Excellent day to activate for happiness at S3. This date conflicts with the Rooster sign.

The Cosmic Trinity and the Period 9

The Cosmic Trinity comprises 天 Heaven, 地 Earth, and 人 Man. Each component of the Trinity is seen as a type of “luck”, when in fact, it is more accurate to describe the Cosmic Trinity as Qi or forces at play.

天运 Heaven Luck has always been used to refer to a pre-destined type of luck. It is the Qi that encompasses a person based on the person's date of birth. It is the person's inherent energy since birth. However, Heavenly Qi is not always pre-destined luck. Heavenly Qi is also the cosmic energy influenced by the constant movement of the stars, planets and solar systems in the galaxy.

地运 Earth Luck refers to energy from the environment. It is what we know as Feng Shui.

Traditionally, 人运 Man Luck refers to your free will and the decisions you make daily. However, it is more than that. Man Luck also refers to your health, your creation, your mind and the influence of the people around you.

What does a change in Period in Feng Shui mean?

The changing Periods in Feng Shui are used to measure the effects of planetary alignment, namely the influence of the Jupiter-Saturn conjunction (Cosmic Qi) over the planet earth (Earth Qi) and eventually on man (Man Luck). The Chinese ancient astronomers used a guesstimated time of 20 years for a minor cycle of the Jupiter-Saturn conjunction and 180 years for a grand cycle. The Jupiter-Saturn conjunction can happen earlier than the calculated dates as there is always a discrepancy in the calculation of planetary movements made during ancient times and those made now. After all, there is no Wikipedia for you to check on everything in the old days. Nor was there Google or Baidu for you to confirm your calculations with other sources.

Period 9 is the end of a grand cycle. It is the transition period to a new grand cycle starting with Period 1 that consists of roughly another 180 years. As we all know, a transition period always brings out a lot of life-changing major events and challenges.

This can be translated as the cosmic energy (Heaven) affecting the Earth Luck (Earth) and thus, affecting the Man Luck (You).

Basically, when entering a new Period, everything that is associated with that Period's Trigram will get a lot more attention. For example, the current Period 8 is represented by the 艮 Gen Trigram which is related to the Earth element. During Period 8, the property market went through a rapid price boom. Other Earth element-related resources, such as petroleum, potassium-necessary for the production of fertilizers and silicon, a key ingredient in semiconductors, also got a lot of attention. It can be seen that at the end of Period 8, the property market is stuck in the doldrums even as prices rose. The production of Earth element-related resources is also affected by the U.S. sanctions on Russia and the U.S. cold war with China over technological supremacy.

