Message from the Editor

Dear Reader,

The last two years have been tough, with many of us feeling like we were stuck in stasis. It was hard to make any progress when work was interrupted by the multiple lockdowns. Two years on, everyone is ready for the pandemic to be over so that we can get on with our lives and our plans. As we have two years to make up for, Jo has prepared a lot of tips for supercharging and accelerating our progress towards our goals in 2022.

We hope that you will be able to surpass your expectations on your goals this year.

*Love,

KNOW YOURSELF

In Feng Shui terms, we will be officially entering Period 9 in the year 2024. The Fire Element is the prominent element in Period 9. As such, we will see a large wave of technological transformation during the transition to Period 9. We are moving toward digitalization, automation, robotics and AI.

In 2022, we not only want to thrive, but we want to accelerate our progress. We want to be ready in terms of knowledge, digitalization and automation when we walk into the year 2024. This is because Fire has a very intense Qi. Like the Sun, it shines on every part of the Earth. Like the candle, it can quickly consume resources and energy so that it can burn brightly. All industries will be affected by the Fire energy of Period 9. You may have already seen and experienced this as every industry is more or less adopting digital transformation and robotic automation. If you wait until the beginning of 2024 to make these changes, you will discover a lack of resources and intense competition. You will be left behind.

Before you start making the necessary changes, you must be clear about your current position – your strengths, weaknesses, opportunities and threats. You must look at the truth of your situation, not just in terms of character and personality but also in terms of financial position, mental and physical health, your values (are you proud of these values?), and your skill and knowledge (do they meet the current market demand?). Can you take off your mask? This is one of the toughest things to do. We have learned to hide our true selves to stay safe, so much so that we no longer know who we really are. It is good to discover the authentic self who is hiding behind an image projected for the approval of others.

We have selected some auspicious dates for you to do just this. Be brave to face the truth of yourself so that you know where to start making the necessary life changes. The Danger Day (危) can be used for self-reflection. The Great Ming (大明) Star brings clarity. It will enhance the positive effect of the Danger Day.

ANTICIPATING OPPORTUNITIES AND PROBLEMS IN 2022

Before you can progress and thrive in 2022, you must be prepared to deal with the problems lying ahead of you. Anticipating problems will prevent interruptions and delays to your plans. You may even see accelerated progress as you are prepared for these changes.

Opportunities and problems usually arise from change.

Forecasting changes for each month

April (甲辰 Wood Dragon)	Cultural change leads to economic or financial change and vice versa.
May (乙巳 Wood Snake)	Cultural change leads to technological change.
June (丙午 Fire Horse)	Technological changes.
July (丁未 Fire Goat)	Technological change leads to economic or financial change.
August (戊申 Earth Monkey)	Economic and financial change.

Anticipate Opportunities

These changes can affect you, but not all change is bad. When the conditions are positive, these changes become opportunities. We can find out how these changes will affect you based on the annual auxiliary stars appearing on the signs in your Bazi Chart.

Tiger

The Sky Bright (天罡) and Intelligent (文昌) Stars bring new knowledge and wisdom. A culture shift in the environment enhances these stars' positive impact on you. You may be given new learning opportunities.

Rabbit

The Sun (太陽), Peach Blossom (桃花) and Sky Noble (天魁) Stars indicate a good affinity with people, help from Noble people and the availability of resources and opportunities. A culture change will have a positive impact on you. The more people you meet, the more your social circle will grow. You will meet more Noble people and fans.

Dragon

There are no auspicious stars bringing opportunity to the Dragon

this year.

Snake

The Moon (太陰), Heavenly Nobleman (天乙) and Sky Gracious (天錢) Stars bring help and knowledge from Noble people. A culture change will have a positive impact on you. The more people you meet, the more your social circle will grow. You will meet more Noble people and the right mentor.

Horse

The General Star (將星) and Golden Lock (金鑑) Star brings wealth opportunities, a change in status and power. Changes in the economy, financial systems and lifestyles will have a positive impact on you. For example, a dive in stock prices will give you the opportunity to pick up blue-chip stocks at bargain prices.

