Dear Readers,

I hope that you have been keeping well since we last met. This month, we bring you possibly our creepiest issue ever, as Jo visits haunted houses and examines some infamous murders and murderers. Every hair in my body stood on end while I was editing Black Magic and Murder (see page 5). Jo laughed when I told her, only to report that she also got creeped out while working on the layout at midnight. I hope that you find this issue as fascinating as I did. Take care.

Black Magic and Murder

Datuk Mazlan Idris...

I stepped into the big bungalow at about 10 pm. The bathroom was, as usual, set up with many prayer offerings and flowers. I have done this many times before. Every time I performed these cleansing floral bath rituals, it brought my career to a new high. I believed in and practised this ritual faithfully. In my mind, I would soon become the Chief Minister of Pahang. Even though I had some arguments and money disputes with the bomohs (Malay shamans), I still trusted them to perform the ritual. Usually, the floral bath ritual is performed with me sitting down. However, today as instructed, I lay down and closed my eyes. This was the last time I opened them. Halfway through the ritual, I feel suffocating wet cloths pressed onto my face. I tried to struggle but I was held down by several people.

I lost consciousness. Or was I dead? I was standing there looking at my body with great fear as the man brought the axe down on my neck. Blood splattered all over the bathroom. I didn't feel anything, nor did my body move. I tried to stop the man but somehow, I cannot touch or hold on to him. The man hacked my neck two more times and my head split from my body. I heard them instruct the man to dismember my body and skin my flesh. I cry with fear, anger and regret.

her, cursing her as she did her facelift.

I have waited a very long time for today. Yes, I heard you. You will never die. Ah... Yes, I will make sure you all live with me in hell.

On, 2 November 2001 at 05:59, Mona Fandey, her husband Mohd Affandi Abdul Rahman and their assistant, Juraimi Hussin were hanged to death. This brought the murder case of Datuk Mazlan Idris to an end, or did it?!

Qi Men Dun Jia Forecasting...

Yes, you can do a reverse forecast on events that have already taken place. On 20 August 2022, around noon I pulled out a Qi Men chart to study this case. Usually, if everything has been settled and there are no further changes in the future, a Fu Yin structure Qi Men chart will pop up at the time of consultation.

However, the Qi Men chart below is a normal chart where there can still be elements of change.

After a long time, I saw two of them heading toward my car. I followed them, sitting in the back seat. They drove to Kuala Lumpur. I was filled with anger and hatred as I watched them go on a shopping spree, buying many things including a Mercedes-Benz. I hovered over

死門 Death Door

When death is involved, we will look at the 死門 Death Door Palace. The Palace shows a 壬 Ren Stem with the 天輔星 Heavenly Assistant Star which can be related to the flower bath ritual. The formation can also indicate death by suffocation. The 六合 Six Harmony Deity indicates that more than two people are involved in this murder. Datuk Mazlan's murder is the death indicated by the number 1 in this Palace. Three culprits were caught and hanged for the murder, making up four deaths in this murder case which fits the number 4 in the Palace.

West Palace

Usually, if we want to see what the person is thinking or the cause of the situation, we will study the Hour Palace or the Palace that produces the focal point.

So, what is the cause of the murder and what were the three murderers thinking? In this analysis, I selected the Palace that produces the 死門 Death Door Palace to explain their motive. The 戌 Wu Stem and 天任星 Heavenly Ambassador Star point to greed. The 玄武 Black Tortoise Deity indicates cheating.

When Datuk Mazlan sought to perform the flower bath ritual, he was hoping for more wealth and power. Datuk Mazlan had given Mona Fandey and her husband a deposit of RM500,000 and ten land titles to perform this ritual. Not many details have been reported about the promise of the ten land titles. How did Datuk Mazlan, who was just an assemblyman of Pahang, come out with so much cash? How did Datuk Mazlan have the means to offer 10 land titles to Mona Fandey and her husband? The promise of land titles came from Datuk Mazlan alone which is consistent with the number 1 in the Palace. The Palace shows the number 7. Does this mean there were other people involved in the land deals?

Mona Fandey and her husband killed because of greed. They demanded RM2.5 million from Datuk Mazlan as payment for this ritual. The ten land titles didn't really come through. In the trial, Mohd Affandi, Mona's husband, accused Datuk Mazlan of owing them RM2 million for the rituals. After killing Datuk Mazlan, they went on a shopping spree with the RM200,000 that Datuk Mazlan had withdrawn to pay for the ritual. They had further withdrawn a sum of RM115,000 to pay for a Mercedes-Benz which led the police to suspect and arrest them.

The 辛 Xin Palace

The 辛 Xin Stem is always associated with the criminal. In this Palace, the number 3 is consistent with the three people who were involved in the murder of Datuk Mazlan. They were Mona Fandey, her husband Mohd Affandi Abdul Rahman and their assistant, Juraimi Hussin.

The Palace also contains the number 6. So, does this mean that more people were involved in the murder and three of them have yet to be brought to justice? If this is true, the spirit of Datuk Mazlan is surely haunting them as the Surging Snake Deity represents ghosts and spirits.

The 謩蛇 Surging Snake Palace

The 謩蛇 Surging Snake or 玄武 Black Tortoise is usually used as the focal point for the murder weapon. In this analysis, I used the 謩蛇 Surging Snake Palace for the reading because it coincides with the location of the 辛 Xin Stem which represents the criminal.

I have predicted earlier, using the 死門 Death Door location, that Datuk Mazlan was suffocated with a wet cloth until he was unconscious or dead before his head was chopped off. In the 謐蛇 Surging Snake Palace, there is a 癸 Gui Stem which is a Water Element. The 丁 Ding and 辛 Xin Stems can also be used to represent the parang and axe. Juraimi Hussin used the axe and parang to chop off Datuk Mazlan's head and dismember his body.