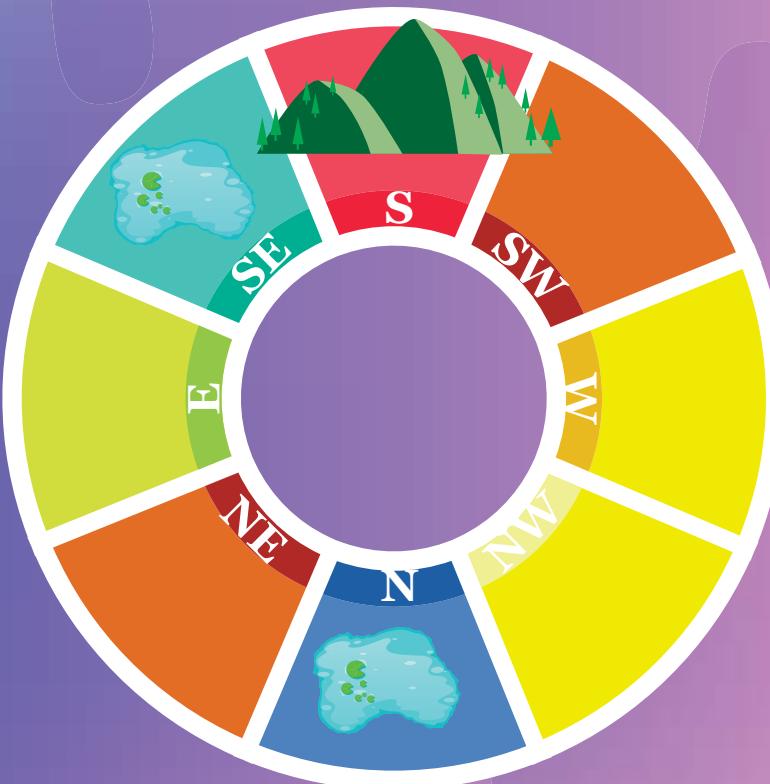

According to the planets Jupiter and Saturn's conjunction, the Period 9 Qi already made its presence felt on 21 December 2020. In Chinese Metaphysics studies, the actual Period 9 starts on 4 February 2024 when the Qi stabilizes and becomes merciful. Period 9 is represented by the 離 Li Trigram. The Trigram can be associated with the Fire element. So, Fire-related industries such as technology, computers, media and digital art become more prominent. Unlike other Periods where the energy influence stays within its traditional area of predominance, Period 9 energy has more far-reaching effects. The Fire element is likened to the Sun or light. Just as the Sun shines on every corner of the world and candles or electric lights bring light in the night, so does the Period 9 energy affect all types of industries and people. Fire energy will have a great influence on our culture, customs and traditions.

The Fire element does not fall into the gas category because it doesn't expand like gas. Fire is not like liquid with a fixed volume. The Fire element is not solid as it does not have a fixed shape. You cannot hold on to it. The Fire element is currently considered a plasma element. Furthermore, if you touch fire, it will burn you. The Fire element is considered a volatile Qi.

Similarly, Period 1 will bring about great challenges and changes because of the influence of the Water element (坎 Kan Trigram). Similar to the Fire element, the Water element is also volatile. You can check out BaziChic for Period 1 influences before the coming of the next grand cycle that falls on 4 December 2040. As for now, we will focus our energy on Period 9.

As we move into Period 9, the impact of the No. 8 White Star will come to pass on 3 February 2023. The No. 8 White Star is still considered one of the Three Perpetual Auspicious stars along with the No. 1 Nobleman Star and the No. 6 White Star.

In Period 8, the Southwest sector becomes the focus of activation due to the prosperous energy of the No. 8 White Star. The star combines with the position of the No. 2 Black Star at the Southwest to bring wealth opportunities. The star also combines with the No. 3 Jade Star in the East to bring relationship affinities such as partnerships, connections, friendships and romance. Many practitioners tend to overlook the auspicious aspect of the No. 3 Jade Star because the star is regarded as inauspicious and is always associated with arguments, litigation, disputes, fighting and bullying.

In Period 9, the No. 9 Purple Star becomes the prosperous Qi followed by the No. 1 Nobleman Star and No. 2 Black Star. These three stars bring positivity and auspiciousness.

The No. 9 Purple Star is associated with fame, career advancement, happiness and romantic opportunities. Tapping into the No. 9 Purple Star will help you gain powerful benefactors, maximise your wealth potential and thrive financially during Period 9.

Being the first star amongst the flying stars, it also symbolises new beginnings. For those who are going through rough patches or are stuck in a stagnant situation, you can tap into this star to make a breakthrough.

The No. 2 Black Star is no longer regarded as an illness star that brings the potential risk of health issues and stress. Instead, the star supports good health in Period 9. The No. 2 Black Star also brings good property-related business or investment opportunities. It brings out the productive and nurturing side of a person. The No. 2 Black Star is a wealth star. The star brings growth and abundance.

During Period 9, the North sector becomes the focus of activation due to the prosperous energy of the No. 9 Purple Star. The star combines with the No. 1 Nobleman Star position in the North to bring wealth opportunities. The star also combines with the No. 4 Green Star in the Southeast to bring relationship affinities such as partnerships, connections, friendships and romance. The star also brings a positive impact to those in the publishing industry, education-related work and students who are studying. Activating the Southeast sector also brings out the beautiful side of a person.