Goat

Economic and financial changes and restructuring in the environment will have a positive impact on you. The Jade Hall (玉堂) and National Treasure (國印) Star brings wealth opportunities. Government monetary policy to revive the economy will bring you financial support such as loans and grants.

Monkey

The Relief God (解神) Star brings Noble people, resources and opportunities. Any economic and financial recovery will also have a positive impact on you. Government initiatives to provide free training for new skills may give you better job opportunities. Government offers of discounts on study loan repayments will lessen the burden of graduates.

Rooster

The digital transition in the economy and the financial industry will have a positive impact on the Rooster sign. The Emperor Star (紫微) and Dragon Virtue (龍德) Star indicate that you will be able to become the best in your field of work, especially in the technology field.

Dog

There are no auspicious stars bringing opportunity to the Dog this year.

Pig

The auspicious stars in the Pig sign bring many wealth opportunities. Economic and financial changes will be positive for the Pig sign. Their competitors may leave the industry. They will be able to gain more market share as they have good online networks which offer their customers a convenient shopping experience.

Rat

There are no auspicious stars bringing opportunity to the Rat this year.

Ox

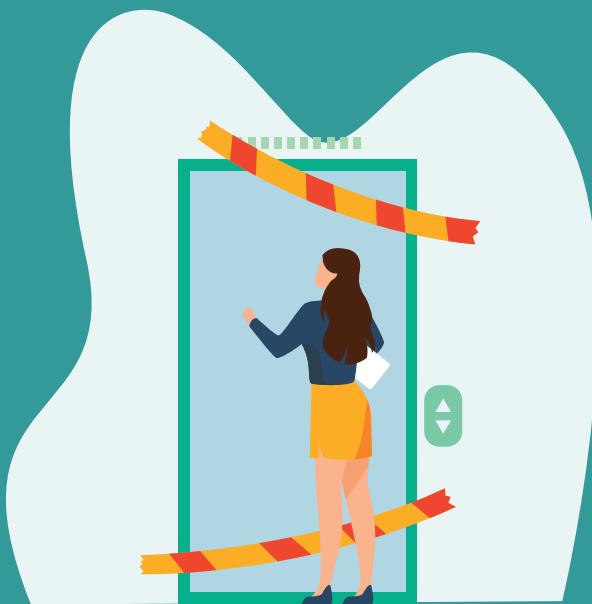

The Red Matchmaker (紅鸞), Bright Hall (明堂) and Golden Carriage (金輿) Stars bring good affinity with people and wealth opportunities. A culture shift, economic recovery and financial change may be good for you. As the economy recovers, you will have better job prospects with higher pay. You will also be able to study online on the subjects that interest you online as more education institutes and universities go online.

Anticipate problems

Your Bazi Chart can mirror the above changes in the environment positively or negatively. The changes can become a problem for you when there are negative influences. Let's see how these changes affect you based on the annual auxiliary stars appearing on the signs in your Bazi Chart.

Tiger

The Sword Edge (劍鋒) Star indicates a loss of wealth. Economic and financial changes will have a greater negative impact on you. You will most likely experience a loss of wealth during the months when economic and financial changes take place. For example, your investment may record a loss on paper.

The Hidden Corpse (伏屍) Star indicates illness and health problems. This will become an obstacle to carrying out your usual daily activity. You may also fall sick and face restrictions as a result. The Covid-19 pandemic continues to change the way a person lives. The months of March 2022, December 2022 and January 2023 will affect you negatively.

Rabbit

The Sky Emptiness (天空) Star and the Bad Qi (晦氣) Star affects your thoughts, ideas, spiritual beliefs, behaviour and mood. Culture relates to people's ideas, social behaviour, knowledge, capabilities and customs. The months that indicate changes in culture will also have a greater impact on you.

Dragon

The Leopard Tail (豹尾) Star brings adverse health, arguments, loss of wealth and damages to property. All these problems are related to or affected by one's lifestyle and finances. Hence, changes in the economy, financial industry and lifestyles will have a negative impact on you. For example, heavy rains may cause floods in certain townships. Victims of these floods will be evacuated to the relief centres. Thus, the weather has changed the lifestyle of the victims. Your store may be damaged in the floods. You will need to close for repairs. But you may see fewer customers venturing into your shop after reopening as they are still living in the faraway relief centres.