The 丙 Bing Palace

Until the day of the hanging, Mona Fandey believed that she would not die. Her family who visited her recall her saying, "I will never die." During the 65-day trial, she was seen smiling at the cameras every day without fail. She didn't behave like a person who will face punishment once convicted. What makes her so confident? Is it her mental illness that caused her lack of judgement? Or did someone mislead her into believing that she can walk away scot-free? This can happen in many unfair and corrupted trials.

Mona Fandey was born on 1 January 1956. Her year of birth contains the 丙 Bing Stem. In the Qi Men Chart, the 丙 Bing Palace consists of the 天蓬星 Heavenly Grass Star. 天蓬星 Heavenly Grass Star represents great crimes. Mona Fandey was most probably the mastermind of this murder. The 丙 Bing Palace produces the West Palace, and both Palaces are in Death Emptiness (DE). The West Palace represents the land deals. This means that if the conspiracy theory is true, Mona Fandey was still pursuing the land deals with the other parties. Maybe Mona Fandey had been given the promise of freedom by these people as she knows many powerful politicians. The 丙 Bing Palace in DE can mean that she had the chance to escape punishment, but the DE is nullified by the Horse Star. The West Palace in DE means empty promises. In the end, the promise of freedom never came.

Witchcraft and black magic will not kill people but greed will.

The Life of Mona Fandey

Nur Maznah Ismail was born on 1st January 1956. The time of birth is unknown. She was more famously known by her stage name, Mona Fandey. She used the stage name, Mona Fandey when she ventured into the music industry.

Mona Fandey craved fame and the spotlight. This can be noted by the 傷官 Hurting Officer Star that sits next to the Day Master on the Month Stem in her Bazi Chart. At a young age, she was a water ballet dancer who gained temporary fame. She was skilled enough to have her water ballet dancing routinely broadcast on television across the world. This had likely taken place when she entered into the age 12 luck cycle where her Useful Gods – 甲 Jia Wood and 庚 Geng Metal, appeared.

Her dance career did not last although it implanted in her a craving for fame. It is not easy for Ding Fire to produce the 戌 Wu Earth element (the Earth Element will turn hard), which represents fame to Mona Fandey. This indicates that the path toward fame will become more difficult. The 甲 Jia Wood or 庚 Geng Metal Elements will be needed in addition to the Earth element to gain popularity.

Mona Fandey met her husband when she went through a Peach Blossom luck cycle (age of 22). In the early 1980s, she met and married Mohamad Nor Affandi Abdul Rahman (Affandi). In her Bazi Chart, Mona's husband star appears in the Career Palace. So, her husband played an important role in her career. Affandi was a businessman and also offered bomoh services. A bomoh is a Malay shaman and traditional medicine practitioner.

Affandi, Mona's husband, had promised to help her become a pop star. With funds from Affandi, Mona released a studio album titled Diana. Mona Fandey did not gain much popularity during her singing career. When Mona's singing career was going downhill, Affandi introduced Mona to the bomoh business. This career change happened at the end of her Peach Blossom luck cycle and at the start of the 壬辰 Water Dragon luck cycle.

This 壬辰 Water Dragon cycle, beginning at the age of 32, and lasting for 10 years, spelt trouble for Mona Fandey. Mona Fandey was a Weak Fire Day Master. Her Bazi Chart did not need any more Water Elements. Additional Water Element will only make her 七殺 Seven Killings Star unhealthier. If the extremely strong 七殺 Seven Killings Star sees wealth, the person will become greedy and will do anything to get what she wants. The Dragon sign (10-year luck cycle) met the Rabbit sign (Day Branch) in her Bazi Chart and brought legal problems.

The year 1993 was the 癸酉 Water Rooster year. Mona Fandey's 七殺 Seven Killings Star appeared in the Heavenly Stem of that year. The Rooster was also Mona Fandey's Nobleman Star. However, this Nobleman Star had a destruction relationship with the Rat sign and a clash relationship with the Rabbit sign in her Bazi Chart. The Rat sign carries the 七殺 Seven Killing Star in her Bazi Chart. The Rabbit sign carries the 偏印 Indirect Resource Star in her Bazi Chart. Hence, we can deduce that the quality of the Nobleman Star was not good and it could be detrimental to Mona and her Nobleman if they met. The Rooster-Rat-Rabbit signs also represent Peach Blossom Stars.

In early 1993, Datuk Mazlan approached Mona Fandey, hoping to boost his career. He was willing to pay the sum of money demanded by Mona Fandey with an initial cash deposit of RM500,000 and the promise of 10 land titles. However, the 10 land deals did not work out. Their relationship soured but Datuk Mazlan still trusted Mona Fandey and her husband. He continued to use her services. Suffice to say Datuk Mazlan was the Nobleman Star (Rooster sign) that came into Mona's life in 1993. Datuk Mazlan may have had more than a business relationship with Mona as the Rooster-Rat-Rabbit signs were all Peach Blossom Stars.

On 2 July 1993 at 10 p.m., Mona Fandey executed her murder plan. Above is the Bazi Chart of that day. The month of the Horse clashed with the Rat sign in Mona's Bazi Chart which triggered her 七殺 Seven Killings Star into murderous action. If you remember, Mona Fandey enjoyed the spotlight during her 庚寅 Metal Tiger luck cycle which was made up of the 甲 Jia Wood and 庚 Geng Metal Elements. The Day Pillar for 2 July 1993 was a 甲申 Wood Monkey Day which consisted of the 甲 Jia Wood and 庚 Geng Metal Elements which were Mona's Useful God Elements. Datuk Mazlan was born in 1944 which has the 甲申 Wood Monkey Year Pillar. We can deduce that the 甲申 Wood Monkey represented Datuk Mazlan who was the Useful God to Mona Fandey.

However, this Useful God Element was in a harm and rob wealth relationship with the Hour Pillar, 乙亥 Wood Pig. In the article, Black Magic and Murder on page 5, we made the assumption that Datuk Mazlan was suffocated to death or rendered unconscious with a wet towel which is represented by the Wood and Water Elements. The Hour Pillar, 乙亥 Wood Pig, was also made up of the Wood and Water Elements.