The Fire element does not fall into the gas category because it doesn't expand like gas. Fire is not like liquid with a fixed volume. The Fire element is not solid as it does not have a fixed shape. So what is the Fire element? The Fire element is currently considered a plasma element. As such, the Fire element can be volatile. As the Qi of Period 9 is represented by the Fire element, the Qi of this period can strongly influence your emotions.

The following are some of the negative emotions that may be stirred up if you have a strong Fire element or many Fire elements in your Bazi Chart:

1. Wood Day Masters will easily feel angry, betrayed or exploited by others.
2. Fire Day Masters will hold on to their anger for a long time and become resentful.
3. Earth Day Masters will feel insecure and unsure.
4. Metal Day Masters will feel sad easily and this can turn into depression.
5. Water Day Masters will feel fear or be frightened easily.

The best way to deal with these negative feelings is by keeping oneself busy with meaningful and purposeful activities.

1. Wood Day Masters should constantly increase their knowledge and be wiser. This will help them become more discerning.
2. Fire Day Masters should learn to embrace the different stages in life – both good and bad. Figure out what makes you happy and make it your focus.
3. Earth Day Masters should accept that things will go wrong and there is always uncertainty. Learning to improve their problem-solving and troubleshooting skills will make them more confident that they can always make things right again.
4. There will always be ongoing challenges. Metal Day Masters should not let this burden or sadden them. They should look for ways to overcome the challenges.
5. Water Day Masters should always be active and mobile. Simple activities such as visiting places, exercising and pursuing hobbies will help them forget all about their fear.

On the other hand, if the Fire element is your needed and favourable element, then you generally will experience these positive emotions.

1. Wood Day Masters will feel gratitude and hope.
2. Fire Day Masters will feel fulfilled and passionate about life.
3. Earth Day Masters will feel peaceful and self-assured.
4. Metal Day Masters will feel joyful.
5. Water Day Masters will feel brave and confident.

Table: Emotions based on the effect of Period 9

ANALYSING A COURT CASE

Going through court proceedings can be emotionally draining, not to mention the legal fees incurred can be exorbitant. During ongoing court proceedings, the defendant and plaintiff can apply to strike out either all or part of a party's statement of case. This means that the evidence will be deleted and can no longer be relied on. The judge can also strike out the whole case if he thinks the case should not be continued for certain reasons.

Here is a Qi Men reading for a plaintiff who applied to strike out certain evidence presented by the defendant in a case.

In such circumstances, it is important to see the judge's view of the plaintiff and defendant.

South Palace: 開門 Open Door represents the judge. The negative Stems (癸 Gui and 庚 Geng) with 天沖 Heavenly Destructor Star indicate that the judge is angry and irritated by the additional work. The star also indicates that the judge is preoccupied with a busy schedule. The 朱雀 Phoenix Deity is also regarded as the fiercest deity. The judge will surely lash out in his unhappiness.

Northwest Palace: The 直符 Chief Deity represents the plaintiff. The auspicious 丙 Bing Stem enters Graveyards leaving the 壬 Ren and 乙 Yi Stems. This combination indicates an ambiguous position. Everything seems to be under her control but if the application is not approved, she will encounter more troubles.

Northeast Palace: The 天乙 Heavenly Yi Star represents the defendant. The 乙 Yi and 巳 Ji Stems combination indicates that the plaintiff's application is bad news for the defendant. However, the Palace is currently entering Death and Emptiness. So, the defendant is actually not affected by the application.

The South Palace clashes with the Northwest Palace and produces the Northeast Palace. This shows that the judge is in favour of the defendant rather than the plaintiff in this strike out application.

East Palace: The 六合 Six Harmony represents evidence. The 死門 Death Door indicates that no one can remove or add additional evidence. The Palace entering Death and Emptiness also indicates the same outcome as the Death Door.

Therefore, it is likely that the judge will not approve the strike out application by the plaintiff.

