The Qi of 2019 will not suddenly disappear as we step into the New Year on the 4th of February 2020. Neither will the Qi of 2020 appear as the clock strikes midnight on 4th of February 2020.

The Qi in the cosmos flows in two rhythms - diffused Qi and coagulated Qi. Diffused Qi is active but gentle and cannot be detected directly. It exists everywhere. Coagulated Qi is manifested as various things that can be seen or that have certain shapes. In Chinese Metaphysics study, coagulated Qi represents people and landforms. Diffused Qi, on the other hand, is the Qi that is unseen. It is the Qi that changes constantly. When Feng Shui practitioners talk about the change of Qi every year, they are talking about diffused Qi. This is the Qi that will affect our fortunes every year. When the annual diffused Qi interacts with the coagulated Qi, this relationship tells us how people or individuals will fare for the year.

The movement of Qi can be generalized into four aspects: ascending, descending, exiting and entering. Ascending movement refers to the movement from below; descending movement refers to a movement from above; exiting movement is a movement from the interior, and entering movement is movement from the exterior.

Qi entering from the exterior means that the Qi will make its presence felt slowly. The Ascending Qi is the Qi that is acquiring momentum to rise and grow stronger. The Descending Qi is the Qi that has peaked and is starting to lose momentum. The Qi that exits from the interior is dead Qi that no longer has the ability to influence anything.

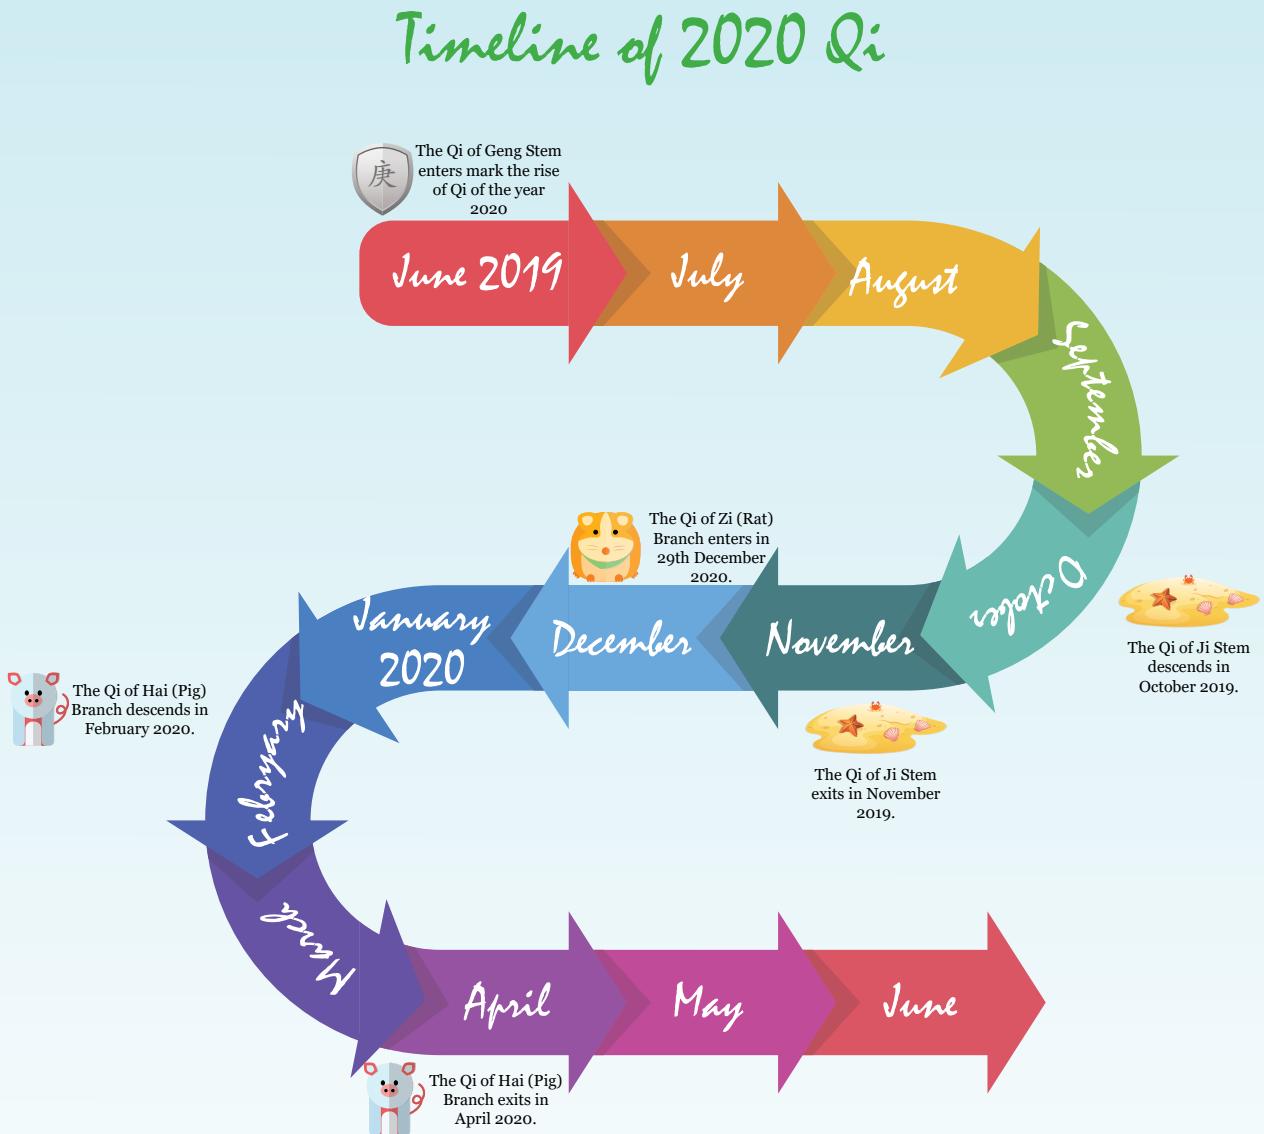

A Year Pillar consists of the Heavenly Stem and Earthly Branch. The Geng Zi (Metal Rat) represents the Year Pillar for 2020. This Pillar represents the Qi of the year and will give us an idea on when the Qi of the year 2020 will start making its presence felt. The Geng Stem enters and makes its presence felt way before 2020. In July 2019, the Geng Wu (Metal Horse) arrives, marking the arrival of the Qi of 2020 which is Geng Metal in nature. If we are to pinpoint the exact start of this Qi, we can scan through the calendar and discover that the Geng Zi Pillar falls on 2nd July 2019. A lot of events taking place from June 2019 onwards will have a greater impact in 2020. The Metal element is usually related to financial and economic matters. Government policies and measures implemented at this point are in preparation for the year 2020.