Snake

The Year Punishment (歲刑) Star indicates that you are going against the tide. Hence, any form of change will also have a negative impact on you. You will experience a loss of wealth. You will also be feeling emotional and will be forced to change your lifestyles and routines.

Horse

The Litigation (官符) Star involves legal problems. Legal battles always involve money and finances. Furthermore, the Five Ghost (五鬼) Star also indicates a loss of wealth, illness and disputes. The month where there are changes to the economy, financial industry and lifestyle will have a greater negative impact on you.

Goat

The Death Charm (死符) Star indicates problems in your career, a loss of wealth and adverse health. Changes in economic and financial conditions and lifestyles will have a negative impact on you.

Monkey

The Year Breaker (歲破) and Greater Consumer (大耗) Stars indicate a loss of wealth. They also indicate that you are going against the tide. Hence, any form of change will also have a negative impact on you.

Rooster

The Broken Star (破碎) indicates loneliness, hardship and being slandered by others. These involve one's behaviour and thoughts, hence, when there is a cultural shift taking place, you will become disorientated and frustrated.

Dog

The White Tiger (白虎) Star brings slander, badmouthing by others and petty issues. You will find yourself at odds with your social circle. All these are behavioural and attitude problems that are related to culture. For example, in May the changes are related to culture and technology. In that month, your friends may upgrade their smartphones to the latest models. You may be mocked for not having the latest technology at hand.

Pig

The Robbery Sha (劫煞) Star indicates that you will prone to encountering theft, robbery and even looting. Because of economic instability and loss of employment, the crime rate related to theft and robbery will increase in your city. These problems are related to economic, financial and lifestyle changes.

Rat

The Calamity Sha (災煞) brings illness and contagious diseases, especially during the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic. Your daily activities will be affected because of illness or quarantine restrictions. These lifestyle changes will have a greater negative impact on you. For example, your country may lift mandatory mask-wearing rules, which places you in greater danger of contracting COVID-19.

Ox

The Sickness (病符) Star brings illness and contagious diseases. Your immune system is weak, and you know it. You are afraid to go out as often as before as new cases of COVID-19 increase in your neighbourhoods. These lifestyle changes will have a greater negative impact on you.

As you can see the Dragon, Dog and Rat zodiacs do not have auspicious stars to help them accelerate in any aspect of their lives this year. They have inauspicious stars that may block their progress. Thus, they need to put in more effort to achieve their goals. Alternatively, they can postpone important projects or decisions until they are certain or more confident of the situation. The Snake, Horse, Goat and Monkey zodiacs may experience both good and bad in the same aspects of their lives.

FIVE ESSENTIAL SOFT SKILLS FOR 2022

There are five important soft skills to acquire in 2022. These soft skills will help you get started and move in the right direction. If you are doing okay or are doing well now, these skills will help you thrive and eventually help you accelerate up the path towards the goal you have set out to achieve. These five skills also enhance each other, amplifying their positive impact on you.

Mindfulness

Mindfulness has enjoyed a surge in popularity in the past few years. A wealth of new research has explored this age-old practice and discovered its many benefits. The practice and cultivation of mindfulness reduce depressive symptoms and ruminations. In addition, people who practise mindfulness find that they have a better working memory and capacity. They are better at focusing and sustaining their attention on their tasks. Many studies also show that practising mindfulness reduces stress. People find that they are more open to doing new things and making changes. They experience fewer negative emotional reactions when receiving complaints and criticism.

All these benefits will get you started on your goal and help you stay open to good suggestions when things do not work out. You will spend less time feeling stuck and not knowing what to do.

There are several practices that can cultivate mindfulness, such as yoga, tai chi and qigong, or mindfulness meditation. These practices will help you to train your attention and awareness to foster general mental well-being and develop calmness, clarity and concentration.