On 22 July 1993, Mona, her husband, and her assistant were arrested. This month of the 巳未 Earth Goat brought a harm relationship to her Month Branch in her Bazi Chart. The Month Branch represents the career in Bazi study. This date marked the end of Mona's career as a bomoh.

Mona, her husband, and her assistant were hanged on 2 November 2001. She was hanged during her 癸巳 Water Snake 10-year luck cycle. The 癸 Gui Water extinguished her 丁 Ding Fire Day Master.

What if...

Given the Rooster sign and the 甲申 Wood Monkey which represent Mona's Nobleman, if Mona did not kill Datuk Mazlan but continued to service him, she could have become a very famous bomoh to the upper echelons of Malay society. Eventually, she could have received more wealth than the value of the 10 land titles promised to her. Datuk Mazlan may also have eventually given her the 10 land titles or something of equal value. Of course, as the Rooster sign had an unhealthy relationship with Mona's Bazi Chart, she may have felt suppressed and unhappy while offering her services to Datuk Mazlan. However, she would have enjoyed a luxurious lifestyle until today.

An Angry Ghost Waits For Justice

She travelled to Malaysia in 2006. She was shot twice, and her body was blown to pieces when she went knocking on the door to collect the debts owed to her. You have to be careful who you collect debts from nowadays.

If ghosts really exist and will haunt those who murder them until justice is served, then who will she be haunting now? The reading is based on the chart as at 29 August 2022 at 18:23 pm.

In Qi Men Dun Jia studies, the 謩蛇 Surging Snake Deity is used to represent ghosts. The 天沖星 Heavenly Destructor Star coincides with the Surging Snake Deity. So, there is definitely one unhappy and even violent ghost.

Qi Men Hour Chart: 29 August 2022 18:23

The mastermind of a crime is represented by the Heavenly Grass Star. In the Palace (West), the 辛 Xin Stem appears, indicating that the mastermind of this case was most likely born with the Year Stem 辛 Xin. The person who gave the order to kill (開門 Open Door in the Northwest Palace), is likely to be born with the Year Stem 癸 Gui. The 庚 Geng may have known of the murder but is not directly involved. The people who were at the crime scene and committed the execution were those with the Year of Birth Stems containing 辛 Xin and 丙 Bing.

The Stems 辛 Xin and 己 Ji coincide with the 謐蛇 Surging Snake Deity in the North Palace. The ghost of Altantuya Shaariibuu is most likely visiting the people with 辛 Xin and 己 Ji in their Year Stem who were involved in her murder.

Is there a person born with the Year Stem 己 Ji involved in her murder? Two decades after her death, the case is still unresolved. Will the case be closed at the 30 August 2022 retrial without justice being meted out and many questions still left unanswered?

The real Hannibal Lecter

As I walked into the prison, I saw a doctor treating Simmon's gunshot wound. Simmon had tried to break out of jail and was shot by the prison guard. I had interviewed Simmon before to get some inspiration for my book. Dykes Askew Simmons, a former mental patient with a cleft lip and a series of small scars on his head, was sentenced to death for killing three young people.

I was introduced to the doctor who treated Simmon. He had red hair and was of average height, not as well built or tall as the other prisoners in the cells. He looked reserved and well-mannered. There was an air of elegance about him. I wanted to get to know the perspective of a psychiatrist who knows what serial killers were thinking. Although from the way he treated Simmon's wound, he was more a surgeon than a psychiatrist. I still think an interview with him would be enough.

So, a bizarre interview ensued.

How did he feel when he looked at Simmons? Did the sunglasses Simmons wear add symmetry to his disfigured face? Have you seen the pictures of his victims?

He shot back... "You're not saying they provoked him?" That was when I noticed he was kind of sensitive about why Simmons killed the victims. I was fascinated by his enigmatic personality and complicated psyche.

The interview went on until a rap on the door from a warden announced that my time was up. I thanked the doctor and invited him for a drink or lunch if he was in Texas. When I went out, I asked the prison officer how long the doctor had worked in the prison. Then came the warden's surprising answer. "Don't you know who that is? That doctor murdered his lover. He is a skilled surgeon. He packed his lover into a surprisingly small box. He will never leave this place. He is insane."

As I wrote my book, I wondered, who was the interviewee and who was the interviewer, as the doctor gave as good as he got with a cool matter-of-factness. I'm glad he did, as this interview set my imagination on fire.

This was how the novel, "The Silence of the Lambs" and other Hannibal Lecter stories came about.

The author was Thomas Harris. He was born on 22nd September 1940. Below was his Bazi Chart. The Fire Element which represents Thomas Harris's Useful God is needed in his chart.

In 1963, the 癸卯 Water Rabbit year clashed with his Career Palace, the Rooster sign in the month branch. This clash indicated that he would have an unexpected encounter. He met Dr Alfredo Ballí Treviño in prison that year.

Dr Alfredo was born on 2 October 1931. His Bazi Chart can be found on page 22. Dr Alfredo had the Fire Element that was Thomas Harris's Useful God. He was going through the 甲午 Wood Horse luck cycle which was a strong Fire Element cycle. Hence, despite a short encounter, Dr Alfredo inspired Thomas Harris to write the character Hannibal Lecter.

Murder in a fit of anger

However, Dr Alfredo was not the insane murderer pictured in Thomas Harris's many novels. His Bazi Chart didn't show any punishment or harm relationships nor did it have any extremely lopsided elements.

八字 Bazi Chart: Dr Alfredo

時 Hour	日 Day	月 Month	年 Year
	庚 Geng Yang Metal	丁 Ding Yin Fire	辛 Xin Yin Metal	天干 Heavenly Stems
	寅 Yin Tiger Yang Wood	酉 You Rooster Yin Metal	未 Wei Goat Yin Earth	地支 Earthly Branches

Dr Alfredo regretted killing his boyfriend, Jesús Castillo Rangel. The Boyfriend Star can be represented by the 七殺 Seven Killings Star in Dr Alfredo's Bazi Chart. In the old days, when homosexuality was still not acceptable in society, Dr Alfredo was married. At the same time, he had a lover, who was also a doctor. In 1959, the year of the 巳亥 Earth Pig, he slit Jesús' throat with a scalpel during an argument in a fit of anger and jealousy and subsequently dismembered his body. He placed his body into a small box and buried it on his uncle's farm.