The full impact of the Metal Qi of Geng Zi will only arrive in December, the month of the Rat. The Qi of 2020 will fully make its presence felt on 29th December 2019.

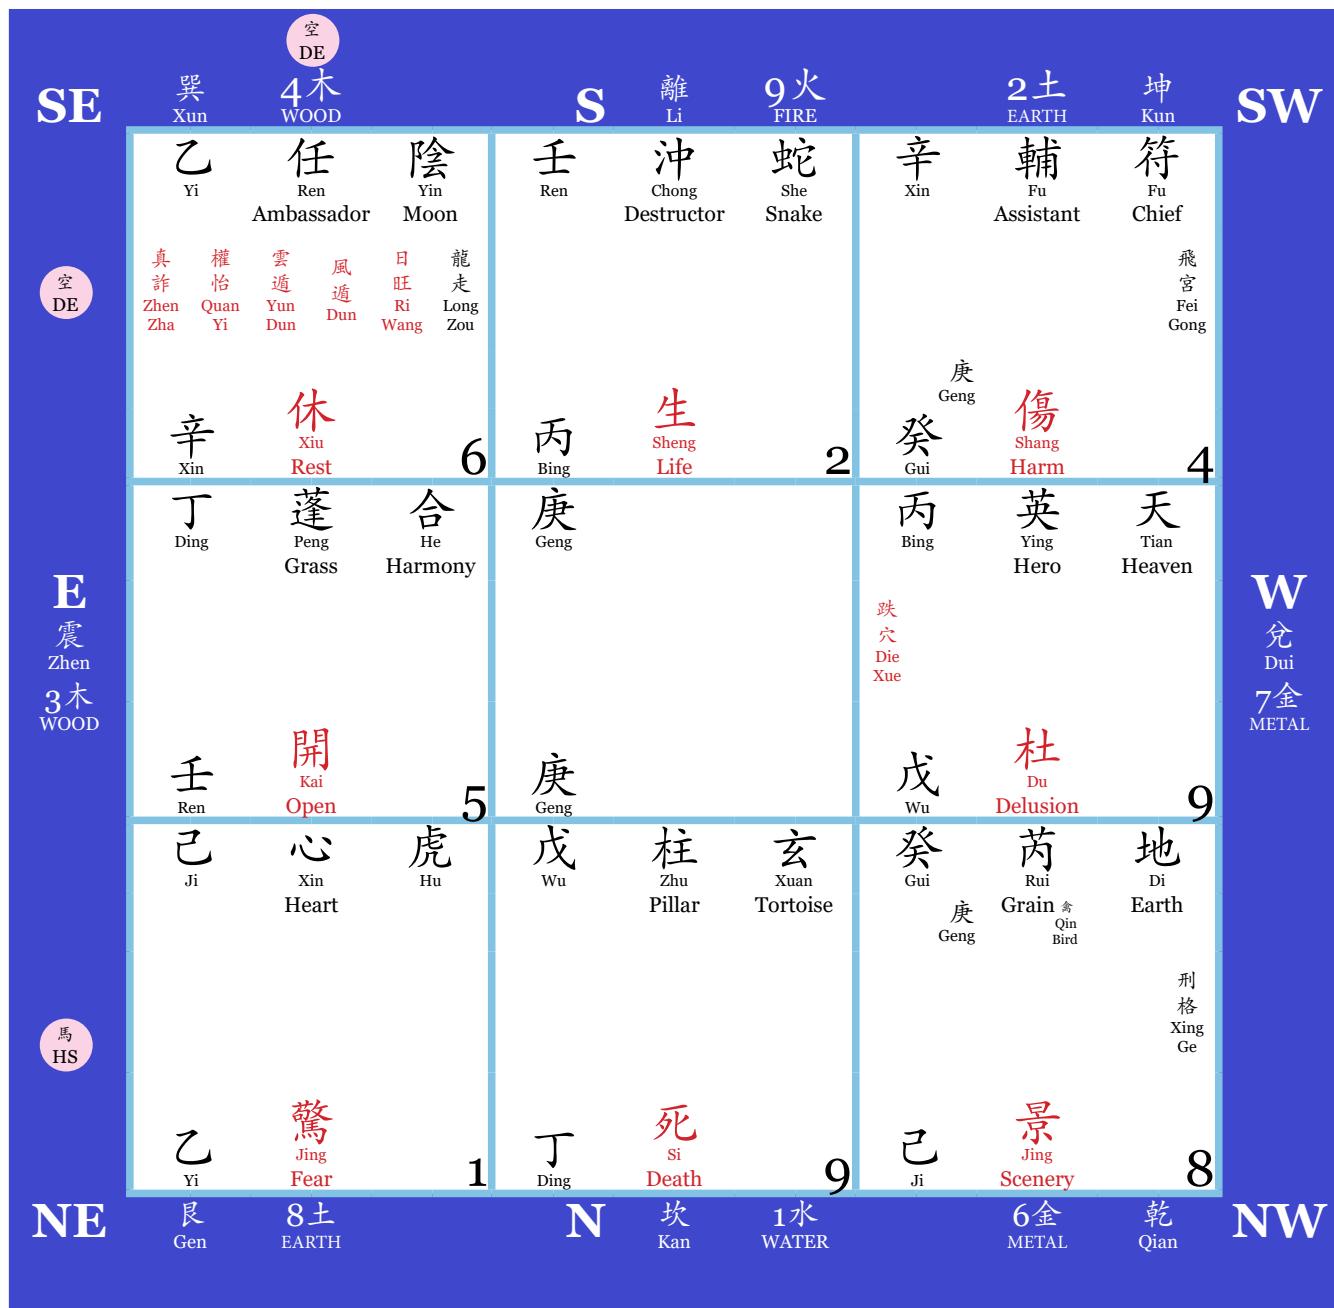

So, whether the year 2020 is favourable or unfavourable to you, you will already feel its effects as early as 2nd July 2019.