You can do these practices in the Nine Earth Deity sector of your home. Refer to the Monthly Qi Men chart on page 88 for the location of the Nine Earth Deity sector.

Be Present

There are a lot of amazing benefits to being more present – physically, mentally and subconsciously. When you are 100% present and focusing on your task, you will forget about negative feelings and thoughts such as fear, uncertainty, anger, resentment, or the urge to procrastinate. You will make fewer mistakes. When you make fewer mistakes, it saves you time and energy to do more things. Most importantly, you will not be missing out on the beauty and joy of the present moment.

You can practice staying in the present at the Scenery Door sector or by making use of the Scenery Door direction. Every day when you wake up, simply sit comfortably with your back to the Scenery Door direction and try to focus on your breath for two minutes. When your mind wanders, just take note and label it as “thinking.” Try to work in the Scenery Door sector with a group of people. If you work alone, set up a chime to sound off regularly on your phone or computer to remind you to pause, be mindful of what’s going on right now and stop your mind from wandering.

Observation

“You see but do not observe,” Sherlock Holmes tells Watson in the book A Scandal in Bohemia, as Watson wonders why he could not solve problems the way Sherlock could. This is because just seeing without observing will not result in any insights. When we observe, we come out of autopilot to notice subtle cues that can give us better insights into the world around us. A good observer is more aware and attuned to their surroundings and the people around them. They can tell when you’re lying. They can piece together puzzles faster, understand a complex theory better, and discover something meaningful that escapes others.

Most observant people practice mindfulness. Most of us are probably guilty of checking our phones or playing games on the handphone while we wait for the subway or stand in line at the supermarket because we can’t stand boredom. Observant people take this opportunity to practice mindfulness and hone their senses. Observant people tend to be good listeners because they have excellent focus and are able to engage physically and mentally in the conversation. Thus, observant people are good at problem-solving because they are not just listening but picking up useful information and storing it in their minds.

If you are at home, the best place to practice being observant is at the Open Door sector. You can find the location of the Open Door sector on the Monthly Qi Men chart on page 88.

Spirituality

You can be religious and spiritual at the same time. Or you can practice spirituality without being religious. It is up to you. Spirituality here means cultivating the well-being of the "mind-body-spirit." Spirituality is more of an individual practice with the goal of achieving a sense of peace and purpose. Spirituality is a process of recognizing a belief that there is something greater than oneself and that we are part of the cosmic energy. At the same time, we are influenced by this energy around us.

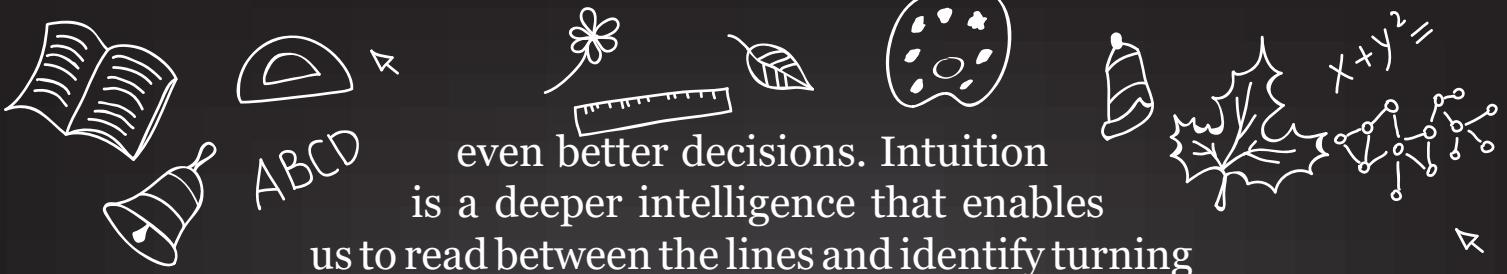

Practising spirituality helps people to cope with physical or emotional pain and stress. You see more meaning in life, feel more fulfilled, grateful and happy. You become more compassionate. When you are happy you easily develop positive relationships. Thus, spirituality promotes close family and friendship bonds. It improves social connections with others.