The Earth Element which represents the 正印 Direct Resource Element appeared on the Year Stem. For a 庚 Geng Metal Day Master, the Earth Element is a sign of a clouded and unclear mind. Dr Alfredo and Jesús were arguing over money which was a trivial matter. However, Jesús, who wanted more attention and love from a married man, threatened to marry a woman. The Earth Element in the Year Stem represented the 傷官 Hurting Officer Star to the Boyfriend Star. The presence of the 傷官 Hurting Officer Star usually indicates attention-seeking and arguments. The woman Jesus threatened to marry was probably Dr Alfredo's wife. The Pig sign in the Year Branch had a combination relationship with the Tiger sign in the Marriage Palace of Dr Alfredo's Bazi Chart. Dr Alfredo's wife passed away while he was in prison. He remarried again after his release, but his second wife also passed away five years later.

Dr Alfredo ended his days treating the poor and giving free treatment, desperately trying to atone for his actions and to forget his dark past. In 2008, Dr Alfredo gave an interview to a local newspaper. But he refused to discuss his chilling crime. The doctor explained: “If you want, we can talk about anything you’d like, except for that. I don’t want to relive my dark past. I don’t want to wake up my ghosts, it’s very hard.”

The doctor, who was in a wheelchair, confessed: “I don’t remember how many years I’ve been a doctor. Now I take care of the elderly like me. I think I got out of prison in 1981 but I honestly don’t remember. At first, it was difficult but, with time, things improved. However, some days the depression comes back. I paid what I had to pay. Now I’m just waiting for divine punishment.”

What did Dr Alfredo think of Thomas Harris?

There was not much affinity between Dr Alfredo and Thomas Harris’s Bazi Charts. Except for the short encounter in 1963, Thomas Harris was just a passerby in Dr Alfredo’s life. He didn’t place any importance on Thomas Harris’s novels and his depiction of Dr Alfredo as Hannibal Lecter. According to his friend, Dr Alfredo thought it was “funny” when they called him Hannibal or Dr Lecter.

Period 9

The Cycle of Spirituality

Spirituality is an awareness of a cosmic or divine energy that is greater than the self. As we move into Period 9, there will be more people who will come to believe in, feel, and recognize this cosmic energy. This is because the Fire Element of Period 9 represents spirituality and religion.

Is this good or bad?

As we know, the Fire Element is an extreme element. The impact can be good or very negative. In Period 9, people will be more open to spiritual teachings, advice and practices. In this Period 9 cycle, there will also be more scammers taking advantage of this openness. Superstitious people will be more prone to blessing scams, ghost scams or jewellery scams. Women will also easily fall prey to fraudsters in this cycle.

Hence, one must be extra cautious when practising spirituality or when taking spiritual advice. Spiritual practices should provide a sense of peace and calm. Be on the alert if those who are trying to persuade you onto the spiritual path evoke emotions such as fear or a sudden joy, craving or anticipation, especially over materialistic possessions.

Types of spirituality

Are you spiritual? In Bazi studies, the Indirect Resource Element and the Fire Element are associated with spirituality. These two elements indicate the type of spiritual experience you will go through in Period 9.

There are generally five types of spirituality. How does the Fire Element (Period 9) interact with the Indirect Resource Element and the Fire Element in your Bazi Chart? Tables 1 and 2 below show the Fire Element's (Period 9) relationship with the Indirect Resource Element, the Fire Element and the type of spirituality represented by these relationships.

Table 1: Type of Spirituality based on the Indirect Resource Element

Day Master	Indirect Resource Star	Fire Element (Period 9)	Type of Spirituality
Fire	Wood	Output	Mystical
Earth	Fire	Companion	Service
Metal	Earth	Resource	Intellectual
Water	Metal	Influence	Authoritarian
Wood	Water	Wealth	Social

Table 2: Type of Spirituality based on the Fire Element

Day Master	Fire Element (Period 9)	Type of Spirituality
Fire	Companion	Service
Earth	Resource	Intellectual
Metal	Influence	Authoritarian
Water	Wealth	Social
Wood	Output	Mystical

Mystical Spirituality

A Fire Day Master with the Indirect Resource Element or a Wood Day Master with the Fire Element will likely become more intuitive in Period 9. They believe every experience is a dot that connects to a greater picture and ultimately unity with the universe. Sometimes this is called soul experience. People with this type of spirituality may support the idea that everything happens for a reason. Their experiences are more important than the material or physical things in the world.

On the positive side, people with this belief will be able to let go of negative emotions and events easily. On the negative side, they tend to leave things to fate, believing that everything will turn out right.

Service Spirituality

An Earth Day Master with the Indirect Resource Element or a Fire Day Master with the Fire Element will likely become more charitable in Period 9. This is one of the most common types of spirituality. This is because most people experience spiritual peace when they serve or help others.

The most common practice is the offer of monetary donations. However, those who are sincere will also help others without expecting anything in return. People will take time off to go to rural and poverty-stricken places to teach children, offer medical treatments and build houses for the poor.

On the positive side, giving without getting something in return is a common way for people to get in touch with their spiritual selves. However, people of this spiritual type will tend to fall victim to fraudsters who prey on the kindness of others.

Intellectual Spirituality

A Metal Day Master with the Indirect Resource Element or an Earth Day Master with the Fire Element will likely become more intellectually curious in Period 9. Intellectually spiritual people are keen on learning about spiritual theories and analysing the information they find. Their spiritual journey entails the study of theology, metaphysics, or cosmology.