Meanwhile, the Qi of 2019 represented by Ji Hai (Earth Pig) will fully exit on 26th April 2020. The Ji Stem will descend in October 2019 and exit in November 2019. The Hai (Pig) Branch will descend in February 2020 and exit in April 2020. If the Pig year is favourable to you, you can continue to enjoy this good fortune until April 2020.

Before we start our usual full-fledged write-up for the year 2020 in our December 2019 issue, do check-out the next article on Qi Men analysis on the 2020 outlook (refer to page 7).

QI MEN ANALYSIS: THE OUTLOOK FOR THE YEAR 2020

To do a broad reading of world events or a yearly outlook, one can use the Qi Men Hour Chart or the Qi Men Year Chart. The selection of the Qi Men Hour Chart for this type of reading makes use of the Universe's affinity with the practitioner who is doing the reading. Often this will give an outlook or view of events that will be more personal to the practitioner. On the other hand, using the Qi Men Year Chart will give a broader view. There is no right or wrong, just a practitioner's preference.

In this write-up, the Qi Men Year Chart is used.

Power and Authority – The Big Brother (太歲 Grand Duke)

In 2020, the Metal Rat year, the Grand Duke which is represented by the Geng Stem will be located in the Northwest. This is a very important point to take note of for the year. In general, countries located in the Northwest direction, such as the UK and the EU countries, are likely to have power and authority over others. This is clearly seen in the ongoing US-China trade war, as European support will give China or the US the upper hand in the trade war. The US and Europe have been critical strategic allies all along. The US is also an important trade and investment partner for Europe. However, the negative Stems in the Northwest position show a precarious position. The EU countries are being plagued by Brexit issues.

China considers itself the Middle Kingdom. The Grand Duke in the Northwest represents China as well. This indicates that China is the “Big Brother” in 2020. However, China will meet with resistance and challenges in this position. With the EU countries in the same Palace, we can safely say that China may gain many frenemies within the EU countries, with insincere support.

The US will fare better in the closed-door policy toward China with regard to the trade war.

Global Economy (乾 Qian Trigram)

In general, the Qian Trigram represents the global economy. The negative formation in the Northwest Palace indicates a recession and a slump.

China’s economy grows weaker, partly as a result of the trade war with the US. This is a sign of global recession. The economies of its Asian neighbours will not be greatly affected by the global slump. It will only be an issue for Asian countries in April and May 2020. Most Asian countries will be facing internal financial problems due to corruption and money laundering, which will weaken these countries’ financial strength.

Meanwhile, the European economy, already experiencing slow growth, may be tumbling into a recession. The EU countries could face further challenges with a British crash-out of the EU. The US will fare better in the first half of 2020, but it will not escape unscathed as the recession reverberates worldwide.

Global Stock Market (景門 Scenery Door)

The formation at the Scenery Door Palace indicates that a long bearish market is coming. There will not be major ups and downs in the stock market. Most indices or share prices will decrease slowly or stay the same. The year 2020 will see some major stocks being suspended due to the Securities and Exchange Commission’s (SEC) intervention on concerns over companies’ assets, operations and financial information.

Industry

Despite the slump, some industries are still doing well. Let's see how some prominent industries will fare in 2020:

Education (East Palace) – Universities offering research into marine life, technology, twinning programs and double degree programs will still do well.

Water (North Palace) – This usually refers to government monopolies that provide drinking water and wastewater services (including sewage treatment) to residential, commercial and industrial sectors. Water filter companies and columbarium businesses will experience stability too.

High-end products (West Palace)

High-end or limited goods and services for niche markets or the wealthy will do well. Entertainers, MCs and or public speakers in niche markets will enjoy stability in their businesses.

New Property (Southeast Palace)

Residential and commercial property will continue to do badly. In 2020, more new projects will be abandoned by bankrupt or runaway developers.

2nd Hand Property Market (Southwest Palace)

The 2nd hand property market continues to experience a glut. Sellers are unwilling to reduce prices while buyers opt for a wait-and-see approach. Expect the price of properties to drop by 20% to 25%.

Infrastructure Construction (Northeast Palace)

Overall, the infrastructure and construction industry will slow down. These industries will still be sustainable in countries that entered a joint-venture with China on its ambitious “One Belt One Road Initiative”. Recently renamed the Belt and Road Initiative, the project addresses infrastructure gaps between countries. This project has the potential to accelerate economic growth across the Asia Pacific, Africa, and Central and Eastern Europe.

Safety Equipment (South Palace)

Companies that provide safety equipment and services that prevent or protect people from fire hazards will be doing well. New regulations may require companies, businesses or buildings to replace their outdated safety equipment.

Metaphysics (South Palace)

The metaphysics business will encounter a loss of wealth due to complaints and lawsuits.

Banking and Finance (Northwest)

The financial industry including banks, insurance firms and stockbroking firms will be affected by the global economy. They will experience a slowdown in business.

Entertainment (Northwest)

The entertainment business such as the karaoke business, the film industry and cinemas will be badly hit by the economic slowdown.

How does the Qi Men review vary from the Bazi and Five Element analysis method for the year 2020? Keep this question in mind when you read the December 2019 issue of Bazichic Magazine.

Universal Qi generated by the Mid-Autumn Festival

Another year, another Mid-Autumn Festival! This year, the Mid-Autumn Festival falls on 13th September 2019 (15th day of the 8th month of the Chinese lunar calendar).

Let the happy and positive energy flow! The positive Qi generated simultaneously by the many people around the world celebrating the Mid-Autumn Festival will reverberate into the Universe and generate a corresponding vibration in Universal Qi. This flow of energies can help you fulfil your wishes, especially in matters of love, good affinity and harmonious relationships. Below is a list of auspicious dates, times and directions to ask Chang'e, the Moon Deity or Yuet Lao, the God of Love for beauty, love, affinity and romance.