This lifts your physical, mental and spiritual energy levels. You will feel more motivated and energised. You will have more energy to get things done. You can practice your spirituality at the Nine Heaven Deity sector (Refer to the Monthly Qi Men chart on page 88 for the location of the Nine Heaven Deity).

Intuition

Facts and figures are important information for making decisions because they give us a good picture of a situation or subject. They help us to make good decisions. However, intuition helps us to make even better decisions. Intuition is a deeper intelligence that enables us to read between the lines and identify turning trends in the marketplace that are usually not obvious in rapidly changing environments. Intuition helps us to make decisions and extract data faster than the conscious mind can analyse. Better decisions are made by integrating intuition with critical thinking. Intuition plays an important role in decision-making when there are contradictions in the data or ambiguity due to a lack of data.

Intuition is being attuned to your subconscious that points you in the right direction. It helps you to identify dreams that are aligned with your core values. People with strong and healthy intuition are more open to new ideas that cannot be explained by logic. With good intuition, one sees things that are not on the radar of a rational mind. This allows you to recognize new opportunities that others may have missed.

There are many ways to be more intuitive such as listening to your gut feeling, observing your energy levels, paying attention to your dreams or messages from the universe, or doing a three-minute meditation every day. However, to quickly tap into good intuition, use the Surging Snake sector as often as you can (Refer to the Monthly Qi Men chart on page 88 for the location of the Surging Snake Deity).

These five skills will help you go a long way. These skills help you to make better and faster decisions, be indifferent to naysayers, give you the energy to keep going when things are not working out and the motivation to go on every day in spite of difficulties and obstacles.

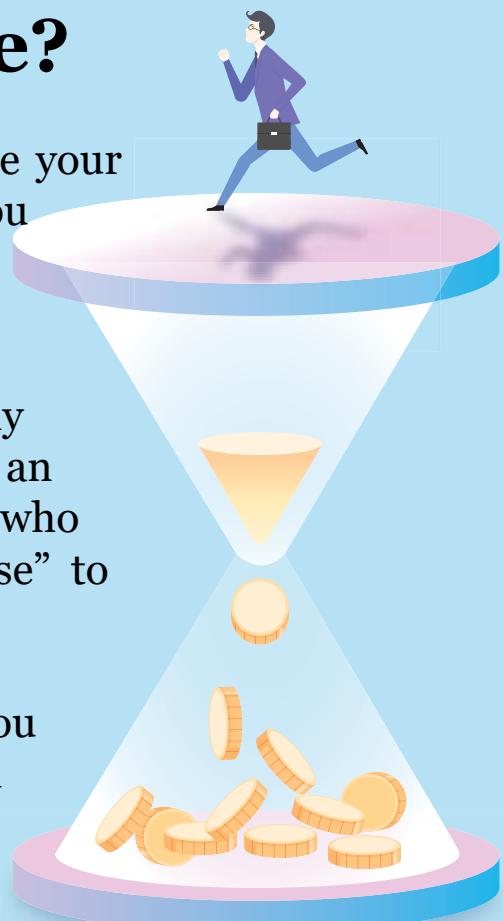

Where is my cheese?

If you want to thrive and accelerate your progress in terms of wealth, then you must know what type of income you can earn in 2022.

