Message from the Editor

Dear Readers,

As I write this, the delta variant of COVID-19 continues to rage across the world, crushing our hopes of a return to normalcy this year. This has been a difficult year for Malaysia and also in many countries that are struggling to contain the new variants of the virus. There's not a lot we can do about it but to continue to protect ourselves and our loved ones by masking up and practising social distancing and good hygiene. If you have the opportunity to do so, do get yourself and your loved ones vaccinated. Do stay safe until we meet again.

Lots of Love,

Does Prince William really love Kate Middleton?

Most will agree that Prince William and the Duchess of Cambridge seem to have the fairy tale romance that Prince William's parents failed to achieve.

In Chinese Metaphysics study, the basic criterion for two people to cross each other's path and continue on their journey in life together is the presence of their partner's Soulmate Elements in their Bazi Charts. Everyone has certain preferences and expected qualities in a life partner. In Bazi studies, these qualities are represented by the Soulmate Elements of a person's Bazi Chart. The Soulmate Elements can positively or negatively influence a person's relationship. It is a good sign if one of the Soulmate Elements is the same as the potential partner's Day Master.

How do Prince William and Kate Middleton match in terms of Soulmate Elements?

Does this promise a fairy tale love story?

Well, NO!

A fairy tale is defined as, “a children’s story about magical and imaginary beings and lands.” Simply put, they aren’t real life. Life is full of highs and lows. Life experiences will affect your relationships. All romantic relationships go through ups and downs too. Love, like any other part of your life, i.e. career, health, friendship, family and wealth, require work, commitment, and a willingness to adapt and change.

However, some people have more luck with love than others.

Why?!

Jim Rohn says, “You’re the average of the five people you spend most of your time with”. In fact, these five people around you are the determinants of your success! One of these five people is your spouse because you will spend the most time with him or her.

When your partner’s Bazi Chart also contains your Regulating Useful God Elements next to the Day Master and Spouse Palace, he or she will have a positive influence on you or vice versa. When a couple’s Bazi Charts contains each other’s Regulating Useful God Elements next to the Day Master and Spouse Palace, their relationship will fare better than a couple where only one partner’s Bazi Chart meets the above criteria.

Prince William’s Regulating Useful God Elements are 癸 Gui and 丙 Bing. The 癸 Gui can be found in the Spouse Palace of the Duchess’s Bazi Chart.

Kate’s Regulating Useful God Elements are 辛 Xin and 甲 Jia. The 甲 Jia can be found in the Spouse Palace of Prince William’s Bazi Chart.

This indicates that they will listen to each other’s advice, compromise on their differences, consider each other’s point of view and trust and respect each other. In short, they can bring out the best in each other. When faced with troubles, they will both work to overcome them.

Potential Trouble in the Relationship

The Spouse Palace indicates the type of relationship you have with your spouse and loved ones. Certain Stars, if found in the Spouse Palace, will bring problems to a relationship.

Hurting Officer (HO) is a bad sign to have in a woman’s Spouse Palace. The HO is hurting the Direct Officer Star. Not only does it indicate an argumentative relationship with your spouse, but it also brings a bad influence to your spouse. Actions you take with good woman Day Master is better off having the Seven Killings than the Direct Officer element. So, having the Seven Killings in the Spouse Palace is somewhat positive for Kate Middleton.

For a woman, Seven Killings in the Spouse Palace means that she never thinks of or treats the man in her life as a husband. She is independent and will treat the husband more like a boyfriend. She is ready to walk away from the relationship if need be.

Another Star that we do not want to see in the Spouse Palace of both men and women is the Rob Wealth element. Rob Wealth indicates competitors - people who want what you have. In a romantic relationship, they indicate a third party deliberately vying for your spouse's attention.

Both Prince William and Kate Middleton also see the Rob Wealth in their Spouse Palaces.