Table: Auspicious Time to Fulfil your Wishes for Romance, Love & Good Affinity

Date	Time	Direction	Deity
1 Sept	09:30	Northwest	Moon
2 Sept	05:30	Northwest	Moon
3 Sept	09:30	Southeast	Harmony
4 Sept	05:30	Southwest	Moon
5 Sept	09:30	North	Harmony
6 Sept	13:30	West	Harmony
7 Sept	13:30	West	Moon
9 Sept	07:30	East	Moon
10 Sept	13:30	Southwest	Harmony
12 Sept	00:00	South	Moon
13 Sept	07:30	East	Harmony

For any metaphysics analysis to be accurate, the ‘Asker’ must have an affinity with the situation, event or the people involved. This is because cosmos energy works in ‘connective reflection’. Simply put, when a person vibrates at a certain level of energy, the Universe will send a similar and connective vibration back to the person.

I picked this topic as I thought it would be an interesting situation to analyse. I do own a Huawei Pro 30, and thus was affected by this event in a small way. So, I will give this analysis an accuracy rate of about 30% to 40%. Since this is a dynamic event, actions taken by any countries involved will change the outcome. The life span of the outcome of this analysis is short.

Focus points for this analysis are the Chief (符) Deity, the Geng (庚) Stem, the Month Stem (Ren (壬) Stem) and the Hour Door (Fear (驚) Door).

The Qi Men Chart on page 14 is selected at the current hour of the analysis (21 August 2019 08:54)