REVIVING THE ENERGY OF YOUR PROPERTY

What if you discovered that it is not viable to reclassify the Period of your property to the current Period 9. Or if you feel that changing the Period of the property is a big hassle. If so, reviving the energy of your property is the way to go.

The best way to keep the energy of a property vibrant and prosperous is by renovating the property from time to time. You can do a small renovation here and there. Check out the location of the No. 9 Purple Star, No. 1 Nobleman Star and No. 2 Black Star in the Flying Star 9-Grid Chart of your property. Select the sectors with the No. 9 Purple Star to renovate first, followed by the sectors containing the No. 1 Nobleman Star and/ or No. 2 Black Star.

Most will feel that even such small renovations are a big hassle. For others, even such small renovations are out of budget as renovations have become very expensive due to the rising costs of building materials. If this is the case, then you can revive the energy of your property by activating the Fire Element at the centre of the property. You can do this activation once a year.

What do you need to activate the Fire Element?

1. A charcoal stove. Burn some charcoal on the stove and place it in the centre of the property on the selected auspicious date and time. Let it burn off before removing it.
2. A special auspicious date and time based on the entry of the following stars into the centre of the property:
 - a) The Sun Star (Black Rabbit Date Selection System)
 - b) Auspicious Annual Flying Star such as Star 9, 1, 2, 8, 6 or 4
 - c) Daily Auxiliary Star:
 - i. Duke Virtue or Duke Virtue Combo
 - ii. Heavenly Virtue or Heavenly Virtue Combo
 - iii. Thriving Star

We will post the auspicious dates in future issues of the magazine so that readers can revive the energy of their property for Period 9.

Can you and should you change the Period classification of your House?

In view of the changing energy from Period 8 to Period 9, the No. 9 Purple Star becomes vibrant and prosperous after 4 February 2024. A lot of people may think that they need to change their properties' Period classification to the current Period 9. By doing so, they believe that they can tap into the vibrant energy of the No. 9 Purple Star. The property's Period classification is a Feng Shui classification based on the time the property is built and the time the first occupants move into the property.

If a property is built in August 2008, and the occupant starts living in that property in January 2009, the property will be defined as a Period 8 House. This is because in Feng Shui, Period 8 starts on 4 February 2004 and ends on 3 February 2024, and houses built or occupied during that period are classified as Period 8 houses.

Period 9 starts on 4 February 2024 and ends on 3 February 2044. If your property is built on 12 December 2023 and you move into the house in January 2024, then your property is classified as a Period 8 house. However, if you were to move into the property in March 2024, then the property will be classified as a Period 9 house.