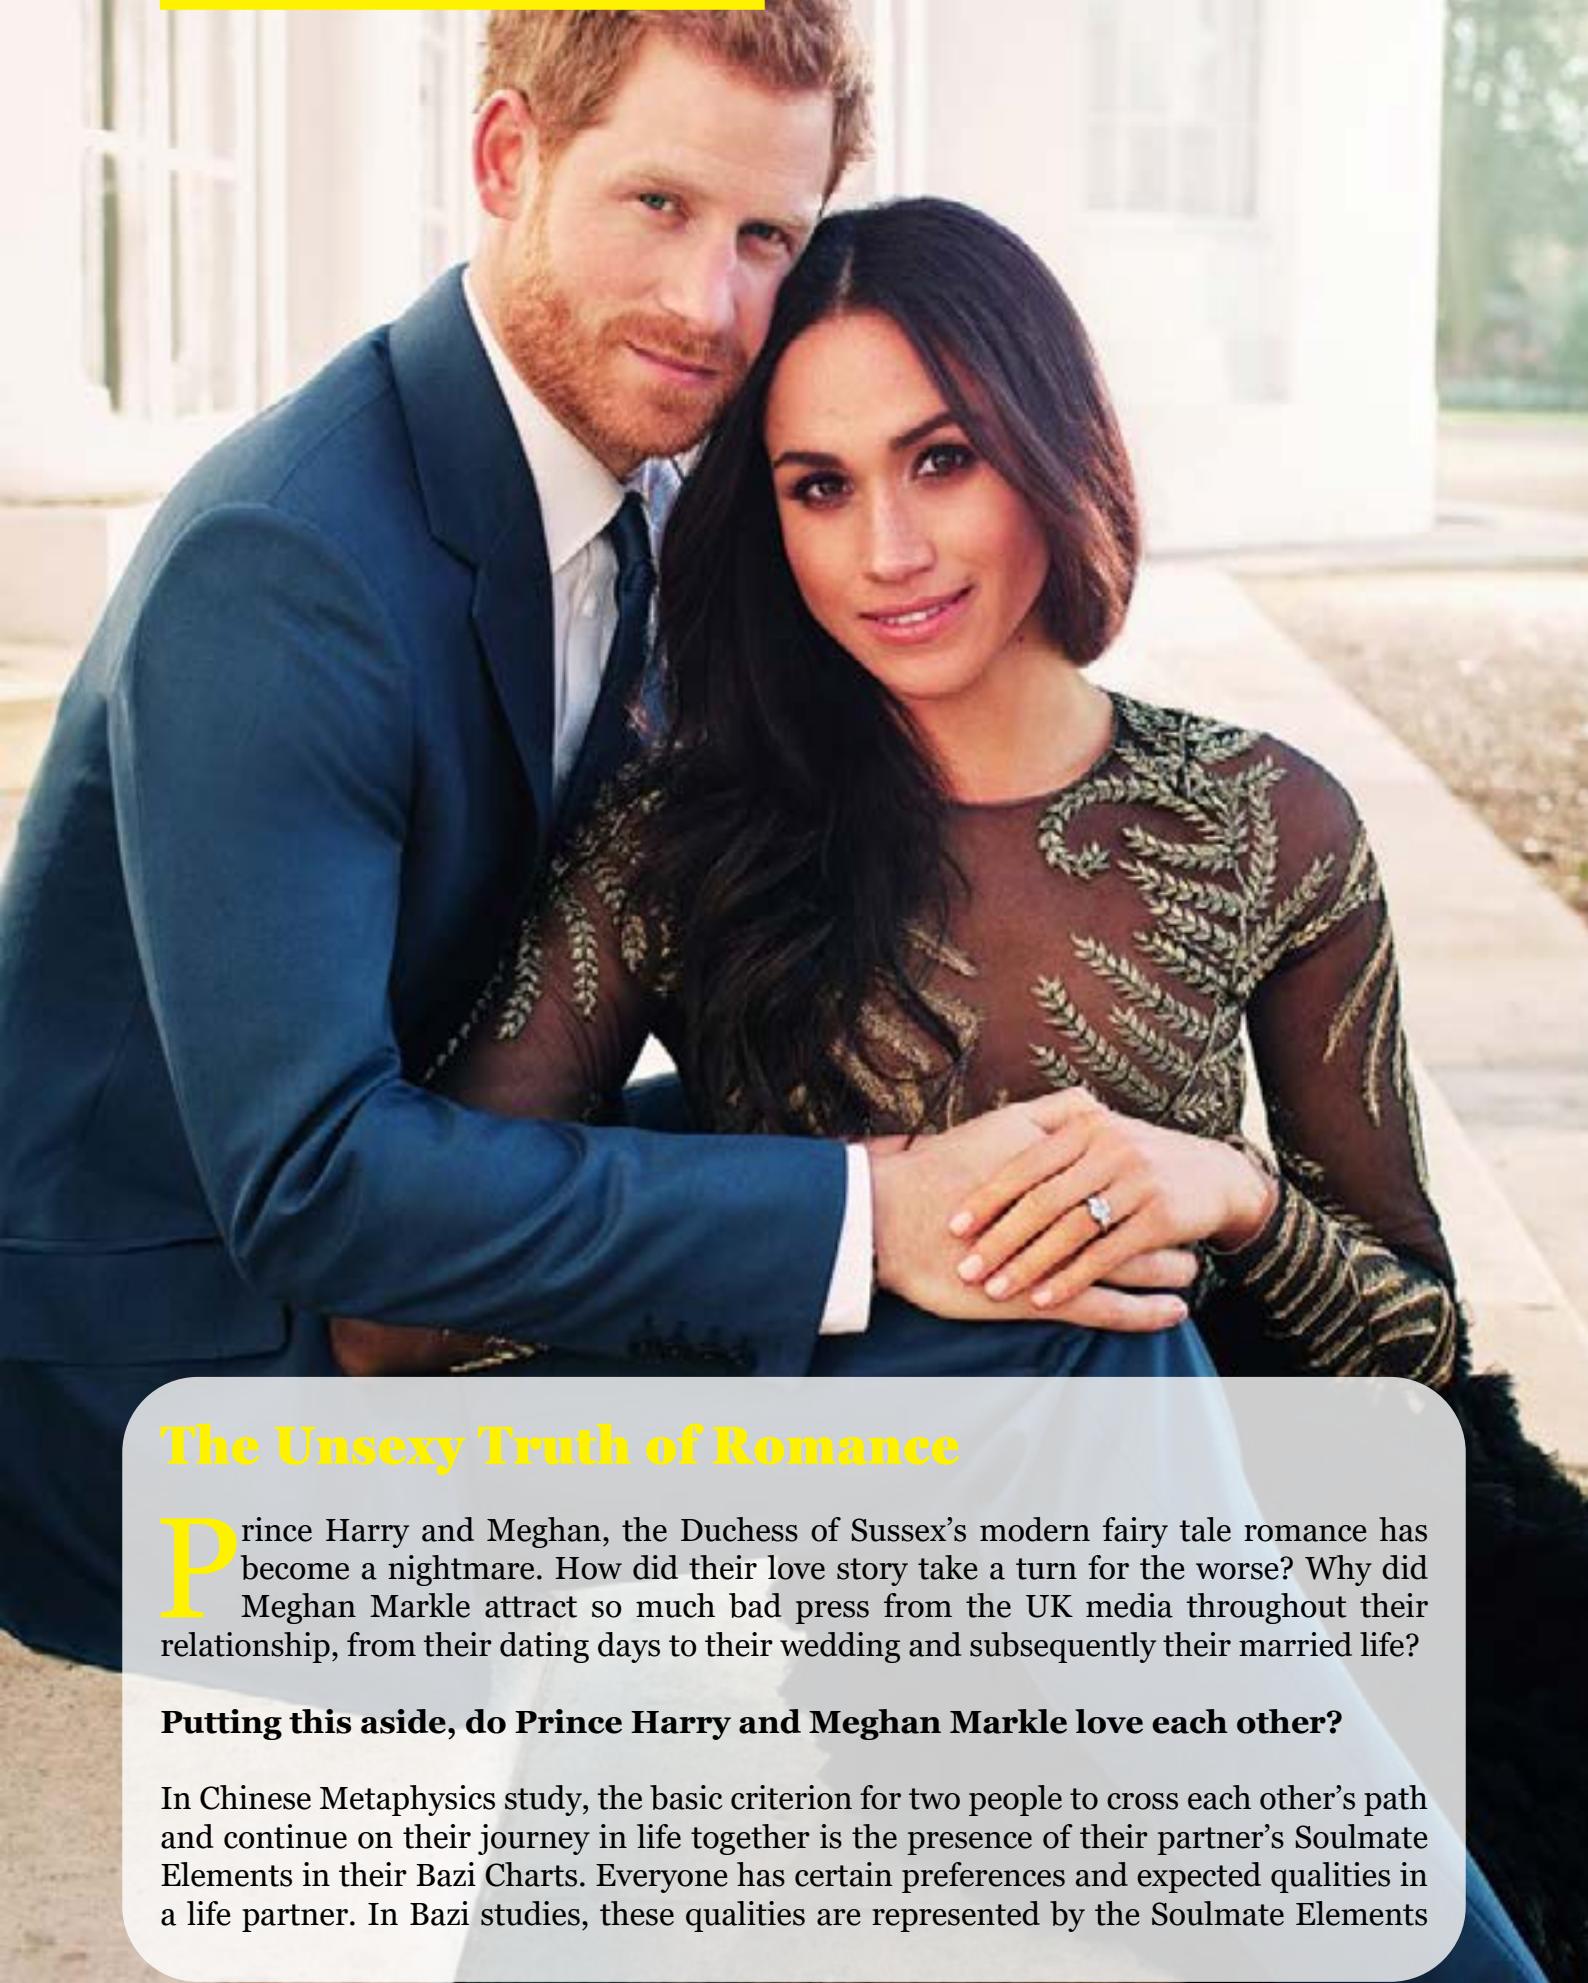

Hence, Prince William and the Duchess have had their fair share of relationship ups and downs, just like other people. Having each other's Regulating Useful God in their Bazi Charts, they are better at managing their relationship and have grown to become good companions for each other.

intentions will have a damaging effect on your spouse. Women who have this HO in the Spouse Palace will also tend to argue to win and will act to spite their spouses if left unchecked.

We also don't like to see the two Influence Stars, Direct Officer and Seven Killings, in a woman's Bazi Chart, especially side by side. The Direct Officer represents the husband, and the Seven Killings represents boyfriends. Having both Influence Gods in the chart indicate confusion in a relationship. The presence of many Influence Gods also indicates that the woman is attractive to the opposite sex. She will have many suitors.

The Duchess's Spouse Palace has all the above Bazi configurations. This indicates that her marriage is not the fairy tale everyone thinks it is. On the positive side, a 壬 Ren Water

The Unsexy Truth of Romance

Prince Harry and Meghan, the Duchess of Sussex's modern fairy tale romance has become a nightmare. How did their love story take a turn for the worse? Why did Meghan Markle attract so much bad press from the UK media throughout their relationship, from their dating days to their wedding and subsequently their married life?

Putting this aside, do Prince Harry and Meghan Markle love each other?

In Chinese Metaphysics study, the basic criterion for two people to cross each other's path and continue on their journey in life together is the presence of their partner's Soulmate Elements in their Bazi Charts. Everyone has certain preferences and expected qualities in a life partner. In Bazi studies, these qualities are represented by the Soulmate Elements of a person's Bazi Chart. The Soulmate Elements can positively or negatively influence a person's relationship. It is a good sign if one of the Soulmate Elements is the same as the potential partner's Day Master.

How do Prince Harry and Meghan Markle match in terms of Soulmate Elements?

The Soulmate Elements always reside next to the Day Master and the Spouse Palace.

Meghan Markle's Soulmate Elements are 癸 Gui, 庚 Geng and 丁 Ding.

Yes, Meghan Markle does love Prince Harry. Meghan Markle is important to Prince Harry too.