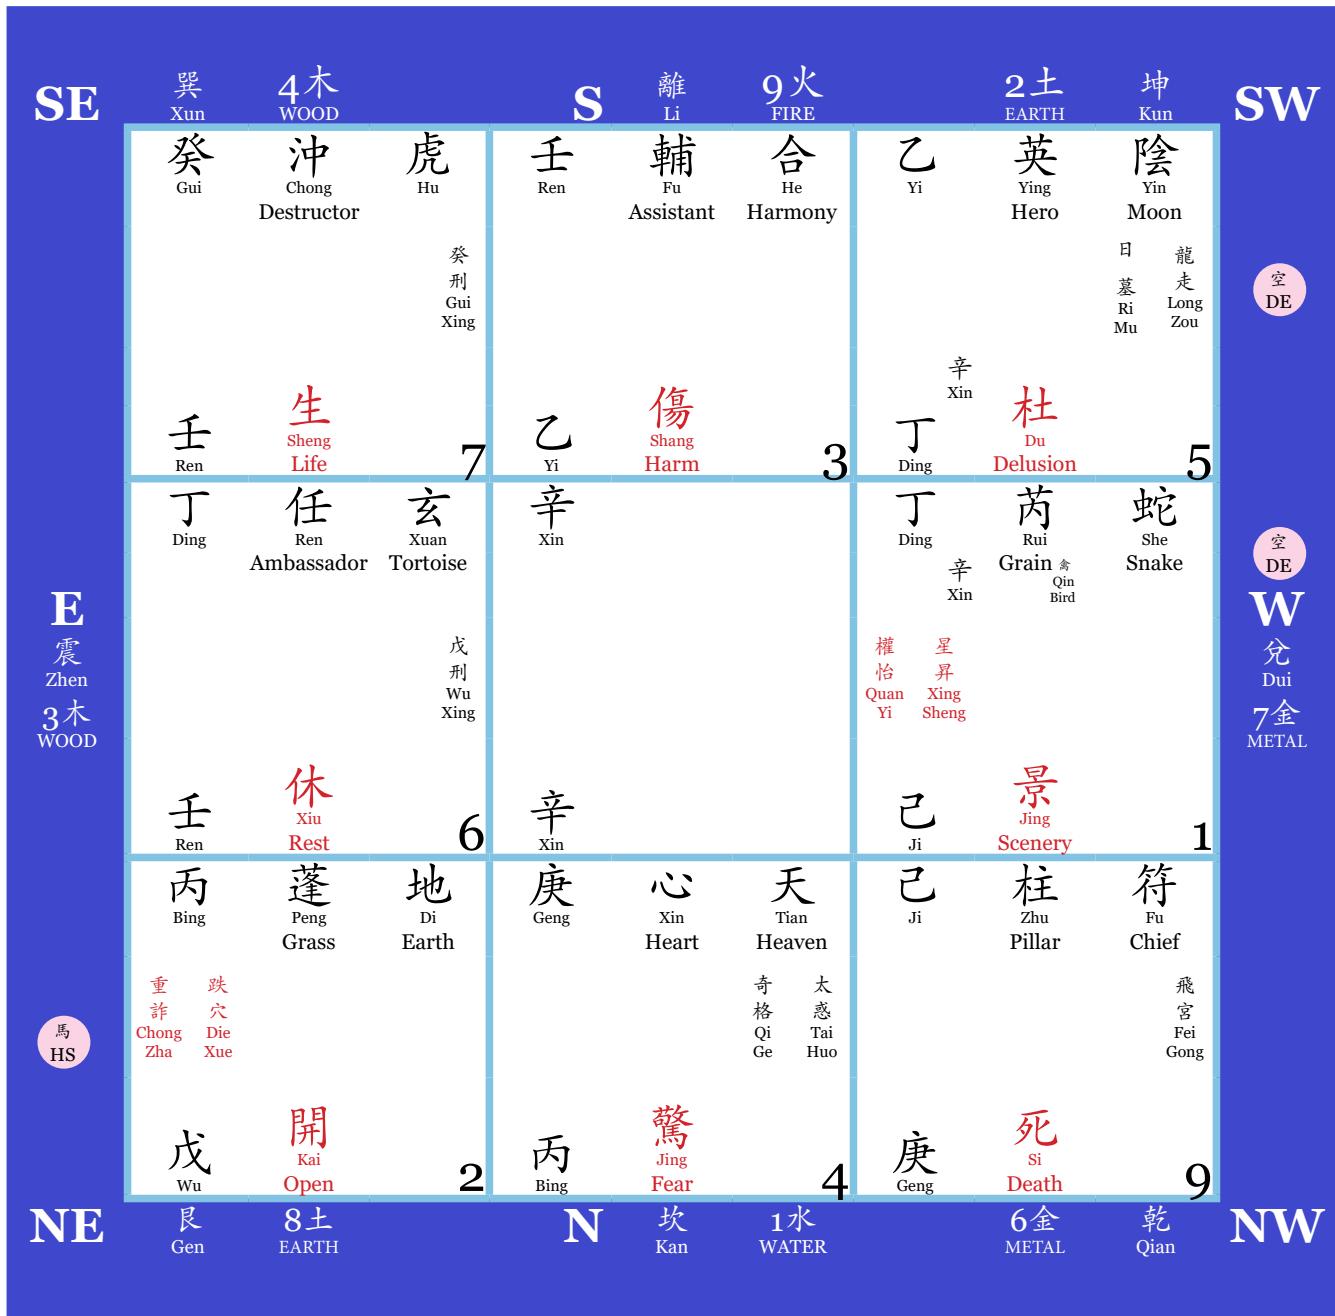

China's Position

The Chief (符) Deity represents the passive party. Similar to the important position of the King in chess, the Chief (符) Deity will not make the first move. In this trade war, China is the party being attacked. At first, China has remained somewhat passive when countering the US's aggressive attack before retaliating. China is also taking the lead in the world economy. Hence, the Chief (符) Deity represents China in this analysis.

The Chief (符) Deity resides in the Northwest in the Qi Men Chart. The Ji (己) Stem and Geng (庚) Stem indicate a very difficult position. The stem combination indicates the need to relinquish power shortly after taking power. This indicates that China has few means to overcome this US attack.

The Death (死) Door indicates being locked in or in a dead-end. This can mean that China is being backed into a corner without a good strategy to counter the attack from the US. However, the Death Door at Northwest, although immovable, is weak, while the strength of the Heavenly Pillar star, also in the Northwest position, is prosperous. The star is a warrior star with skills of destruction and damage. It is fearless. This means that the measures taken by the US in the trade war may not be effective in forcing China into agreeing to the US's terms. China will not bow to bullying.

Qi Men Chart: 21st August 2019 08:54

In this position, the party involved should not be the person who takes the first action. China did not start the trade war and so far, has not counter-attacked. The Death Door shows that China is opting for a “guerrilla strategy” to counter the US at this point.

The US's Position

The Geng (庚) Stem represents the active party and the enemy. The Geng (庚) Stem represents the US. The US represents the enemy in this trade, as the US launched the first salvo in this trade war.

The Geng (庚) Stem resides in North in the Qi Men Chart. The Door resides at the North Palace is called Fear (驚) Door. As its name implies, the Fear (驚) Door indicates actions taken to frighten and intimidate, such as those taken by the US to try to force China to conform to the US's trade terms. However, this Fear (驚) Door is weak, hence it is not very effective.

The Geng (庚) Stem and Bing (丙) Stem also indicate a very difficult position. These two stems form a very inauspicious structure known as “Great White Enters Darkness (太白入熒).” This structure indicates that the US has placed itself in an unresolvable position. There is no light at the other end of the tunnel. In the attack, the US accused China of using Huawei’s 5G technology to steal important information from other countries. The negative structure indicates a person guilty of the very thing of which they accuse another. So, the pot is calling the kettle black.

The star, Heavenly Heart (心), in the North is weakening. The star represents management. In this case, the US will find it hard to manage and to coordinate with its allies on such a scale of attack against a powerful China.

The Nine Heaven (天) Deity in the North Palace indicates that the US’s weaknesses, motives and tactics are exposed and known to everyone.

In this trade war, the US and China are evenly matched. The support of the US’s allies will tip the balance in favour of the US

The US’s Allies

Are the US’s allies’ friends or foes? The Stem on the month represents both a competitor and an ally. The Ren (壬) Stem appears in August. It resides in the South Palace in the Qi Men Chart. The US’s allies consist of Canada, Australia, Japan and the countries of the EU. In the Qi Men Chart, the US’s position in the North clashes with its ally position. This means that the US does not see her allies as friends but more as foes. This is why the US’s allies aren’t rushing to back Trump’s China trade war.

The US’s allies are not favouring China either. The South Palace is clashing with the Northwest Palace.

The Six Harmony (合) Deity with the Heavenly Assistant (輔) appears in this Palace. This deity and star are passive and peaceful in nature. Thus, the Harm (傷) Door which has an aggressive and fighting nature is weakened in the South Palace. This indicates that the allies prefer a harmonious relationship even though they want to stop China from growing into a world superpower. Most of the allies will try to avoid picking sides in the trade war. They will vouch for a compromise from both parties.

The Outcome of this Trade War

The Hour Stem represents the outcome of the Trade War. The Geng (庚) Stem is the Hour Stem. The outcome shares the same Palace as the US’s position. As we can see, similar to the US’s position, there will be no end to this trade war with neither party gaining an upper hand. Both will lose the battle.

What is the US’s and China’s next move?

At this point, China is better-off staying passive and doing nothing. If China takes action to retaliate, they will likely end up on a similar path as the US. The use of ineffective bullying and fear tactics will only inflict harm on themselves. It is better to wait for the US to make the next move.

The US's next move falls into the Northeast Palace. The Northeast Palace clashes with the original US position at the North Palace but produces to the Northwest Palace, which is China's position. This indicates that the US is not willing to take this step but the path is initiated by the US's allies. The Northeast Palace consists of auspicious structures, "Double Deception (重詐)" and "Birds Falling into Cave (飛鳥跌穴)" with Open (開) Door. The Open (開) Door indicates that the US will be open to negotiations. These negotiations will favour China in terms of wealth. So, who is the one who will fall into the trap of "Double Deception (重詐)"? "Double Deception (重詐)" means an enemy falling victim to their own trickery. This structure often means success in turning a negative event into a favourable outcome.

How will I fare in this Trade War?