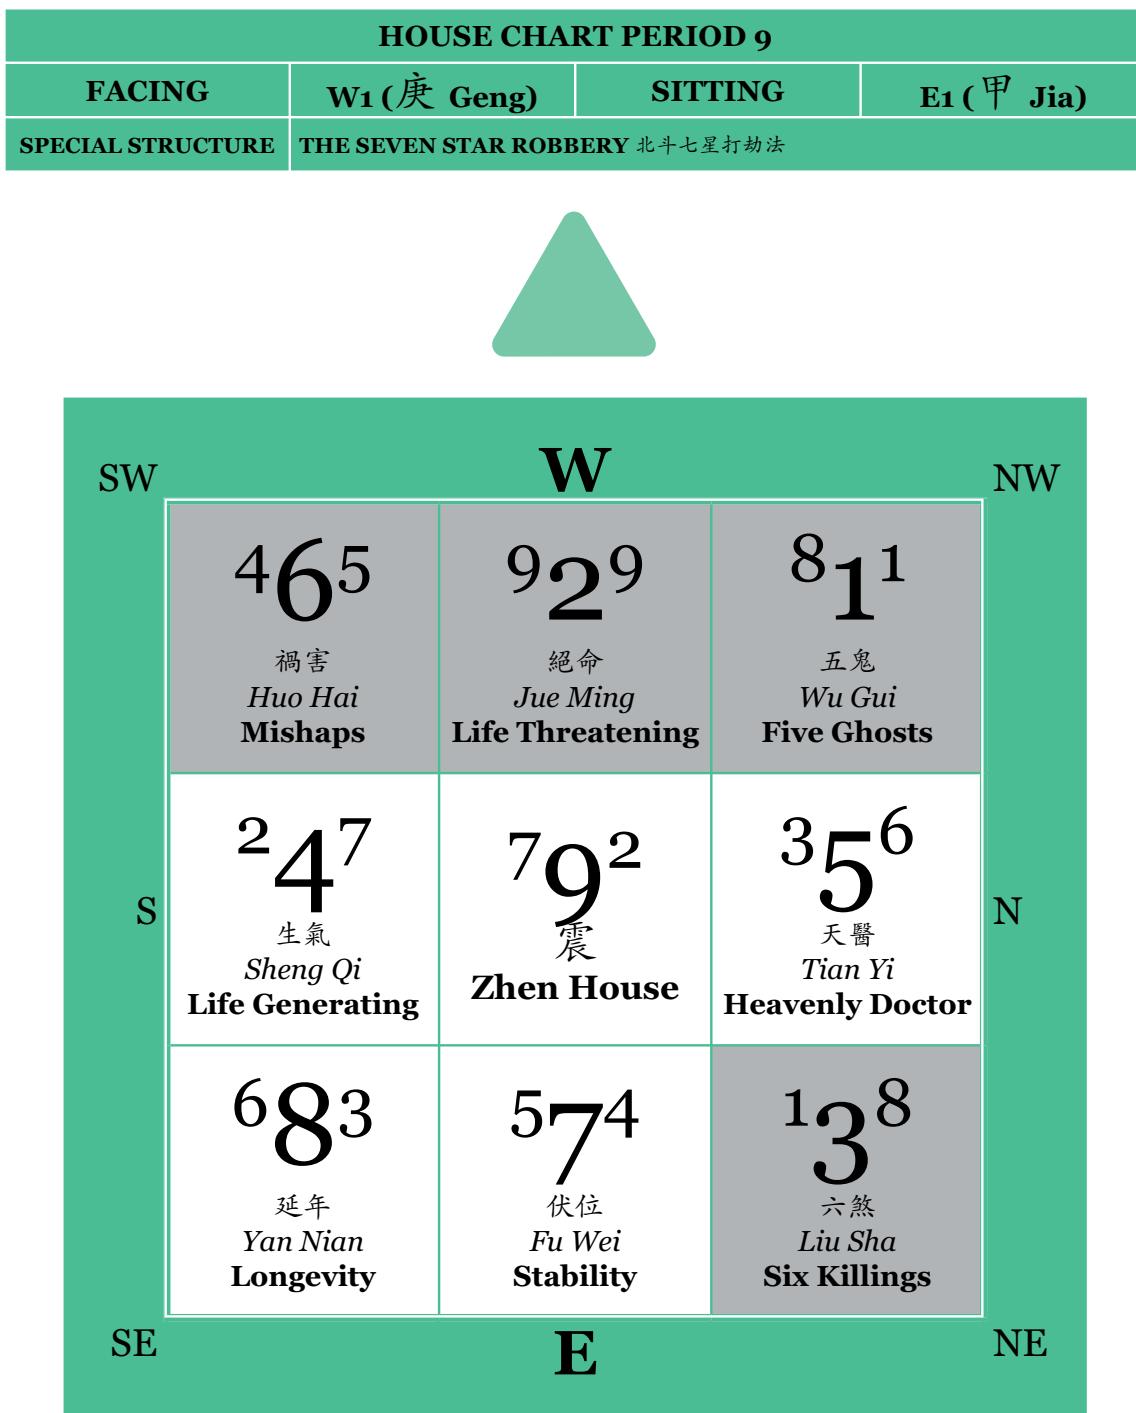

Now, can you and should you change the classification of your house with the change to a new Period? It can be a ‘Yes’ or ‘No’ answer. If you want to change the Period classification of your property, you must first check the Period 9 House Flying Star position of your property. Is your property tapping into the No. 9 Purple Star, No. 1 Nobleman Star and No. 2 Black Star? This means having the prosperous stars in the right locations such as the main door and bedrooms.