In Bazi study, the Year Pillar represents your Door to the world. So, it is regarded as your Social Circle, Image, Defence and Protection Palaces. Whether consciously or subconsciously, Prince Harry sees the Duchess of Sussex as his shield of protection, an opportunity to gain his freedom and a trophy wife to show off.

A modern fairy tale or a nightmare?

When your partner's Bazi Chart also contains your Regulating Useful God Elements next to the Day Master and Spouse Palace, he or she will have a positive influence on you or vice versa. When a couple's Bazi Charts contains each other's Regulating Useful God Elements next to the Day Master and Spouse Palace, their relationship will fare better than a couple where only one partner's Bazi Chart meets the criteria.

Prince Harry's Regulating Useful God Elements are 甲 Jia and 庚 Geng. The 甲 Jia can be found in Spouse Palace of Meghan Markle's Bazi Chart. Meghan Markle's Day Master is also Jia.

Meghan Markle's Regulating Useful God Elements are 癸 Gui, 庚 Geng and 丁 Ding. The 癸 Gui can be found in the Spouse Palace of Prince Harry's Bazi Chart.

This indicates a one-sided love from Meghan Markle. To Prince Harry, the Jia Yin Day Pillar is a very useful Element. Some people feel they're "in love" when really, they're actually "in need." The latter is true for Prince Harry. It is a dependent relationship.

Is this a nightmare in the making? Maybe yes. Maybe no.

Their Bazi Charts contain each other's Regulating Useful God in their Spouse Palace. Due to these elemental influences, they will listen to each other, make compromises if needed, and respect each other. If Meghan Markle continues to provide and fulfil Prince Harry's needs, the relationship will continue to work. Meghan Markle will take the lead in the relationship, while Prince Harry will be happy that she did all the work.

Potential Trouble in the Relationship

The Spouse Palace indicates the type of relationship you have with your spouse and loved ones. Certain Stars, if found in the Spouse Palace, will bring problems to a relationship.

In a woman's Bazi Chart, the Hurting Officer (HO) and too many Direct Officer and Seven Killings stars are bad signs to have in the Spouse Palace and Bazi Chart.

Meghan Markle's Spouse Palace does not have the HO configuration, but her Bazi Chart contains the Direct Officer and Seven Killings Elements. This indicates that she has had her fair share of romantic pursuers.