You can select a new chart to do this analysis or just use the chart in this article. To check how you will fare in this trade war:

1. For an individual – use your year of Birth Stem
2. For a company – use the Stem of the year the company is registered
3. For a country – use the Stem of the year the country achieved independence

Me

A quick analysis shows that the trade war has nothing to do with me. My year of Birth Stem is the Yi (乙) Stem. This Stem resides in the Southwest Palace. The Palace is in the Death and Emptiness (空亡) position. What I should do is analyze the Huawei's fate in this US-China trade war. Huawei's fate will have a bigger effect on Huawei's mobile phone users compared to the trade war. Stay tuned for this analysis in our March 2020 issue.

TRADE WAR - What is it?

Attempts by countries to damage each other's trade, typically by the imposition of tariffs or quota restrictions.

NUMBER OF PRODUCTS AFFECTED

1,300 Chinese goods targeted by the Trump Administration.

106 US products targeted by the Chinese Government in retaliation.

TRADE AMOUNT

China exports to the US amount to US$521.0 billion.

US exports to China amount to US$132.9 billion.

Asking for protection during Halloween

Since we updated a Hungry Ghost Festival-themed issue for the June 2019 issue, we thought that we should also touch on Halloween.

Similar to the Hungry Ghost Festival in Asia, Halloween is the time of the year dedicated to remembering the dead, including saints, martyrs and all the faithful departed in Western culture. Unlike the Hungry Ghost Festival, which lasts for about 2 weeks, Halloween is observed only for 3 days beginning on the night of 31 October.

The table below gives you the directions to ask for safety and protection from wandering spirits and ghosts as well as unscrupulous people. During this period, you can ask the Chief Deity for protection for children who are out trick-or-treating and adults who are attending Halloween costume parties or going out at night.

Ask for the protection with your back to the direction as listed in the Table: Asking for protection from the Chief Deity during Halloween.

Making the best out of the last quarter of 2019

The year of the Pig is being described as “a wild boar on the loose.” 2019 has been a rough year for many. Businessmen feel that they are going through a tough ride. More workers were retrenched in the first quarter of this year. The fear of further layoffs hangs over employees. Every country seems to have its problems i.e. China’s trade war with the US, Hong Kong’s messy protest, the Brexit issue in the EU and the spreading of African swine fever (known as the ‘Pig Ebola’). Only a handful feel that they are doing okay for the year.

In this challenging time, Feng Shui activation plays an important role. Activation brings a Nobleman’s help.

The Sectors with Auspicious Qi

Qi is like Wi-Fi! Some areas of your home or office will have better reception and more positive connectivity than other areas. Feng Shui activation is a way to ensure that Qi flows continuously and actively. Activation on auspicious dates enhances the positivity of the Qi. We do not like it when Qi becomes stagnant.

Below is a recap of the auspicious sectors in 2019.

Centre

The No. 8 White Star brings wealth. It is known to bring cash flow to occupants. The star has a slow effect. It is suitable for people who earn a monthly salary.

Northwest

The No. 9 Purple Star brings investment gain. The star, a secondary wealth star is also known as the 'happiness star'. If you want to ensure stability in future income or a promotion, then activate the Northwest sector.

West

The No. 1 Nobleman Star represents noble people, wisdom, knowledge and connection. Wealth comes from connecting with the right people. If your achievements greatly depend on people, this sector is for you.

North

The No. 4 Green Star bodes well for people who want to acquire knowledge, skills and talents. This star also promotes romance and good affinity with people. This star can bring wealth to people such as authors, researchers, writers, journalists, actors and actresses.

East

The No. 6 White Star represents authority, power, influence and the ability to execute a plan. For employees who fear being laid off, activation of this sector will make you indispensable.

How do you activate Feng Shui in the auspicious sectors?

1. The best way is to use the auspicious space as often as possible, such as using the sector as a working area, bedroom or main door.
2. Another common Feng Shui activation method is the placement of a large pail of water with an air pump in the auspicious sector.
3. A fan can also be utilised to activate Feng Shui in the auspicious sectors.

Auspicious Dates and Times for Feng Shui Activation

If you are experiencing a tough time, below are some auspicious dates to help you ride through this challenging period. If you are doing well, you can use this activation to enhance your opportunities further. These special auspicious dates are selected based on the Great Sun Formula.

Auspicious Dates from the Great Sun Formula

Date	Time	Location
31 December 2019	07:30	West 2
26 September 2019	00:00	North 2
2 October 2019	07:30	Northwest 1
14 November 2019	05:30	East 1

The Ming Emperor's Mausoleum

Visiting the home of the dead is not my cup of tea. But a visit to Xiaoling Mausoleum is a must! After all, the emperor buried there was the founding father of the Ming Dynasty, which ruled China from 1368 to 1644 A.D. During this period, China's population doubled. The Ming Dynasty is known for its trade expansion outside of China. It established cultural ties with the West. The Ming Dynasty is also well-known for its drama, literature and porcelain. The Ming dynasty was the last imperial dynasty ruled by ethnic Han Chinese in China. So the Xiaoling Mausoleum, which helped the Ming dynasty flourish for close to 300 years, is a Feng Shui showcase worth seeing.

In the past, the emperors' mausoleums were forbidden places. The mausoleums and their surrounding areas were heavily guarded. Not even cattle and sheep were allowed to wander near the mausoleums. Thus, China's imperial tombs were shrouded in secrets and mystery. However, in modern times, they have become tourist attractions.

In actual fact, the Feng Shui characteristics of imperial mausoleums are not mysterious at all. The standard application of Feng Shui applies. The mausoleums were positioned to receive Qi from the beautiful landforms surrounding them. However, to build an emperor's mausoleum so that it fully taps into the Feng Shui of the macro landform can be a tedious and complicated process. It is not for the faint-hearted, nor those with shallow pockets. You will need the resources and wealth of an empire.

The quality of the site of the emperors' tombs directly affects the rise and fall of the dynasty. Thus, the selection of the location of an emperor's tomb was always done with great care. It also carried great risk for the Feng Shui masters, as they faced execution should the emperor be dissatisfied with the location selected.