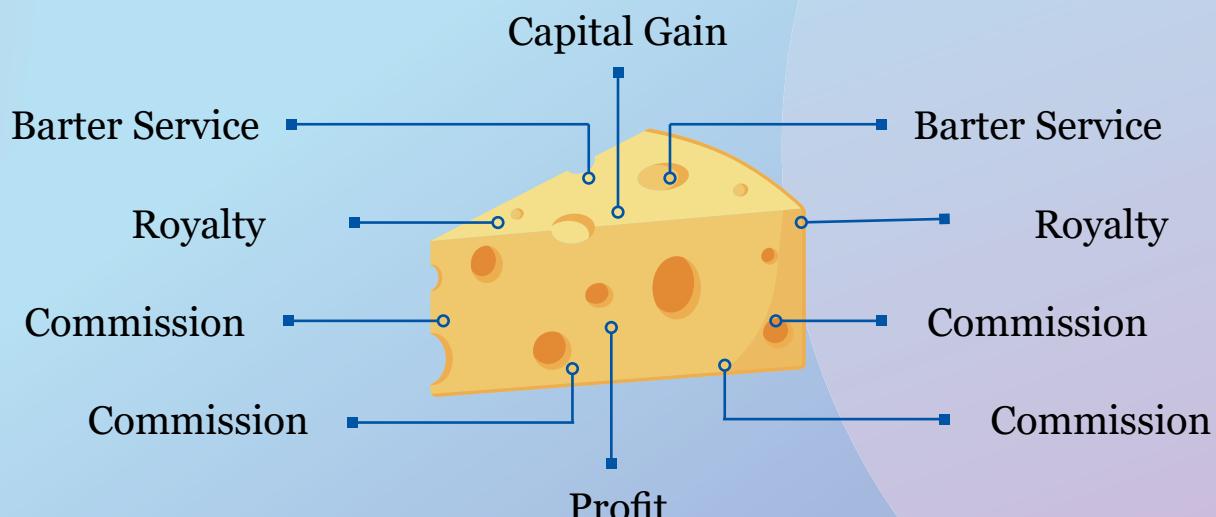

The book titled, “Who moved my cheese?” by Dr Spencer Johnson, tells an enlightening story of four characters who live in a “Maze” and look for “Cheese” to nourish them and make them happy.

“Cheese” is a metaphor for what you want to have in life, whether it is a good job, a loving relationship, money, possessions, health, or spiritual peace of mind. And the “Maze” is where you look for what you want, which is the organization you work in, or the family or community you live in.

In this write-up, the cheese is a symbol of money. The Bazi Chart of 2022 and your Bazi Chart can be the maze to help you find your cash prize.

Type of Incomes

First things first, you must know the types of incomes represented by each of the Ten Gods in Bazi.

Type of Incomes based on Ten Gods

Ten Gods	Type of Incomes
Friend	Barter service
Rob Wealth	Capital gain
Eating God	Royalty
Hurting Officer	Commission
Indirect Wealth	Business Profit
Direct Wealth	Salary
Seven Killings	Interest
Direct Officer	Dividend
Indirect Resource	Subscription/ Membership fee
Direct Resource	Rental

Most of our income comes from either salary or profit from running a business. Besides this, what other possible income can we make in 2022?

Below is the Bazi Chart for 2022. The Five Elements are arranged in accordance to their strength:

八字 Bazi Chart: 4th February 2022 04:52
時 Hour	日 Day	月 Month	年 Year

1. Water – 38%
2. Wood – 31%
3. Fire – 23%
4. Earth – 8%
5. Metal – 0%

The Water and Wood Elements are the two strongest elements in 2022.

The strongest element is the Water Element. The 壬 Ren (Yang Water) appears on the Heavenly Stem and it is thus regarded as the element in abundance. Which of the Ten Gods does 壬 Ren (Yang Water) represent to your Day Master? For example, if you are a 甲 Jia (Yang Wood) Day Master, then 壬 Ren (Yang Water) is your Indirect Resource star. Then your wealth opportunities will come from earning a subscription or membership fee in 2022.

Day Master	Ten Gods represented by 壬 Ren (Yang Water)	Type of Incomes
甲 Jia Yang Wood	Indirect Resource	Subscription/ Membership fee
乙 Yi Yin Wood	Direct Resource	Rental
丙 Bing Yang Fire	Seven Killings	Interest
丁 Ding Yin Fire	Direct Officer	Dividend
戊 Wu Yang Earth	Indirect Wealth	Profit

癸 Gui Yin Water	Rob Wealth	Capital gain

The next strongest element is the Wood Element. The 甲 Jia (Yang Wood) appears on the Heavenly Stem, and it is thus regarded as the element in abundance. Which of the Ten Gods does 甲 Jia (Yang Wood) represent to your Day Master? For example, if you are a 甲 Jia (Yang Wood) Day Master, then 甲 Jia (Yang Wood) is your Friend star. Then your wealth opportunities will come from the exchange of goods and services with others. Money may not be your intermediary.