Prince Harry sees the Rob Wealth in his Spouse Palace, indicating a potential third party in his marriage.

Besides the Rob Wealth in the Spouse Palace, we also do not like to see the Friend Element when it is negatively affected in the Spouse Palace. What does this mean? In Meghan Markle's Bazi Chart, the Monkey (申 Shen) and Tiger (寅 Yin) form a clashing relationship. Hence, the Friend Star is negatively affected. This indicates that one of her friends may pose a threat as a potential third party in her marriage.

Both Prince Harry and Meghan Markle will experience temptations from third parties. In comparison to Prince William and Kate Middleton, their relationship is more fragile and could succumb to pressures arising from changes and external forces. Prince Harry may grow out of his dependency on the relationship as his needs change, or if they are fulfilled and met by someone else.

ROYAL COUPLE

Two sides of the Same Coin

A snob is a person who feels that he is superior to others in terms of social position or wealth. He tends to look down on those he regards as socially inferior.

In a new book about Prince Harry and Meghan, the Duchess of Sussex, Prince Harry accuses his brother Prince William, other members of the Royal Family, courtiers and those in their social circle of being snobbish to Meghan. The Duchess of Sussex also felt that she was treated snobbishly by the royal family and their social circle.

Is Prince William a Snob?

The Direct Resource Star represents helpful people. The star brings out kindness and helpfulness from the person who has the star in their Bazi Chart. People with this star will always have support from the people around them. The characteristic of snobbery arises from the influence of unhealthy Direct Resource (DR) Stars. The star is considered unhealthy or negative when there are too many of the DR Stars or the DR Star is affected in some way, such as being clashed, harmed or punished by the other elements next to it.

八字 Bazi Chart: Prince William 21 June 1982 9:03 PM

If you check out Prince William's Bazi Chart, you can see that there are too many DR Stars. The Pig (亥 Hai) sign which contains the DR Stars is in Self-Punishment. Self-Punishment means that you create your own problems or troubles. The Pig sign also represents youth. Hence, the star can bring out childish and immature behaviour. The DR Star in the Year Stem is in a clashing relationship (壬 Ren clashes with 丙 Bing). To sum up, DR in Self-Punishment indicates that the person will act superior to others and offer help and advice that make others feel uncomfortable or inferior.

Why are some people hurt badly by this attitude while others are indifferent?

When you are self-assured and appreciate your qualities and abilities, you will naturally not be bothered by a display of snobbishness from others. A confident person knows when to be assertive and put the snob in their place. Well, this is easier said than done.

Why do you feel more badly than others when dealing with a snob? Why don't you find some snobby people snobbish?

The answer is AFFINITY. Even to qualify as your mortal enemy, there must be a strong affinity for you to always hate him so much. Yes, affinity applies not only to love, but also to other types of strong emotions such as hate, jealousy and anger.

Prince William's DR Star is represented by the 壬 Ren Element. This 壬 Ren is found in the Year Stem and the Pig sign. In the Pig sign, there is another 甲 Jia Element. People with the 壬 Ren Day Master and 甲 Jia Day Master will feel Prince William's snobbishness more acutely. As we already know, Prince Harry and Kate Middleton, are 壬 Ren Day Masters and Meghan Markle is a 甲 Jia Day Master.

In the same shoes...

While Prince Harry complains about his brother's snobbishness, he forgets that is he also in the same shoes. In his Bazi Chart, the DR star is in the Rooster (酉 You) sign. The Rooster and Rat (子 Zi) are in a destruction relationship. His snobbish attitude can be even more destructive than his brother's.

戊 Wu 7K 七殺 偏印	庚 Geng IR 偏印	壬 Ren F 比肩	癸 Gui RW 劫財	辛 Xin DR 正印	藏干 Hidden Stems
				癸 Gui RW 劫財

The 戊 Wu that controls the 壬 Ren is weak and not supported in Prince Harry's Bazi Chart. This indicates that Prince Harry will take his brother's snobbish attitude badly and won't know how to handle this bad attitude directed at the people he cares about.

There is no 乙 Yi Element in his Bazi Chart that represents Prince William, only a Rob Wealth Star that represents siblings, which appears next to his Day Master. This shows that, while Prince Harry looks up to his brother, he does not really know or understand him. They do not enjoy a close brotherly relationship. Prince William's advice and attitude do not have much influence or impact on him.

The 壬 Ren which represents Prince Harry's Day Master is found in the Pig sign in Prince William's Bazi Chart. The 甲 Jia which represents the sibling element is also found in the Pig sign. While Prince William sees his brother, Prince Harry as someone to nurture, protect and take care of, he always makes a blunder while dealing with his brother. Most of the time, Prince William's intentions are good, but he also sees his brother as a competitor. Prince William does care for his brother, as Prince Harry's Day Master and the Rob Wealth, which represents siblings, can be seen in his Bazi Chart.

Will Prince William be a snob to Kate Middleton?

Kate Middleton also receives her fair share of snobbishness from her husband. From her Bazi Chart, she is more capable of dealing with Prince William's bad attitude. This is because 戊 Wu is strong in her Bazi Chart. The 戊 Wu Elements in her Bazi Chart are also found in exact same Palaces as the Self-Punishment in Prince William's Bazi Chart. This indicates that she is able to reduce the negative influence of the Pig sign's punishment in Prince William's Bazi Chart. The Duchess has her own quiet and pragmatic way of dealing with snobbishness from her husband and making him a better person.

八字 Bazi Chart: Kate Middleton 9 January 1982 7:00 PM

There is no 甲 Jia in Kate Middleton's Bazi Chart. She has no affinity with her sister-in-law. Their paths crossed because Meghan became the wife of Prince William's brother. So, it is hard for the Duchesses to become good friends and enjoy a close relationship. Kate only sees dealing with Meghan as a duty. She needs to treat her well because she is her sister-in-law. While Kate has also faced the same problems as Meghan, such as jibes and snobbishness from the royal circles, she is unable to empathise with her sister-in-law's complaints. This was partially because she was able to manage these problems and stand up to the indirect discrimination on her own. Another reason is that it is hard to feel for people you don't have an affinity with. It is like reading bad news in the newspaper. You will feel pity for the victim but forget about it the next day.