On the positive side, they are the intellectuals who can give explanations, sometimes even scientifically, about spirituality. On a negative note, they are also weird people who practise rituals, charms and black magic for research purposes. They will easily become superstitious and fearful of the darker side of the Universe such as demons, vampires and evil spirits.

Authoritarian Spirituality

A Water Day Master with the Indirect Resource Element or a Metal Day Master with the Fire Element is likely to become more religious in Period 9. People who tend towards authoritarian spirituality will readily believe in and accept authority and hierarchy. They like following a set of rules and systems. Often, this type of spirituality is associated with religions with well-defined rules, systems, prayers and stories and historical examples to back their beliefs.

Well-established religions tend to have great social systems and networks to help and support their followers who are experiencing tough times. They can offer emotional, moral and monetary support. On the negative side, this sort of spirituality can produce radical religious terrorism.

Social Spirituality

A Wood Day Master with the Indirect Resource Element or a Water Day Master with the Fire Element will only become more spiritual if they spend more time with spiritual people in Period

9. Often, they lack awareness of their own spirituality. They only become aware of their spiritual journey when other people point it out to them, or if they see similar experiences in other people's lives. Social spiritual people can also experience spirituality when joining others who have a common goal of searching for a greater purpose in life.

People who tend towards this type of spirituality will experience spirituality when they join groups such as religious groups, study groups, meditation groups, etc. They are people who get to experience multiple types of spirituality and are open to various spiritual practices too. On a negative note, they are most likely to mastermind bogus operandi operations in the name of spirituality.

