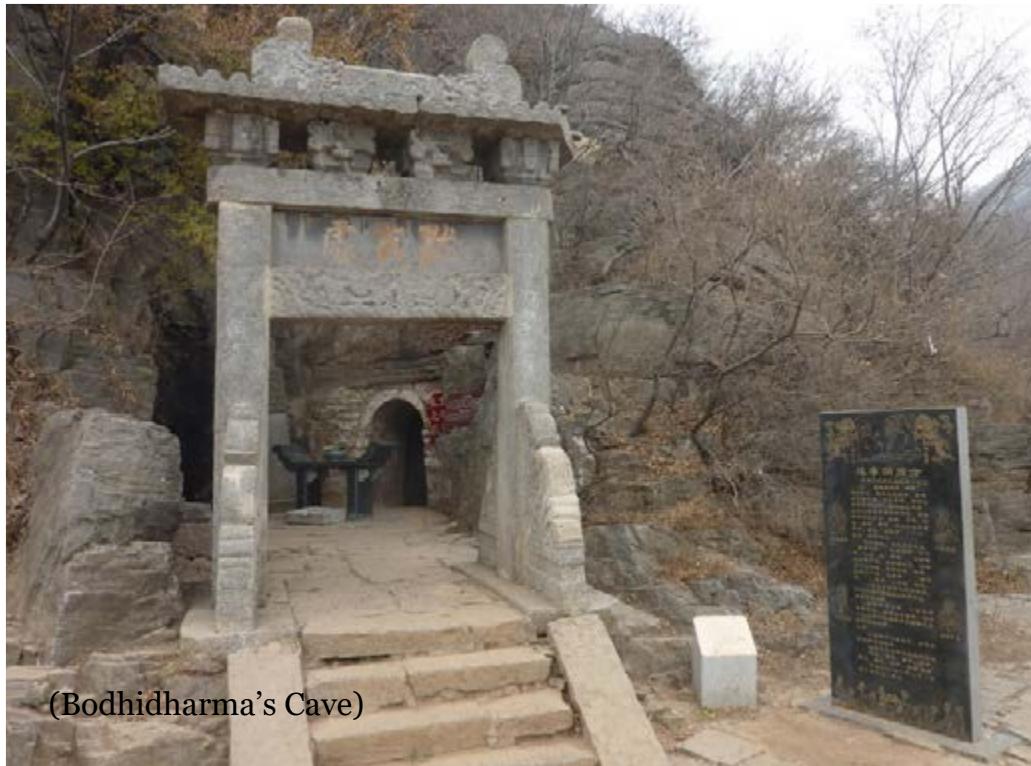

I loved this unexpected twist to the Shaolin Temple's Feng Shui. It really goes to show that nothing is absolutely good or bad. It all depends on the use of the land.

Bodhidharma's Cave

It was a tough one-hour hike to Bodhidharma's Cave, but I was eager to see the spot where Bodhidharma achieved enlightenment. While everyone maybe hoping to experience enlightenment for themselves, even if only for a short while, I only wanted to be a little wiser and richer, no more no less. As for enlightenment, not for me, I don't want to be a nun in this lifetime! Upon arriving, I respectfully offered my prayers in the Holy Cave.

Inside the cave, I took a moment to experience the energy. After all, this is the energy that brought enlightenment. Then I looked at the statue of Bodhidharma. This statue is located right on the meridian spot, which was constructed out of a clipper formation. The mountains around this cave form a large Pen Holder formation, which brings about wisdom. The formations around this cave are mentioned in the Jade Essence Classic, an important Feng Shui classic written about landform.

A Jade Screen formation in front of the cave gives rise to spiritual people, military officers and imperial officers. This formation explains how the Shaolin Temple has been able to host emperors and empresses of China and more recently, world leaders like the Russian President, Vladimir Putin.

There is also a Reward Star Mountain formation which creates enormous wealth, making the Shaolin Temple one of the richest temples in the world. The bigger macro landform surrounding the temple is called the Jade Screen Dragon structure. This is a structure that produces monks and ministers.

It was an incredibly wonderful experience, exploring the Shaolin Temple. I hope to make my way back here again sometime in the future.

FINDING THE 十神 TEN GODS (WEALTH ELEMENT)

There are altogether 10 types of Day Masters arising from the two different polarities (Yin and Yang) of the Five Elements. The Ten Gods are derived from the interaction of the Five Elements with the Day Master. Each of these Five Elements can support, destroy, control, or exhaust one another.