Crying foul

Meghan Markle can only resort to complaining when dealing with the unfair treatment from Prince William. Meghan Markle is a straightforward person as represented by the Wood Tiger (甲寅 Jia Yin) Pillar. She is ambitious given that the Rob Wealth Element resides just next to her 甲 Jia Day Master. The 壬 Ren at the Hour Stem next to her Day Master can cloud her judgement and make her indecisive. This is made worse by the effect of the clash relationship between the Monkey (申 Shen) and Tiger (寅 Yin). Even if she wants to manipulate the situation in her favour, her strategy comes out half-baked.

In her Bazi Chart, there is only 巳 Ji to control the 壬 Ren which is not effective. Imagine a pile of soil (己 Ji) meeting a large amount of water (壬 Ren), which will only result in a muddy pool. Her complaints about the bad treatment from the royal circles and Prince William only made the royal family think more badly of her.

Prince William's Day Master (乙 Yi) is a Rob Wealth Star to Meghan Markle. The same is true of Meghan Markle's Day Master (甲 Jia) which is a Rob Wealth Star to Prince William. They see each other as competitors. Prince William feels that Meghan Markle stole his brother away from him. He does not trust her and dislikes her. Meghan sees Prince William as a peer that she needs to rise to or pull down to her level. The feeling is mutual for them. She is an ambitious lady and because of her American upbringing, she expects to be treated the same as Prince William and Kate Middleton. She forgot or chose to ignore that she had decided to walk into a conservative and traditional royal family with many hierarchies in place.

Everyone who crosses our path impacts us in some way, some stronger, some weaker, some good, some bad. How do we deal with them to make our lives more meaningful?

When Kate Middleton was faced with bad treatment and discrimination from the royal circle early in her relationship with Prince William, she dealt with the problems with the Queen's 'never complain, never explain' motto.

When Meghan Markle was faced with the same bad treatment, discrimination and even racism from royal circles, she chose the "tell-all" American approach and made some money out of it.

There is no right or wrong way. You live with your decisions and actions.

When will the Qi of 2022 take effect?

TIGER

The Qi of 2021 will not suddenly disappear as we step into the New Year on 4 February 2022. Neither will the Qi of 2022 appear as the clock strikes midnight on 4 February 2022.

The Qi in the cosmos flows in two rhythms - diffused Qi and coagulated Qi. Diffused Qi is active but gentle and cannot be detected directly. It exists everywhere. Coagulated Qi is manifested in physical form. In Chinese Metaphysics study, coagulated Qi are represented by people and landforms. Diffused Qi, on the other hand, is the Qi that is unseen. It is the Qi that changes constantly. When Feng Shui practitioners talk about the change of Qi every year, they are talking about diffused Qi. This is the Qi that will affect our fortunes every year. When the annual diffused Qi interacts with the coagulated Qi, this relationship tells us how people or individuals will fare for the year.

The movement of Qi can be generalized into four aspects: ascending, descending, exiting and entering. Ascending movement refers to the movement from below; descending movement refers to a movement from above; exiting movement is a movement from the interior, and entering movement is movement from the exterior.

Qi entering from the exterior means that the Qi will make its presence felt slowly. The Ascending Qi is the Qi that is acquiring momentum to rise and grow stronger. The Descending Qi is the Qi that has peaked and is starting to lose momentum. The Qi that exits from the interior is dead Qi that no longer has the ability to influence anything.

A Bazi Pillar consists of the Heavenly Stem and Earthly Branch. The Ren Yin (壬寅 Water Tiger) represents the Bazi Pillar of 2022. This Pillar represents the Qi of the year and will give us an idea of when the Qi of the year 2022 will start making its presence felt. The 壬 Ren Stem enters and makes its presence felt right in February which is a Ren Yin month in a Ren Yin year. In February 2022, the Ren Yin will make an appearance, marking the arrival of the Qi of 2022 which is Ren Yin in nature. If we are to pinpoint the exact arrival of this Qi, we can scan through the calendar and discover that the Ren Yin Pillar falls on 18 February 2022. The Water element is usually related to movement, mobility, transportation, trading and economic matters. With the negative outlook brought about by the pandemic, the Government will take a wait-and-see position in the last quarter of 2021 when implementing policies for the year 2022. Most policies will come into effect or be executed after 18 February 2022.

The full impact of the Water Qi of the Water Tiger will only arrive in February 2022, the month of the Tiger. The Qi of 2022 will begin to make its presence felt much later on 18 February 2022. In comparison, the 2021 Qi had already made its presence felt in December 2020.

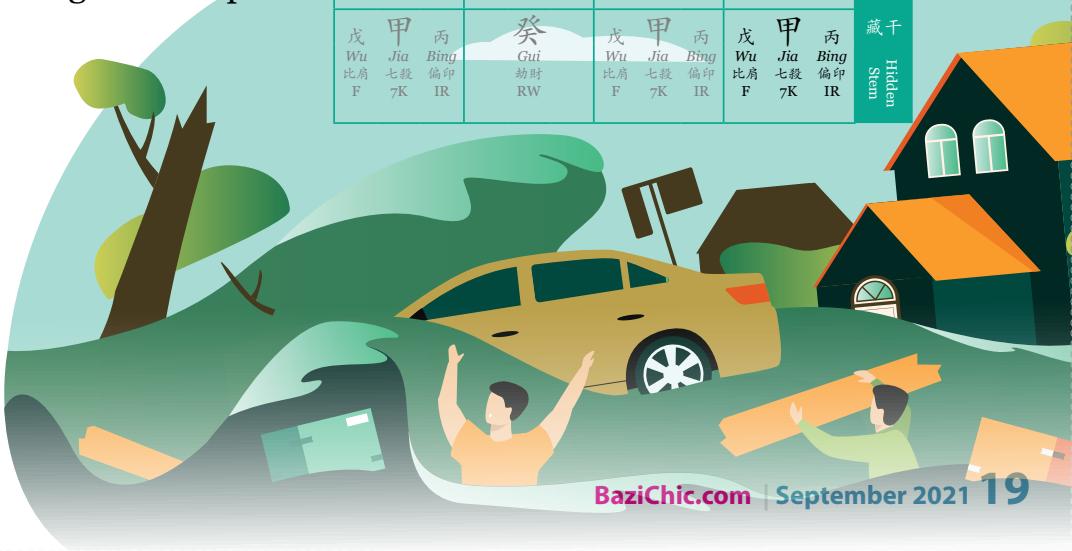

So, whether the year 2022 is favourable or unfavourable to you, you will feel its effects much later, some time after 18 February 2022.