The Ming Xiaoling Mausoleum in Nanjing is the burial tomb of the Emperor Zhu Yuanzhang and Empress Ma Xiuying of the Ming Dynasty. The mausoleum is located at the peak of Zhongshan. The tomb itself is located on the meridian spot or dragon vein.

The Zhongshan Scenic Area is the entire scope of the Ming Xiaoling Mausoleum. The area covers more than 30 square kilometres. Zhongshan was regarded as the land of "Dragons." The tomb in Zhongshan sits on the north-south axis, which is regarded as the axis for the emperor in Feng Shui studies.

In front and towards the right of the Ming Xiaoling Mausoleum lies the lake, Qianhu. The Purple Mountain or Zijin Shan located behind the mausoleum acts as the supporting mountain. Zhongshan is formed by three peaks at the East, Middle and West. The three peaks are called the "Huagai Three Peaks" (華蓋三峰). The three peaks formation brings knowledge, literacy and wisdom. The tomb, Xiaoling, is located in the middle peak protected by the East and West peaks. The West peak is known as Xiaohu Mountain. In Feng Shui landform studies, the Xiaohu Mountain is termed as the "Tiger Sand (虎砂)" on the right of Xiaoling. On the left of Xiaoling, the "Dragon Sand (龍砂)" is formed by the East peak. In front of the mausoleum lies the Meihua Mountain (梅花山). This small hill forms the Table Mountain for the mausoleum, preventing Qi from dispersing away from the Zhongshan landform. The Meihua Mountain formation brought cultural development and advancement to the Ming Dynasty. The Qianhu at the Southwest of the mausoleum and Meihua Lake and Meihua Mountain at the South, form a special Phoenix Feng Shui landform.

The Ming Xiaoling Mausoleum conforms to the Feng Shui standard of Green Dragon on the left, White Tiger on the right, Black Tortoise at the back, and a river passing through before the Red Phoenix at the front. Also, the convergence of three rivers to run as one from the left to the right is known as the Imperial River (Yuhe 御河). In Feng Shui terms, this formation of rivers is also known as "the crown water" (Guan Dai Shui 冠帶水). This very rare formation is similar to the Intelligent Star (Wenchang 文昌). It brings intelligence, knowledge, creativity and innovation.

Should you pay a visit to the Ming Xiaoling Mausoleum? My answer is a definite yes! Especially if you are a Feng Shui enthusiast.

Fun Fact: As a defence against the northern invaders, Emperor Qin Shi Huang had all the walls joined up. Thus, the Great Wall came into being. Most of the Great Wall we see today was built in the Ming Dynasty (1368-1644) and is approximately 6000km long.

CORE CHARACTERISTICS

(戊 WU EARTH DAY MASTER)

There are altogether Ten Gods arising from the two different polarities (Yin and Yang) of the Five Elements' interaction with the Day Master. Each of these Five Elements supports, destroys, controls, or exhausts one another. In the previous issues, we have shown the characteristics of the Ten Gods. Moving forward, we will be exploring how we can derive the core character of a person, or structure of the Bazi Chart, based on the interaction of the Earthly Branch Element of the Month Pillar with each Day Master.

In this issue's Bazi 101, we want to explore the core character of the Yang Earth (戊 Wu) Day Master born in different months. The core character of these Yang Earth Day Masters is derived from the element in the Earthly Branch of the Month Pillar (refer to Table 1 below). There are altogether twelve Earthly Branches representing twelve months. Each Earthly Branch usually contains one to three Elements known as the Hidden Stems. The Hidden Stem represents the main Qi and sub-Qi of each Earthly Branch (refer to Table: The Seasons and the Earthly Branches on page 67 to find out more about the Elements inside each of the Earthly Branches).

When the sub-Qi of the Month Branch appears on the Heavenly Stem, then the structure of the Bazi Chart is formed by this sub-Qi. The person's core character is represented by the Ten Gods of this sub-Qi.

Face Reading: What does it look like to marry well?

Marrying well doesn't necessarily mean marrying someone rich. A rich husband is only a small part of marrying well. All it means is that you will be taken care of financially. Marrying well means that you are happily married, being loved and taken care of both emotionally and financially. Your husband makes you a better person.

So, what does it look like to marry well? Here are 5 facial features in women that indicate a good marriage.

1. A Fleshy Spouse Palace

The Spouse Palace is located near the temple at the end of the eye. A fleshy and full temple indicates a good marriage.

Women with full, fleshy temples have gentle characters, take care of others' feelings, and are good at listening to other people's opinions. They make good wives and mothers. They take good care of their homes and families. They are loved by their husbands. Their married lives tend to be harmonious.

2. A High Nose

Women with higher noses are usually also high spirited, strong willed, persistent and very principled. They have high expectations of themselves and their other halves. They tend to pursue perfection. They continuously improve themselves in order to find good husbands. These strong characteristics will be balanced by a full fleshy temple.

3. A Fleshy Round Chin

A fleshy and round chin indicates a generous woman with a good temperament and the ability to save money. Such women are generally kind, moderate, sincere and broad-minded. They are serious, responsible and not calculative. They will take good care of the well-being of their families and the people around them. Because of this, they have a good affinity with people. They tend to do well in their careers or businesses. They also have the ability and knowledge to help and advise in their husbands' endeavours!

4. Fully Symmetrical Upper and Lower Lips

The lips represent a person's integrity, feelings and attitude towards money. A thin-lipped person has a sharp tongue, never admits defeat and never owns to a mistake. They can be merciless.

Women with fleshy symmetrical upper and lower lips are preferred. They are more caring and loving. They have calm temperaments and are honest and positive. Usually, women with this type of lips will marry caring husbands.

5. Upturned Mouth

When the two corners of the mouth turn slightly upward, forming a perpetual smile, this is known as an upturned mouth. An upturned mouth together with closed teeth (no gap between the teeth), indicates a loyal and credible wife. The mouth also represents a person's mentality and attitude towards life. An upturned mouth indicates a person who is optimistic and peace-loving. He or she treats people with kindness and sincerity. Because of this, he or she enjoys good relationships with people. A woman with an upturned mouth has good self-esteem and confidence in her marriage. She usually marries well.