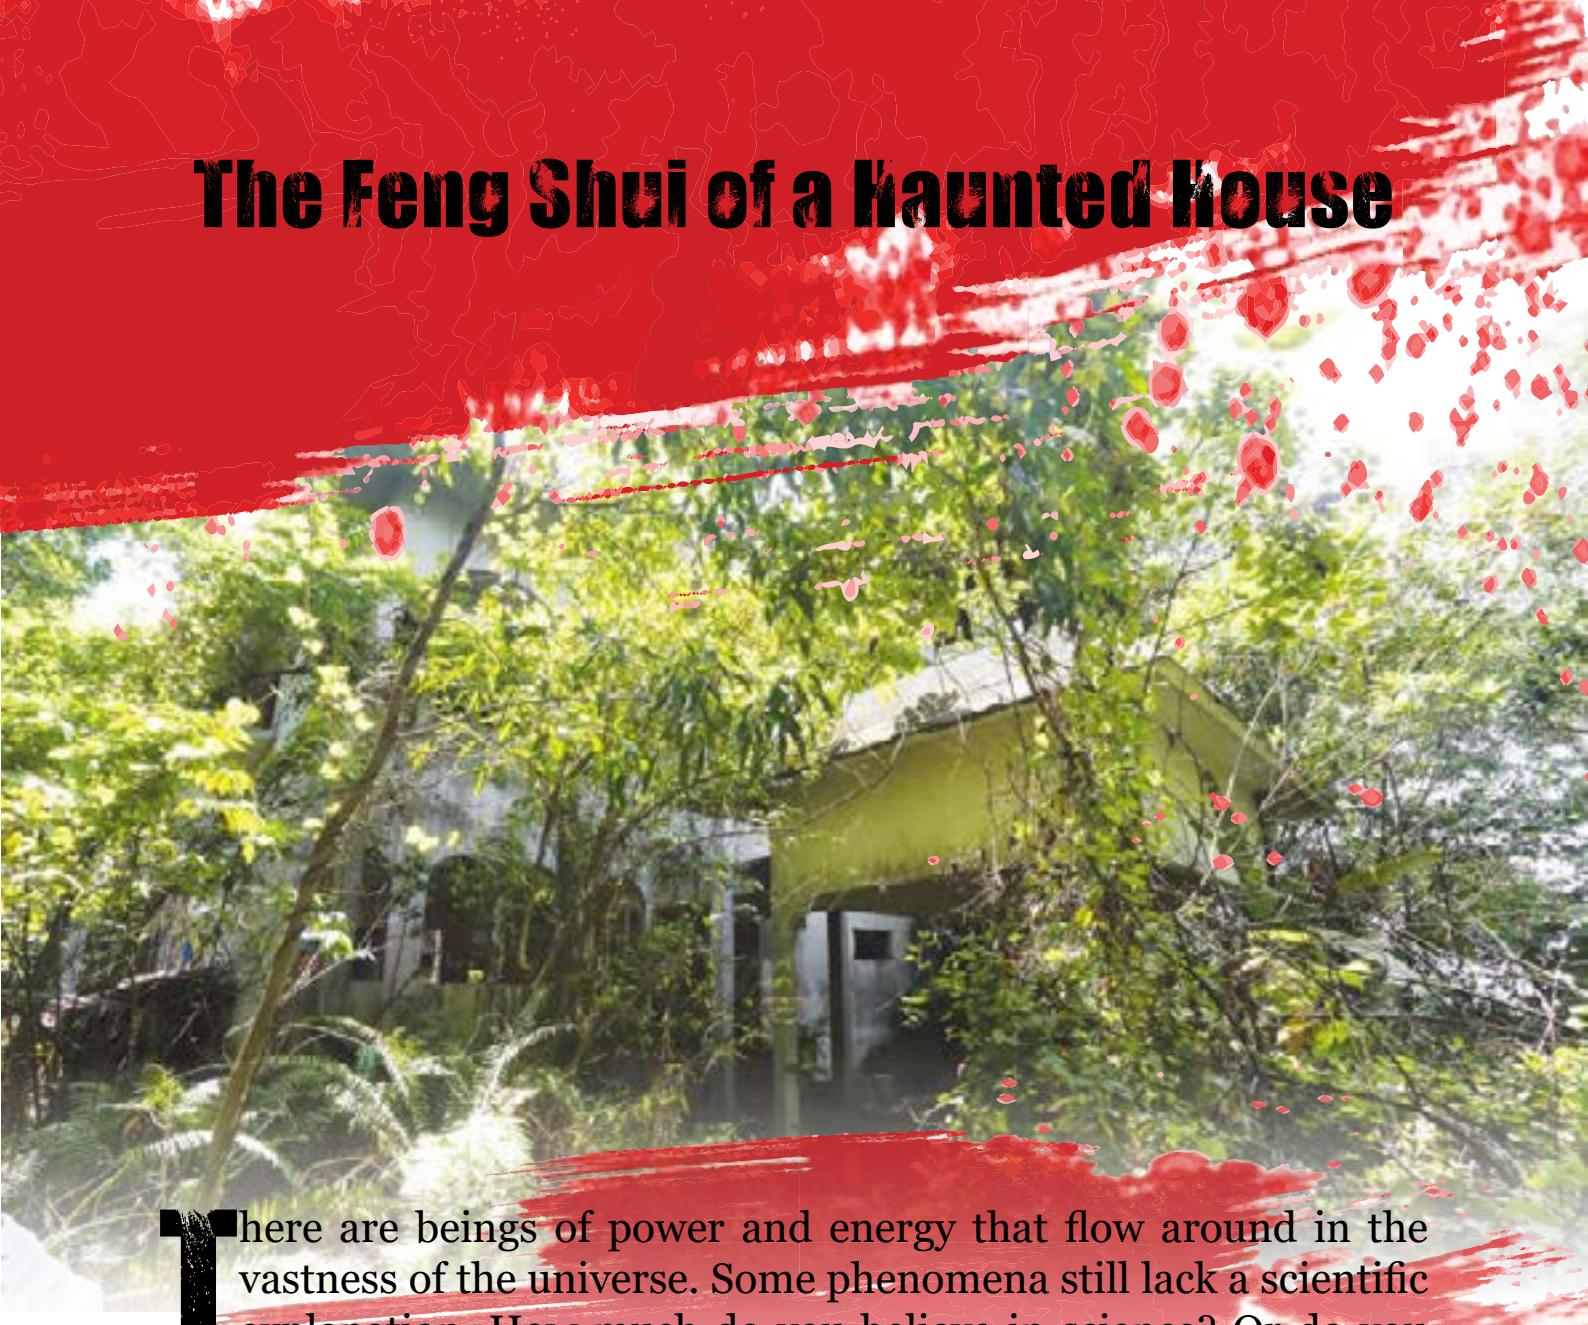

If you believe in the efficacy of charms and totems, check out Table 3 below for charms and totems most suitable for each spiritual path.

Table 3: Charms & Totems for your Spirituality

The Feng Shui of a Haunted House

There are beings of power and energy that flow around in the vastness of the universe. Some phenomena still lack a scientific explanation. How much do you believe in science? Or do you believe in ghosts, spirits and gods?

Taman Tenaga is a residential area built on a hill in Puchong, Selangor. Although many people believe that houses built on top of a mountain or hill will enjoy good environmental Feng Shui, this is not true for all houses. This bungalow in Taman Tenaga is a good example of bad Feng Shui. Is the house haunted? Well, I'm not sure.

This bungalow hidden in the bushes was believed to be built in the late 1970s and was originally a villa for a wealthy businessman. In the early 1980s, Puchong was undeveloped and was covered in forest, mining land and rubber plantations. So, you can imagine that there were not many residential houses and shophouses surrounding the bungalow as shown in the Google map in the next page.

It's hard to spot the trail leading to the bungalow as the path is overgrown with plants and trees. But I guess it should be a small road, only big enough for a car to pass through. If not, how did the owner enter his home? The trail is on the side of a slope, and it is a straight path up to the house. This trail formed a "Pulling Nose Sha."

The design of the bungalow is extraordinary. It is three storeys high, which was rare in those days. The house sits amidst overgrown plants and trees which now obscure the grandeur of the house. The house is sitting on the South and facing North. This North-South axis facing and sitting position was a very popular position for houses in the old days. It was regarded as auspicious for a house to be facing and sitting in these directions as explained in our article “Siheyuan” in the previous issue of Bazichic Magazine. If you look carefully, there are many pillars around the house blocking Qi from flowing into the house properly.

There is no bright hall in front of the main entrance to accumulate Qi and disperse Sha Qi. Take a look at the photo of the main entrance below. You will need to take a few flights of stairs before reaching the main door. The door has been removed but you can see that there is no bright hall between the door and the stairs. As you walk into the main entrance, you will see that there is a door to the storeroom at the side (on the right-hand side of the photo). We do not like to see this as storerooms usually accumulate stagnant Qi. As you move further into the house there is supposed to be another door dividing the inside of the house and the storeroom. In Feng Shui studies, the Qi always flows from the high area to the lower land. Imagine the Qi, which represents your source of income, vitality and affinity, that now needs to climb up the stairs which are obstructed by two doors. It is going against the natural flow of Qi. From the design of this main entrance, you can deduce that the life of the occupants will become more and more difficult in terms of health, wealth and relationships.

As you look further past the second door, you will clearly see the stairs going up to the upper floor. This kind of structure is regarded as the “Mountain Leakage Sha 流山煞.” To make matters worse, the staircase is in a semi-curved shape forming a “Cutting Blade Sha.” Not only that, but the curving shape of the staircase is not blocked by a wall. Instead, the curve seems to be cutting through the windows. This is a sign of a violent disaster waiting to happen.

The corridor on the upper floor leading toward the bedrooms and the staircase to the third floor does not receive any sunlight. This area remains dark even during the day. Yin Qi will easily accumulate over time.

There are many stories about this haunted house. In one of the stories, the first owner sold the house to a rich family of four, a couple with two children. The second owner subsequently became bankrupt and committed suicide together with his family to escape loan sharks. In another story, it is said that the family was murdered by an unidentified killer. Yet another version of the story tells of a girl wearing a red dress committing suicide by jumping from the third floor after being raped. There was even someone saying that Mona Fandey had practised her black magic in this house in the early days. Well, everyone insists that their stories are true but an uncle who has lived nearby for 40 years said the house is just an abandoned project. He even saw a team of international ghost hunters visit the place, only to find nothing mysterious.