Meanwhile, the Qi of 2021 represented by Xin Chou (辛丑 Metal Ox) will continue to hang around until 23 June 2022, when it makes a full exit. The 辛 Xin Stem will begin descending in June 2022 and exit in July 2022. The Chou (丑 Ox) Branch will descend on 23 June 2022 and exit in July 2022. If the Ox year is favourable to you, you can continue to enjoy this good fortune until June 2022. If the Ox year is unfavourable to you, such as those with the Horse, Goat and Dog zodiacs, you will continue to experience negativity until June 2022.

Before we start our usual full-fledged write-up for the year 2022 in our December 2021 issue, do check out our Qi Men analysis on the outlook for 2022 (refer to page 23).

2022 Forecast: If you think the water-related natural disasters are bad this year, the impact of this natural disaster will double in 2022. Be prepared if you live in an area prone to flooding or tsunamis. If your area was hit by an unexpected water disaster, expect to be hit again in 2022 with even greater impact.

Asking for protection during Halloween

Similar to the Hungry Ghost Festival in Asia, Halloween is the time of the year dedicated to remembering the dead, including saints, martyrs and all the faithful departed in Western culture. Unlike the Hungry Ghost Festival, which lasts for about 2 weeks, Halloween is observed only for 3 days beginning on the night of 31 October.

The table below gives you the directions to ask for safety and protection from wandering spirits and ghosts as well as unscrupulous people. During this period, you can ask the Chief Deity for protection for children who are out trick-or-treating and adults who are attending Halloween costume parties or going out at night.

Ask for protection with your back to the direction as listed in the Table: Asking for Protection from the Chief Deity during Halloween.

The world will walk away from a Fu Yin formation in 2022 as shown in this Qi Men Year Chart for the Water Tiger. Will things go back to normal or will we continue in the new normal of the past two years and practice social distancing and wearing masks? The good news is that most of the world will be open and running again.

Pandemic – COVID-19 (天芮 Heavenly Grain Star)

The spread of COVID-19 has wreaked havoc in everyone's lives for about 2 years. We will see the spread of COVID-19 decline or at least be under control. There is still no complete cure for COVID-19 but advance medical treatment will be able to reduce the spread and bad effects of this viral illness. In 2022, the death toll arising from COVID-19 will also slowly reduce and end in the third or last quarter of the year. Since the COVID-19 virus is here to stay, people will need to adapt to the new normal. Maintaining social distancing and wearing masks are still a must. Northern hemisphere countries such as China, Japan and Russia will still be affected by COVID-19 and will be worse off compared to other parts of the world.

Power and Authority – The Big Brother (太歲 Grand Duke)

In 2022, the Water Tiger year, the Grand Duke which is represented by the 壬 Ren Stem will be in the Southeast and enter into Death and Emptiness. No world leader will stand out in 2022. The United States (US) and China trade conflict and tech war will continue but both countries will try to downplay their rivalry and avoid unnecessary clashes. However, around April or May, a conflict may break out again as the US meddles in territorial disputes between China and the other Asian countries in the South China Sea. While there will be gunshots fired in the disputed areas, no real war will break out in 2022.

Global Economy (乾 Qian Trigram)

In general, the Qian Trigram represents the global economy. Some businesses will shut down for good especially those in retail. More businesspeople will migrate their businesses online. There will also be many new start-up online businesses. Production will experience slow growth as the economy slowly recovers. At the start of the year, retrenchment and unemployment will increase. The Harm Door indicates that the US and China trade war will continue. More technology and financial companies will be affected by the trade war.

Global Stock Market (景門 Scenery Door)

The formation at the Scenery Door Palace indicates a bullish market. Technology, solar power, gas, aviation, construction and property development, especially those involved in high rise development, will be taking the lead.

Danger and Natural Disaster (Southeast and Northwest Palaces)

Southeast and Northwest countries such as those in Southeast Asia and Europe will be prone to natural disasters such as soil erosion, floods, hurricanes, and earthquakes. Countries in Northwest Europe and Canada may experience forest fires or fire-related disasters. Southeast Asian countries are also likely to experience robbery, theft and rioting.

How does the Qi Men review vary from the Bazi and Five Element analysis method for the year 2022? Keep this question in mind when you read the December 2021 issue of BaziChic Magazine.

Arranging the Kitchen for Health and Wealth

In Feng Shui study, the kitchen area always represents the health of the occupants living on the property. It is important to place the kitchen in the right location so that you and your family can enjoy good health. With this ongoing pandemic, taking care of one's mental and physical health is more crucial than ever.

Besides, the location of the kitchen, the placement of the stove is also an important consideration as it determines the steadiness of your income. In Feng Shui study, the main door is always associated with wealth, bringing wealth opportunities, but it is the placement of the stove that ensures continuous cash flow or income.

Is your kitchen in the right location?

There are three ways to determine the auspicious location for the kitchen:

1. 八宅风水 The Eight Mansion Practice

The Eight Mansion theory is a very popular Feng Shui practice. It is used in internal Feng Shui to determine the auspicious location for the bedroom, kitchen and main door for long term benefits.

According to the Eight Mansion theory, there are four auspicious directions and four inauspicious directions. Each of these directions belongs to an element.

吉位 Auspicious Direction	凶位 Inauspicious Direction
生气 Life-Generating (Wood Element)	五鬼 Five Ghost (Fire Element)
延年 Longevity (Metal Element)	六煞 Six Killings (Water Element)
天醫 Heavenly Doctor (Yin Earth Element)	禍害 Mishaps (Yang Earth Element)
伏位 Stability (Wood Element)	絕命 Life-Threatening (Metal Element)

The kitchen and stove are associated with the Fire Element. The auspicious location for the kitchen goes back to the basics of Chinese Metaphysics concepts – the Five Element Phases. The Five Element Phases describes two cycles, the producing and controlling cycles, of interactions between the Five Elements.