In this issue's Bazi 101, we want to explore the Wealth element. The Wealth element is derived from the element that the Day Master controls in the controlling cycle of the Five Elements. For example, the Water Day Master controls the Fire element. Hence, Fire represents wealth to Water Day Master people. The Wealth element is further divided into Yin and Yang polarity, resulting in Direct Wealth and Indirect Wealth. Direct Wealth has the same polarity as the Day Master. Indirect Wealth is of the opposite polarity to the Day Master. Table 1 shows the Day Masters' Wealth elements.

Table 1: The Wealth Element of the 10 Day Masters.

日主 Day Master	十神 (財星) Ten God for Wealth Element
	正財 Direct Wealth	偏財 Indirect Wealth
甲 Jia Yang Wood	己 Ji Yin Earth	戊 Wu Yang Earth
乙 Yi Yin Wood	戊 Wu Yang Earth	己 Ji Yin Earth

FACE READING

TOP 5 SIGNS OF LOSS OF WEALTH ON YOUR FACE

In the study of Face Reading, the face can tell a lot about a person. Besides telling us about the character of a person, the face can also be used to forecast a person's destiny. The nose is an important feature in a person's face. A well-formed straight nose adds elegance to a face.

The nose represents wealth. To know a person's capacity to earn and accumulate wealth, we study the nose. A straight nose bridge indicates that a person earns his or her income through legal means whereas a person with curved or crooked nose is likely to take under-table money.

In this issue's Face Reading, we look into the Top 5 signs (some temporary, some permanent) that indicate that a person is likely to lose money.

1. Itchiness

The nose may sometimes feel itchy because of oiliness, a dusty environment or for no reason at all. Usually this feeling of itchiness on the nose indicates the likelihood of losing some money. It is usually a minor loss - money frittered away on unnecessary things to fulfill your short term desires.

2. Dry flaking skin or blackheads

If a person does not usually have skin problems, but suddenly finds small patches of dry flaking skin or blackheads on the nose, it is an indication that the person will need to foot out expenses. It will be a problem of their own doing, such as overdue installment payments which result in interest penalties.

3. Pimple

A pimple on the nose is another sign of losing money. When a pimple appears, it usually indicates that some form of minor accident will occur, which require you to compensate others. Pimples are also a sign of overspending and overindulgence. Money is spent on luxury items with the swipe of the credit card when you can't afford it in the first place.

4. Exposed nostrils

Exposed nostrils on a person's face indicates that a person is not careful with money. They do not have the discipline to save. These people are gullible when it comes money. They are the easy prey of schemers, sweet-talking salesmen and cunning friends.

5. Nasal hair

Exposed nasal hair at the tip of the nostrils is another sign of losing money. Usually laziness and lack of discipline is the cause of constant money worries and financial problem. Grooming is all about keeping good habits. Trimming the little strand of hair requires only a little discipline and time. This action also reflects your mindset about money and how you manage it.

LAW OF ATTRACTION

十幹 TEN STEMS

In this issue we will discuss the Realm of the Ten Stems in more detail. There are altogether Ten Stems in the theory of Qi Men Dun Jia (QMDJ).

The Ten Stems in QMDJ study is very different from what it represents in Bazi study, although they are represented by the same Chinese character. In QMDJ, the Ten Stems represent the relationship between the reality of a person's circumstances and the end results of what the person seeks using Fa Qi Men, and how this affects their satisfaction with the results.

Reality is actually a perception. Hence, it differs from one person to another. For example, John and Patricia may wish for more money. Both of them get an extra $1,000. Patricia is very happy with the extra $1,000 but John who is earning $50,000 a month does not feel the same happiness as Patricia. For him, the extra $1,000 doesn't make much of difference.

The conscious mind is represented by the Top Stem, and the subconscious mind is represented by the Bottom Stem of the QMDJ chart. Top Stem shows the result while the Bottom Stem shows how you feel about the outcome. Thus, a happy and beautiful reality as well as a final outcome that matches a person's perception usually is shown with a positive Stem on both the Top and Bottom Stems whereas dissatisfaction arises from a negative Stem. When there is one negative and one positive Stem, the person may not feel fully satisfied with the outcome. Refer to Table 1 to find out which are the positive and negative Stems.