The house is about 33 years old now. I believe the uncle's story is closer to the truth. Looking at such a grand design and layout, if the house had been occupied before, the owner would have placed beautiful marble or tile flooring in the house. Even if it had not been lived in for a long time, some of the floorings would still be intact. However, the house still sports a cement floor, and some wires without sockets are hanging along the walls. The developer must have abandoned the project during the property downturn in the 1990s.

It is good that this is an abandoned project. This means that no one had the bad luck of buying this house.

Why is a house haunted?

In Feng Shui studies, the house can be haunted because it contains too much yin energy. Alternatively, some form of bad Sha Qi is attacking the house which leads to the occupants feeling disturbed or experiencing a string of bad events. Based on pure Feng Shui principles, ghosts or spirits are just yin energy. Feng Shui does not recognize ghosts and spirits as sentient beings. So, there aren't any proper methods in Feng Shui studies to clear away ghosts or spirits. When a house has been empty for more than three months, the house will lack yang energy. Qi flow will become stagnant as there is no movement in the house. The usual advice is to try to increase the yang energy in the house to counter the yin energy. For example, make sure there is a lot of sunlight shining into the house. Cut away dead trees or trees that block the house from receiving Qi. Or remove the roof so that the house can be bathed in sunlight for a month. Sunlight is regarded as the most natural yang energy available.

However, in the old days, most Feng Shui Masters were also practitioners of Taoism. So, religious knowledge and Feng Shui principles co-mingled in their practices. According to Taoism, a house could be haunted for the following reasons:

1. The Occurrence of Unnatural or Violent death

When a victim dies of an unnatural death such as murder or a violent disaster, they have a lot of negative energy in them. This energy comes from their pent-up anger, hatred and extreme discontent which turns them into evil ghosts. According to Taoism, these ghosts will linger in the human realm until their anger is appeased before they are willing to enter the cycle of rebirth. They will cause trouble for those who cross their path. It will be hard to clear the bad energy in properties with these kinds of negative events. Even if the Feng Shui of the environment is good, and the building is demolished and rebuilt, the place will always be haunted.

2. The property has been left empty for too long

In Feng Shui studies, when a property has been left empty for 3 months and above, the Qi becomes stagnant and turns into yin energy. According to Taoism, ghosts and spirits will inhibit properties that have been left empty for too long. Both Taoists and Feng Shui practitioners encourage throwing a party after moving into a new property to increase the yang energy of the property.

3. Property that is built on or near the cemetery

While death is permanent, the grave isn't. Due to a shortage of land, graveyards will be reclaimed for property development. These properties will be prone to paranormal disturbances even if the graves and corpses have been removed. The buildings can also be haunted if developers or owners unwittingly build on unmarked graves. As space becomes scarce in the city, buildings can easily be spotted sitting near a cemetery. These buildings are also prone to visits by ghosts.

4. Newly cleared land or land in the forest

Taoists believe that forests and land in the wilderness are filled with many unknown and natural spirits. Clearing such lands and forests will disturb these spirits.

Hence, developers in Southeast Asia always build a small shrine dedicated to the Earth Deity in their new developments to bring peace and harmony.

VISITING A HAUNTED HOUSE

Yes, I'm a scaredy cat... I have never dared to step into an allegedly haunted house, despite the Feng Shui belief that ghosts and spirits are only yin energy caused by a house left empty too long or caused by Sha Qi.

My client once brought me to a row of bungalows that were built on the side of a hill. She said there was a unit located at the end of the row that was selling very cheaply. The house is an end-lot and located on a dead-end street. This is already a sign of bad Feng Shui. In general, there is no Qi flow at a dead-end street that is blocked by the side of the mountain or a wall. This house is located just by the side of a rocky mountain. Besides the Qi being stuck, the sharp angle of the mountain is also cutting into the house, creating Sha Qi.

It had the look of a single-storey bungalow from the front when, in fact, the bungalow has three floors going down the slope at the back of the house. The main entrance to the living room is located on the ground floor. You need to climb down to go to the kitchen and dining area. The bedrooms are on the lowest floor. The back of the bungalow has no support, and it is sloping downward. I was more worried about a landslide happening, not to mention the problematic Feng Shui created by the layout and structure of the house.

The staircase is built at the side of the house and spiralling downwards. The spiral staircase brings Sha Qi. The curve of the staircase is always cutting into the house wherever it is located.

We parked our car a few doors away and walked towards the house. The sales agent was on her way to meet us there. When we reached the gate of the house, I stopped in my tracks. I felt a chill all over my body and my hair stood on end. The house looked old and deserted with mould all over the walls. There were plants crawling all over the walls too. It was a stark contrast to the house next door, which is full of life.

I told my client to move on to another house. We didn't need to check out the Feng Shui of this house. Believe me, it was very bad. Yes, I refused to go into that house. I didn't take any photos then, but the bungalow design looks somewhat like the one above.

EVERYONE CAN SELL

Sales can come naturally to some but not to others. The truth is, everyone can sell. Some are better at the whole process of selling while some people are good at certain parts of the sales process.

The table below shows which part of the sales process a person is good at based on his Bazi structure.

Table: Selling skills based on your Bazi Structure

Selling Skills	Bazi Structure
Make contact and build rapport	Companion
Analyse needs or wants	Resources
Make the pitch	Output
Presenting the proposal	Influence
Negotiate and close the deal	Wealth

The Companion Structure consists of the Friend Structure and Rob Wealth Structure. These two structures have a good affinity with people. They are friendly and can easily strike up a conversation with a stranger. It is easy for them to build a good rapport with people. Friend Structure people are afraid of asking their friends to buy from them or they have trouble saying “no” when people ask for too many freebies or discounts. Rob Wealth Structure people have problems following up on after-sales services and support.