If your property’s main door and bedrooms contain the prosperous stars of Period 9 after the change, then ‘Yes’ you should go ahead and make changes to reclassify your house as a Period 9 house. You can do it by doing these renovations on your property.

- 1. Groundbreaking: Dig at least a 3-foot deep hole in the compound of your property. In the old days, a Taoist monk would perform a ritual and bury 3 gold coins before covering them up again.
- 2. Main Pillar: Reconstruct the main pillar of your property. You can add another main pillar to your property.
- 3. Roof: Change all the roofs of your property. Leave the top of the ceiling open for airing for at least three months.

If you can do the three renovations mentioned above, then the Period classification of your property is considered changed.

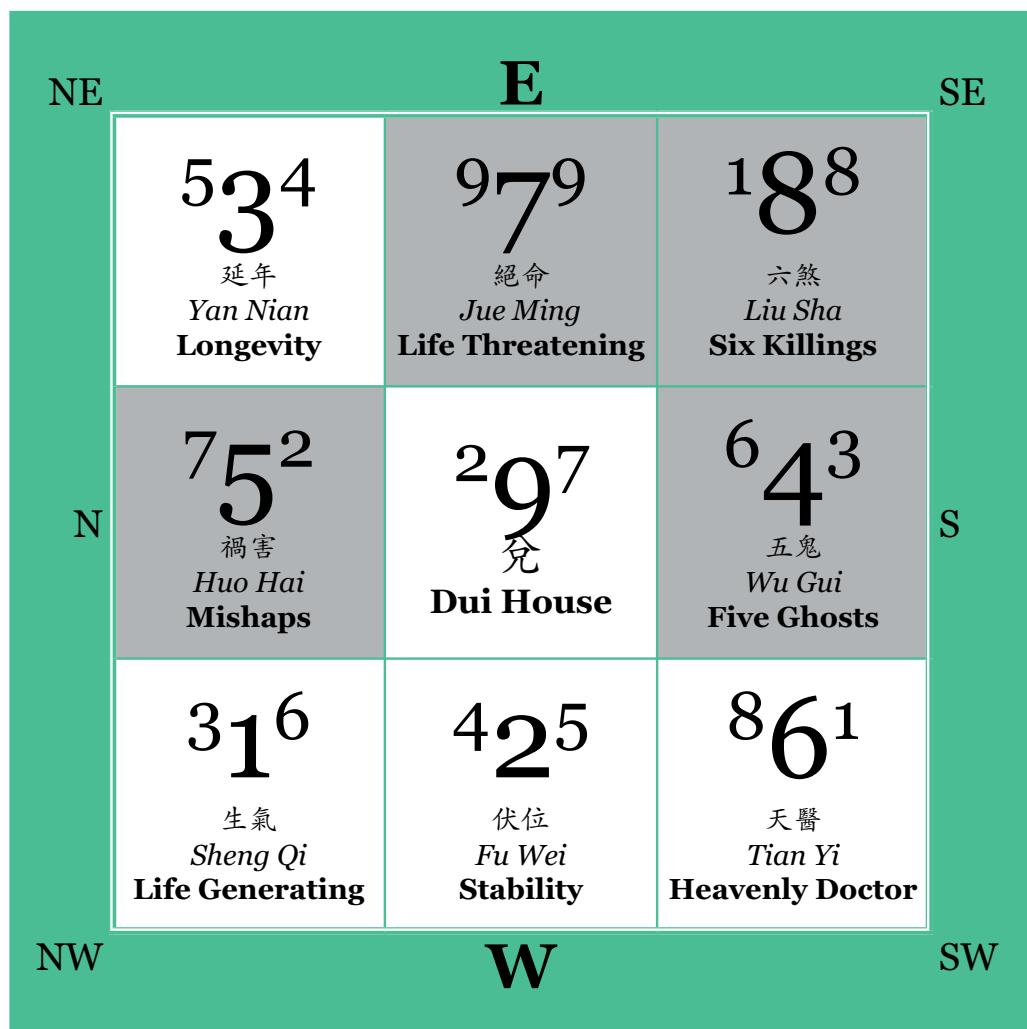

Below are some special structures of Period 9 properties based on the facing of the property. You can also check out other properties’ 9 Grid Flying Star layouts in our eBook section under the title, “Maximizing Period 9 House Feng Shui in Period 9.”