The Activation and Cultivation of Deities

In all our articles about Fa Qi Men, we have mentioned that to get what you want, and your wishes fulfilled, one has to get into an “alpha state of mind”. We have also given tips and methods on how to get into this state.

So, what is an alpha state of mind?

Scientifically, it is explained as where the brain operates at partial conscious awareness and partial subconscious predominance at the same time, in cycles between 9Hz & 14Hz. From my experience and understanding, it simply means that one's mind is relaxed. It is a state where you are in a mild daydream or light relaxation.

Do you remember a time when you were very focused on something, or so engrossed in doing something that you lose track of time and the activities happening around you? This is an alpha state of mind. But you may find that when you deliberately try to get into this state of mind to make a wish, it is difficult to focus, and you are unsure about whether you are in the right state of mind.

Each person's Qi Men Destiny Chart has his or her own personal Destiny Palace marked by a direction based on his or her Day Master. That Palace contains your unique Destiny Deity or Guardian Angel. There are all together Ten Deities under the realm of Universe in Fa Qi Men studies. In this issue, we will show you how to activate and cultivate the Surging Snake Deity. This will be beneficial whether or not the Surging Snake is your Guardian Angel. When you are connected strongly and intuitively with your Guardian Angel, you do not have to go into the alpha state of mind to make wishes. This makes wish-making a lot easier.

Surging Snake Deity

Keyword: Sixth sense

The Surging Snake Deity's special abilities come from a strong sixth sense that has the power to influence its immediate environment. Those who have this Deity as their Guardian Angel have the potential to sense the presence of abundance and multiply the abundance found in nature. What they sense, they will get and multiply. On one extreme, the Snake

Deity's influence can result in the person getting involved in the manipulation of negative energies, ghosts and spirits. On the positive side, the Surging Snake represents spiritual wisdom. Individuals with the Surging Snake Deity as their Guardian Angel should sharpen their sixth sense; their voice of intuition. The key to achieving more of what you want lies in your ability to genuinely trust your inner voice.

Wishes will be more easily fulfilled, and you will get results faster when you ask your Destiny Deity for help. Here are some fun ways to activate and cultivate your Surging Snake Deity daily.

1. Make a wish in the direction of your Destiny Palace

Each person has a strong connection to the energy of the Universe in a certain direction based on Fa Qi Men practices. This direction is the direction of your Destiny Palace. Your Guardian Angel or Destiny Deity resides in your Destiny Palace. When you make wishes with your back to this direction, wishes will be fulfilled more easily. Every time you make a wish in the direction of your Destiny Palace, you are activating and cultivating the Qi that connects you to the Universe.

2. Meditate and focus on the Third Eye chakra

The Surging Snake Deity represents a person's intuition and sixth sense. The Third Eye chakra not only represents the Nine Heaven Deity but also relates to the Surging Snake. The Ajna or third-eye chakra is characterized by intuition, wisdom, clairvoyance, visualization, fantasy, concentration, determination, self-initiation, the power of projection, and understanding of purpose. The Third Eye chakra can be made more powerful through meditation, yoga and other spiritual practices. People with an Open Third Eye can also see the Spirit World because of the Surging Snake effect. Unlike the Nine Heaven Deity, which sees the future, the Surging Snake gives the ability to communicate with the energy of the environment, the Spirit World and the animal kingdom and bend these energies to their liking.

3. Pay attention to your surroundings

Everyone has an intuition or a sixth sense, but not in a magical or woo-woo way. Scientific studies reveal that an area of the human brain called the anterior cingulate cortex raises the alarm about danger without ever penetrating the conscious mind. This is an extrasensory ability; what we know as sixth sense or intuition. Slow down and you will be able to focus on your intuition and the subtle messages sent to you by others. We can harness the full power of Surging Snake if we pay attention to the changing emotions and body language of the people around us and the shifts in energy and sounds around us.

4. Do not brush away the vibes that come to you

Have you sensed someone or something staring at you? Have you sensed danger before it happened? Have you immediately felt uncomfortable with someone you just met? Don't ignore these signals, even though they make you feel a little foolish. Take appropriate action, whether bad things are going to happen or not.

5. Keep a journal

Make it a habit to write down your 'gut feeling'. Note down the people, events, places, objects and feelings involved. You can draw connections between your intuition and your daily experience. This will sharpen your intuition and build trust in your sixth sense, as you see real outcomes matching your intuition.

6. Ask your inner-self

When you have doubts, when you want an answer or some guidance from the Universe or when you need a creative idea, find a quiet place. Breathe deeply for several minutes to calm your thoughts or meditate for 15 minutes. Then ask your subconscious mind your question. Sit quietly for a while. Do not fret if you don't receive an answer immediately. Practice this again just before going to sleep and when you wake up. Your senses, insights and memories will converge with the Universe to guide you. An answer will appear in the form of evidential occurrence.

7. Exposure

Scientific research shows that intuition is a form of quick information processing. This skill can be cultivated with practice and attention. The ability to use intuition can be learned by repeated exposure to various situations, studies and outcomes. To gain a strong intuition on a subject, field or trend, start exposing yourself to related people, places and things. Study, observe closely and get hands-on experience on the subject.

8. Quiet your mind

People who can maintain psychological and spiritual calmness despite stress usually have a strong intuition. They see what people can't see or do not notice. Here are four tips to find your inner peace:

- Cleanse your mind by thinking positively.
- Every day, take 10 minutes to simply stop thinking.
- Don't say anything unless it is true, useful or kind.

Be selective when exposing yourself to information. Whatever we expose ourselves to will fill our inner space and affect our emotions and desires. So be mindful of what you expose yourself to.

9. Take up Qi-Generating Exercises or Energy Healing

Qigong and Tai Chi are exercises that help you to tap into and build up your inner Qi as well as transform the Qi in your environment. Similarly, energy healing such as Reiki, Pranic Healing and Quantum-Touch lessons not only teaches people to heal using Qi but also teaches people to manage their inner Qi and create an abundance of positive Qi. These exercises and lessons are suitable for people who want to tap into the power of the Surging Snake.

We hope you have fun cultivating the Surging Snake Deity as your Guardian Angel! Stay tuned for more information on other Guardian Angels in our future issues.