The producing cycle is always considered to be a representation of the smooth flow of Qi. It is regarded as auspicious. Therefore, the kitchen (Fire Element) is best located in the Life Generating and Stability sectors which are of the Wood Element. The Heavenly Doctor sector, which is of the Yin Earth Element, is also an auspicious location for the kitchen.

We do not like to enhance the negative energy of inauspicious sectors such as the Five Ghost (Fire Element) and Mishaps (Yang Earth Element) although they fit the basic concepts of the producing cycles.

2. 玄空风水 The Xuan Kong Flying Star Practice

The Xuan Kong Flying Star theory is another popular Feng Shui practice. It brings short term benefits. It is used in internal Feng Shui to achieve faster results.

The Xuan Kong Flying Stars theory makes use of a Lo Shu Square with nine numbers representing the flying stars. The Lo Shu Square is divided into nine grids, each containing a flying star. Every property has its own Qi map of the Flying Stars which is derived from the time the property is built, and the sitting and facing location.

玄空 Flying Star Number	五行 Five Elements
一白 1 White	Water
二黑 2 Black	Yang Earth
三碧 3 Jade	Wood
四綠 4 Green	Wood
五黃 5 Yellow	Earth
六白 6 White	Metal
七赤 7 Red	Metal
八白 8 White	Yin Earth
九紫 9 Purple	Fire

As with the Eight Mansion practice, the auspicious location for the kitchen area is determined by the Five Element Phases, which describe the producing and controlling cycles. Once more the kitchen and stove are associated with the Fire Element and the producing cycle is considered to be auspicious.

According to the Flying Star theory, the kitchen (Fire Element) is best located in the 3 Jade and 4 Green of the Facing Star sectors, which is of the Wood Element. The 9 Purple sector, which is of the Fire Element, is also an auspicious location for the kitchen.

We do not like to enhance the negative energy of inauspicious sectors such as the 5 Yellow (Earth Element) and 2 Black (Yang Earth Element) although they fit the basic concepts of the producing cycles.

3. 五行 The Five Element Phases Practice

If you are unable to apply either one of the above theories, the best method is to apply the Five Element Phases theory – the producing cycle.

According to this theory, the best kitchen location will be in the East and Southeast, which is of the Wood Element as well as the South, which is of the Fire Element.

CORE CHARACTERISTICS (THE TWO GODS STRUCTURE)

Some Bazi natal charts are heavily skewed towards one or two Elements out of the Five Elements. In Bazi studies, we called these Special Structures. There are four types of Special Structures in Bazi studies. In the old days, these four Special Structures were known as the Noble Charts. A person with this type of Special Structure will live a noble and successful life. But will they? The premise that people with Special Structures will be noble and have a noble life is now subject to debate.

In this issue's Bazi 101, we want to explore the Two Gods Structure. When the Bazi Chart, including the Day Master, consists of predominantly 2 Elements, then the Two Gods Structure is formed. Based on the Five Elements, we can further classify the Two Gods Structure into:

Dueling Gods Structure

FACE READING: CAN YOUR NOSE CHANGE?

Year 2018

Year 2020

Traditional Chinese face reading stipulates that certain facial features are an indication of one's fortune. The nose is one of the important features that indicates wealth and prosperity. Your nose can change as your life goes through changes! Your nose not only indicates wealth but also power and leadership.

Above are photos of a Malaysian leader. Check out his nose in the old photo and the recent photo.

He is Dato' Seri Haji Anwar bin Ibrahim, a Malaysian politician. Yes, his nose has changed over time. The unbalanced nostrils have become less obvious and grown fleshier. The nose has grown broader and wider with a bulbous tip if you look at the overall facial features. This type of nose is known as a lion nose. Sometimes it is also called a dragon nose. People with this type of nose are regarded as noble.

A lion nose represents immense wealth and leadership presence! People with this type of nose can be intimidating but they have got a rich charisma and attract the higher echelons of society. They have very strong beliefs, work ethics, discipline, and are willing to make sacrifices.

They are normally efficient leaders who do not easily crumble to anything that does not match their goals. They use a lot of logic to tackle challenges that come their way.

Usually, this type of nose is found in the top leader, prime minister or a politician who wields enormous power, and in heads of big family businesses or conglomerates. They are rarely love-oriented, but they are highly successful in other aspects of life. They are highly respected. More often, they treat everybody equally, and this makes them highly loved by most people, including their cronies.

If you look at the current photo, even though his nose has grown wider and broader, his overall facial Qi has turned darker. The cheekbone also indicates power. A fleshy cheekbone indicates support from people. His fleshy cheeks have receded and there are marked lines cutting from the bottom of the inner eye areas to the outer cheek areas. This is a sign of betrayal. This indicates that there are people always waiting to upsurge you.

The Tao of Manifesting

Matching the Qi Men Chart to our Wishes

In all our articles about Fa Qi Men, we have mentioned that to get your wishes fulfilled, one has to get into an “alpha state of mind”. We have also given tips and methods on how to get into this state of mind. If we can best match the Qi Men Chart to what we wish for, the wish will be easier to fulfil.

So, how to best match the Qi Men Chart?

The Qi Men Chart is made up of the Stems, Doors, Stars and Deities. These four signs represent certain aspects of our wishes. If we can best match them to the activities, subjects or matters relating to our wishes, it will be easier to have these wishes fulfilled.

In this issue, we look at what aspect of wishes the Deities represent.

直符 Chief Deity

The direction of the Chief Deity matches almost all types of wishes except for those relating to relationship and emotional matters. The Element of the Chief Deity is Fire. It can represent leaders, influential people, luxury items, powerful companies and businesses that have the biggest market share. In a country, the Chief can be used to represent the President, Prime Minister or the King. For example, the Chief can be selected in the Qi Men Chart if you wish for a loan approval, a job promotion, to win an award or to strike a lottery. You can place a photo of a leader or a figurine associated with your wishes in the area where you meditate and make your wishes. For example, if you wish to win the International Business Award, you can place a photo of successful business leaders such as Tony Fernandes (CEO of AirAsia), Mary Barra (CEO of General Motors) or Pony Ma (founder and president of Tencent).