四合院 Siheyuan

In this issue, we take a look at the Feng Shui of the Siheyuan.

A Siheyuan is a Chinese courtyard house. It was historically a very popular type of house, commonly found in Beijing and rural Shanxi. Throughout Chinese history, the Siheyuan building design was used for residences, palaces, temples, monasteries, family businesses, and government offices. In ancient times, a spacious Siheyuan would be home to a single but very large and extended family. This signified wealth and prosperity.

Most of the Siheyuan built for residential use were designed to face the South with the main door located at the South sector or the Southeast sector. A spacious courtyard was located in the centre of the Siheyuan.

The parents and grandparents would stay in the building in the northern part of the Siheyuan. The son would be located in the eastern building of the Siheyuan and the daughter would occupy the western building. The southern building was usually used as a reception room to receive guests. The staff quarters were also located in the southern building.

As you will come to find out, Feng Shui is deeply ingrained in Chinese feudal society. This type of alignment and floor plan actually fits into the Eight Mansion Feng Shui system.

South Facing Siheyuan

The main doors at the South sector or Southeast sector are at auspicious locations. The patriarch occupied the Stability sector. The son was also located in an auspicious area, the Heavenly Doctor sector.

The kitchen would be located in the eastern building which is in the Heavenly Doctor sector. The East which represents the Wood element supports the Fire Element of the kitchen. This type of Producing Qi is thought to bring good health.

The daughter was regarded as an outsider during the Chinese feudal society because they will be married off into another family. Daughters were usually placed in the Mishaps sector.

Even the servants were placed in an auspicious sector in the southern building because servants in the old days were usually slaves who were the property of the family.

The toilet can be placed next to the western building in between the Mishaps and Six Killings sectors. There were no personal toilets for each room or building. It can be quite inconvenient living in the old days.

There are spaces in between the northern building and western and eastern buildings. This is to disperse the negative Qi of the Six Killings (Northwest) and Five Ghost (Northeast).

With a little modernisation to the design and with updates for modern conveniences, this Chinese courtyard house is everything I want in my dream house.

August 2021 – Prime Minister

FACE READING DATO' SRI ISMAIL SABRI

Traditional Chinese face reading stipulates that certain facial features are indicators of one's fortune. The nose is one of the important features that indicates wealth and prosperity. However, your nose can change as your life goes through changes! Your nose not only indicates wealth but also power and leadership.

He is Dato' Sri Ismail Sabri bin Yaakob, the current Prime Minister of Malaysia. Yes, his nose has had a slight change. The slight curve to the bridge of the nose is less obvious in the latest photo. The bulbous tip of the nose has grown larger if you look at the overall facial features. However, this type of nose is considered normal, not the lion nose known for great leadership. Nevertheless, a bigger, more bulbous nose represents an increase in status, power and wealth.

The Prime Minister has a squarish-shaped face which is of the Earth element. However, the fleshy chin and cheek bring the Water element into his face. The Earth element and Water element form a clash relationship. This indicates that he may encounter problems or power struggles because of financial issues.

During his service as the Minister of Defence, his face has a darkish glow which indicates mixed fortunes. As he rises to the position of Prime Minister, the glow is gone and he is left with dark, dull skin. This indicates deteriorating fortunes. Furthermore, his eyes lack sharpness. The whites of the eyes are not clearly distinct from the irises. This indicates a person without vision.

2020–2021 – Minister of Defence