The Resource Structure consists of the Direct Resource and Indirect Resource Structures. They are good analysts, so they are good at knowing what the customers truly need and what a customer wants. They excel at matching products and services to the right customers. Indirect Resource Structure people are good at selling odd and mysterious objects. These people are shy about approaching people.

The Output Structure consists of the Eating God Structure and Hurting Officer Structure. Both structures are good at the whole process of selling, especially pitching. Hurting Officer Structure people can sell any product they are interested in, while Eating God Structure people are good at selling products of their own creation or products they trust. Hurting Officer Structure people are not good at after-sales services and they tend to over-promise. Eating God Structure people are perfectionists and inflexible when it comes to their creations. They will not change their products to suit the customers' requirements.

The Influence Structure consists of the Direct Officer Structure and Seven Killings Structure. Both structures are good at presenting the products to customers and proposing various models of a product at different prices. Seven Killings Structure people are good at spotting problems and offering solutions. Direct Officer Structure people can be inflexible when it comes to meeting customer requirements as they will follow the company sales policy to a tee. Seven Killings Structure people may not be 100% truthful when they are persuading you to buy something.

The Wealth Structure consists of the Direct Wealth and Indirect Wealth Structures. Both structures are good at negotiating the best prices and closing the deal. They are willing to walk away from the deal if the price is not right. Direct Wealth Structure people are more inflexible when it comes to price negotiation. Ask for too much discount from the Indirect Wealth Structure people and they will find ways to get back the discounted value from you. Both structures are not people-friendly. It may require some creativity on your part to use the information available to you to your best advantage.

Face Reading

Is this the face of a Witch?

Even two decades after she was hanged, Mona Fandey remains both a fascinating and frightening figure in Malaysia. The entire country was transfixed by the story of a bomoh (Malay shaman) who had murdered a politician. Mona Fandey's real name was Nur Maznah Ismail. She was involved in the gruesome murder of Batu Talam (Pahang) state assemblyman, Datuk Mazlan Idris.

The young Mona Fandey had a Fire-shaped face with a narrow short forehead and wider jawline. A Fire-shaped face indicates a short temper, a lack of patience and determination. A narrow and short forehead also indicates a lack of knowledge and wisdom.

Mona Fandey had a pair of big, deep-set phoenix eyes that thirsted for fame and acknowledgement. Having a pair of phoenix eyes indicates a person who is always seeking and attracting attention and love. As she grew older the pair of phoenix eyes became less prominent.

Mona Fandey's face showed a straight and roundish nose. Mona Fandey's nose was thin and not fleshy during her stint as a pop singer and at the end of her murder trial. Her nose is supported by fleshy cheeks and rather high cheekbones. This indicates status and power. During her days as a shaman, Mona Fandey was known to have great influence over many powerful and superstitious Malay politicians. Everyone seemed to be afraid of Mona Fandey then. During the court hearing, people were discreetly advised to bring an amulet to protect themselves from the witch, Mona Fandey. Her constant smile during her 65 days of trial even caused uneasy feelings among the police officers.

Her Fire-shaped face with a broad jawline slowly turned into an oval-shaped face as she grew older. During her trial, she sported a very sharp and longish chin. Her broad jawline was gone. Her sharp and longish chin may be due to a facelift.

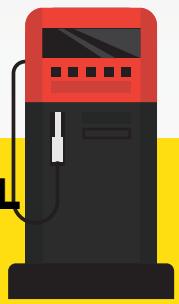

Her narrow and short forehead had grown higher with her receding hairline. However, it remained narrow which indicates that her knowledge or skills remained the same. Did she grow wiser? Maybe, but it seemed to be too little, too late.

A thin sharp nose and a sharp chin are facial features associated with a witch, was Mona Fandey a witch? Who knows.

Making a Wish

In all our articles about Fa Qi Men, we mentioned that to get wishes fulfilled, one has to get into an “alpha state of mind”. We have also given tips and methods on how to get into this mental state. Also, if we can best match the Qi Men Chart to what we wish for, the wish will be easier to fulfil. So, now let’s put this method to work.

28 November 2022 is an auspicious day for wish fulfilment. Between 7am to 8.59am, you can sit with your back to the Northeast to make your wish if you are outside a building. If you are inside a building, make sure that all the doors are open. Place a pot of red flowering plant or a photo of a motherly figure nearby. Sit with your back to the Northeast direction at the Northeast location to make your wish.

In the month of the Rooster, the appearance of three auspicious stars brings some stability in the midst of uncertainties. These three auspicious stars are the Emperor Star, the Dragon Virtue Star and the Rest God.

The month's negative energy will bring water and earth-related accidents such as shipwrecks, boats colliding, drowning, accidents caused by heavy rain and bad weather, and drug or alcohol intoxication. The month of the Dog will mark the end of the COVID-19 pandemic. The virus will no longer pose a threat. While there will still be COVID-19 cases, there will not be a spike in hospitalization rates death rates, and the rate of acute suffering from the disease. While this is good news, the month of the Dog will not be a peaceful and smooth sailing month. The ongoing wars and conflicts will escalate this month. Many air missiles and air strikes will be launched in the war zones. China will conduct more military air drills near Taiwan.

The U.S.'s military actions will be increasingly regarded as imperialism instead of the fight for human rights and freedoms. The U.S.-led allies, such as the UK, Australia, Germany, India and Japan, will be breaking up as these allied countries' priorities are to benefit from wars, if any, and to protect their own interests.

The presence of the Elegant Seal and Heavenly Officer Stars indicates that a new ally will emerge. The new allies will be formed among the Asian, South African and Arabian countries as western propaganda increasingly threatens world peace and economic stability.

The Sky Warrior and Flying Chaste Stars indicate that the month will be prone to air and fire-related accidents or natural disasters such as falling objects, plane crashes, explosions, fire tornadoes and forest fires. People may need to battle against floods, heavy rain and fires at the same time.

If the month's Qi is unfavourable to you, especially those who have the Ox, Dragon, Goat and Rooster in the Bazi Chart, cut down on travel, especially to countries with extreme weather cycles.