騰蛇 Surging Snake Deity

The Surging Snake Deity has the nature of both Yin Fire and Yin Earth. The direction of the Surging Snake best matches wishes that are related to natural phenomena. Sometimes, practitioners will use the Surging Snake for wishes that have a long-lasting effect or value. For example, Surging Snake can be selected in the Qi Men Chart if you wish to own your dream house, if you want your property's price to increase or if you simply want the heavy rain to stop for a while. You can place something longish and flexible such as a thread, a belt or a rope in the area where you meditate and make your wishes. If the area overlooks a river or a highway that would be ideal too.

太陰 Great Moon Deity

The Great Moon Deity is Yin Metal in nature. The direction of the Great Moon best matches wishes that are related to love matters and friendships. The Great Moon is also associated with expensive antiques, discovery and secrets. The Great Moon is good for gaining wisdom and knowledge too. The energy of the Great Moon is quiet, passive and dark. For example, the Great Moon can be selected in the Qi Men Chart if you wish to hide some secret, protect your IP or encounter a potential lover. You can meditate and make your wishes at night during the full moon or in a quiet place.

六合 Six Harmony Deity

The Six Harmony Deity belongs to the Yin Wood Element. The direction of the Six Harmony best matches wishes that are related to relationship and emotional matters. The Six Harmony Deity represents happiness, bonding and two or more characters joining together. For example, the Six Harmony can be selected in the Qi Men Chart if you wish for your boyfriend to propose to you. The Six Harmony can also be used for wishes relating to business, for example, connecting to your customers or finding a powerful business partner. You can place some beautiful flowering plants in the area where you meditate and make your wishes.

朱雀 Grappling Hook/ 白虎 White Tiger

The Grappling Hook Deity belongs to the Yin Earth Element and the White Tiger Deity belongs to the Yang Metal Element. The Grappling Hook and the White Tiger have almost the same characteristics. The Grappling Hook appears in the Yang Structure of the Qi Men Chart while the White Tiger appears in the Yin Structure of the Qi Men Chart. The directions of these Deities best match wishes that are related to authority, winning a lawsuit, energy, strength and speed. In addition, the Grappling Hook can be used to attract attention. For example, these Deities can be selected in the Qi Men Chart if you wish for people to listen to you without question. These Deities bring the power of intimidation. You can also make a wish to have more energy and a clear mind if you are feeling lethargic. You can place some rock salt lamps in the area where you meditate and make your wishes.

勾陳 Red Phoenix/ 玄武 Black Tortoise

The Red Phoenix Deity belongs to the Yin Fire Element and the Black Tortoise Deity belongs to the Yin Water Element. The Red Phoenix and the Black Tortoise have some similar characteristics. The Red Phoenix appears in the Yang Structure of the Qi Men Chart while the Black Tortoise appears in the Yin Structure of the Qi Men Chart. The directions of these Deities best match wishes that are related to influencing people, gaining public support and trust and finding unconventional solutions to solving problems, especially those related to mystery and unnatural phenomena. In addition, the Red Phoenix can be used to gain fame. For example, these Deities can be selected in the Qi Men Chart if you wish to gain support or votes, win a campaign or simply to gain more fans on your social media platform. For the Red Phoenix, you can light a candle in the area where you meditate and make your wishes. For Black Tortoise, you can place floating flowers in a big bowl of water in the area where you meditate and make your wishes.

九地 Nine Earth Deity

The natural element for the Nine Earth Deity is Yin Earth. The direction of the Nine Earth best matches wishes that are related to meeting a Noble woman, charity, healing and wellness. The Nine Earth represents longevity. If you wish to conceive and have a healthy baby, seek the Nine Earth. Like the Surging Snake, the Nine Earth is also associated with property, land and matters related to plantations. For example, Nine Earth can be selected in the Qi Men Chart if you wish to recover from an illness. You can place seven-star lamps or a symbol of longevity in the area where you meditate and make your wishes.

九天 Nine Heaven Deity

The natural element for the Nine Heaven Deity is Yang Metal. The direction of the Nine Heaven best matches wishes that are related to motivation, energy, wealth, fame, career, business, happiness, beauty or meeting Noble people. You can seek the Nine Heaven if you plan to expose a secret or publicise an issue. For example, the Nine Heaven can be selected in the Qi Men Chart if you wish to become a superstar or gain more fans on your social media platform. If you are feeling confused, you can also sit in the Nine Heaven direction to clear your mind. You can place seven-star lamps and make sure that the area where you meditate and make your wishes is bright. The best time to tap into the Nine Heaven is during the daytime.

In the next issue, we will look at how we can match the direction of the Stems to our wishes.

In the month of the Dog, people will see hope as new COVID-19 cases decline. There is also good news about improved medicines or vaccines to better control the COVID-19 variants.

The Three Benevolent Stars bring improvement to business, trading and economic activities overall. However, Southeast Asian (SEA) countries are not out of the woods yet. The temporary decline of new COVID-19 cases can give them false hope and lead them to relax their safety measures pre-maturely. This month, SEA countries or the south-eastern part of these countries will experience heavy rains that can lead to landslides or sinkholes. Those who regularly drive through mountainous areas need to stay alert to avoid danger during the rainy season.

The presence of the Year Punishment and Pommelled Saddle this month indicates sudden changes such as last-minute unexpected restrictions in government policy, governments being ousted or countries with improving pandemic outlooks taking a U-turn. Countries that will experience the negative influence of the Pommelled Saddle effect are countries located in the North, Northwest and Southeast such as China, Taiwan, SEA, UK and Europe.

If the month's Qi is unfavourable to you, especially those who have the Goat, Rooster and Dragon in the Bazi Chart, you will encounter sad news.

This month's energy favours those who have the following zodiacs: Tiger, Rabbit and Horse.