Table 1: 十幹特徵 Positive and Negative Stems

幹 Stems	特徵 Attributes
甲 Jia Yang Wood	Positive
乙 Yi Yin Wood	Positive
丙 Bing Yang Fire	Positive
丁 Ding Yin Fire	Positive
戊 Wu Yang Earth	Positive
己 Ji Yin Earth	Negative
庚 Geng Yang Metal	Negative
辛 Xin Yin Metal	Negative
壬 Ren Yang Water	Negative
癸 Gui Yin Water	Negative

In QMDJ, a negative Stem doesn't mean that you do not get the thing you wished for when practicing Fa Qi Men, but rather, whether you are satisfied or happy with what you get. Therefore, when practicing the Law of Attraction with Fa Qi Men, look for an outcome on a positive stem, which will result in satisfactory results where you will be more than happy.

Question

Ann

I am reading through the 2016 Fire Monkey articles and need some clarification:-

1. Boosting immunity against Annual Affliction

It says to activate Duke Virtue (DV) on a good date - Bing Day in another sector if we are not confident of locating S1. So can we then activate (move furniture, play music, open window in East sector where star 9 resides on Feb 24 Bing Day for example..... but not to drill , knock and ground break.

Just Ask

Yes, the activities you mentioned above are considered activation.

2. Positive Bank Balances

It says ensure SE3 is spacious & uncluttered and activate Duke Reward (DK) on a good date using Snake day which has DK stars in other positive sectors. In the 24 mountain chart it shows that E1 has Duke Reward in 2016, so it is OK to activate E1 on a good day such as Success Day. Is my understanding right?

Just Ask

Yes, you are right.

3. Clearing Obstruction

On the 24 mountain chart it shows that E2 has the Dragon Virtue star. However in the paragraph under clearing obstruction, it says 'activate E3 to help clear blockages and enhance wealth luck..... so is it E2 or E3 that has to be activated

Just Ask

Yes, either E2 or E3 will do. Or you can consider activating the whole East sector which includes E1, E2 and E3. Qi has no actual boundaries.

4. The Sun Star

If W2 in a house is where the bathroom and toilet is situated and gets used daily will it also activate the Sun star in a beneficial way or to try to avoid using this toilet in this sector but shower is OK?

Just Ask

Bathroom and toilet will suppress the positive Sun star effect. You can still continue using the bathroom and toilet but the effects of the benefit of the Sun star is less. It is best to use other positive sectors in such a case.

5. It says Grand Duke is in SW3 in 2016 and Annual Sha is in SW1.

For a SW1 facing house in period 8 does a water feature in the garden need to be relocated to SW2 instead or dismantled.

Just Ask

It is best to dismantle the water feature or at least empty the water in the water feature for 2016.

Question

Amy Wong

How can i improve my wealth & should I change jobs in the year 2016?

Date of Birth: 30 August 1971

Time of Birth: 02:50

Gender: Female

Just Ask

There is no dumb money luck for you in 2016. If you want improvement in your income, you need to put in effort.

Advice: Look for long term investments in property and shares. Make sure you study the company or stock thoroughly before making your investment decision. Do not speculate in the stock market.

Question

Angie

I have a question about my 2016 fuyin cry event. I heard from another bazichic graduate that I will experience a loss in my family members. The only family I've had since I was 8, been my mom. I'm very worried that she will die. She's all I have in US. Can you give me much more details of my 2016 fuyin cry event? Like.. Is my mom going to die? Or grandma? Should I buy lottery tickets? I heard you are most likely to win the lottery while going through a fuyin.

Date of Birth: 30 August 1971

Time of Birth: 02:50

Gender: Female

Just Ask

Fu Yin is not necessarily negative. Yes, you can try your best to maximize your wealth but buying a lottery ticket is not the way. In your case, it is most likely that you will experience extra workload and have less time to be with your family, that is your mother. More travel is likely too in 2016. So do not be too worried about crying events. Such events can simply mean that you will be watching too many sad Korean dramas.

Question

Veronica Zanetti

Should I look for a new job?

Date of Birth: 29 January 1973

Time of Birth: 11:20

Gender: Female

Just Ask

Yes, if you have the right job offer you can consider moving into a new job or a new company.

Advice: Besides thinking of moving into a new job, this year is also the best time to learn something new. Learn some extra knowledge that can bring your career to another level.