Day Master	Ten Gods represented by 甲 Jia (Yang Wood)	Type of Incomes
甲 Jia Yang Wood	Friend	Barter
乙 Yi Yin Wood	Rob Wealth	Capital gain
丙 Bing Yang Fire	Indirect Resource	Subscription/ Membership fee
丁 Ding Yin Fire	Direct Resource	Rental
戊 Wu Yang Earth	Seven Killings	Interest
己 Ji Yin Earth	Direct Officer	Dividend
庚 Geng Yang Metal	Indirect Wealth	Profit
辛 Xin Yin Metal	Direct Wealth	Wage

Day Master	Ten Gods represented by 甲 Jia (Yang Wood)	Type of Incomes
壬 Ren Yang Water	Eating God	Royalty
癸 Gui Yin Water	Hurting Officer	Commission

If the above sources of income based on the 壬 Ren (Yang Water) and 甲 Jia (Yang Wood) are not available or not possible to create, then look at your own Bazi Chart. Using a reverse engineering method, you can look at the element in your Year Pillar and determine which of the Ten Gods your Year Pillar element represents to 壬 Ren (Yang Water), the wealth element of 2022. This can also determine the type of income you should pursue in 2022.

For example, if you are born in 1975, your Year Pillar is Wood Rabbit (乙卯 Yi Mao). The 乙 Yi (Yin Wood) in this Pillar is Hurting Officer to 壬 Ren (Yang Water). Then you should sell something that can give you a commission.

Ten Gods	Ten Gods represented by Year Pillar element to 壬 Ren (Yang Water)	Type of Incomes
甲 Jia Yang Wood	Eating God	Royalty
乙 Yi Yin Wood	Hurting Officer	Commission
丙 Bing Yang Fire	Indirect Wealth	Profit

Ten Gods	Ten Gods represented by Year Pillar element to 壬 Ren (Yang Water)	Type of Incomes
丁 Ding Yin Fire	Direct Wealth	Wage
戊 Wu Yang Earth	Seven Killings	Interest
己 Ji Yin Earth	Direct Officer	Dividend
庚 Geng Yang Metal	Indirect Resource	Subscription/ Membership fee
辛 Xin Yin Metal	Direct Resource	Rental
壬 Ren Yang Water	Friend	Barter
癸 Gui Yin Water	Rob Wealth	Capital gain

We hope you are able to get more cheese in 2022.

The best time to plant a tree was 20 years ago. The second best time is today.
~Ancient Chinese Proverb

CAN YOU GET FUNDING IN 2022?

One of the accelerators of growth is the ability to procure funding for your project, start-up or even for your studies. Securing financing at an early stage can speed up growth. It can lead to measurable and attainable success because you need to be responsible for the money you have borrowed. You may also need to answer to investors on how the money is used and report on the progress of your business or project.

Basically, there are four groups that you can get your funding from:

- 1. Year Stem Group – Borrowing from family, friends, relatives and bankers. Government grants also fall in this group
- 2. Month Stem Group – Angel investors, business partners and crowdfunding. They may take a certain percentage of the equity in your business and demand a certain performance from your business.
- 3. Day Master Group – Fans and loyal customers. You can do presales of your products and services to get the funding first.

4. Hour Stem Group – IPO. This group may not care much about your business. They purchase your stocks at the IPO to sell them at a higher price when your company is listed on the stock market. This kind of funding is only available when your business reaches maturity.

Below is the Bazi Chart for 2022. The Five Elements are arranged in accordance to their strength:

八字 Bazi Chart: 4th February 2022 04:52

1. Water – 38%
2. Wood – 31%
3. Fire – 23%
4. Earth – 8%
5. Metal – 0%

The Water and Wood Elements are the two strongest elements in 2022.

The element that controls the Water Element is the Earth Element. The Water Element is a wealth element to the Earth Element. The element that controls the Wood Element is the Metal Element. The Wood Element is a wealth element to the Metal Element. Thus, the Earth Element and Metal Element will be able to get funding in 2022.

Protect Your Energy and Clearing Negative Energy

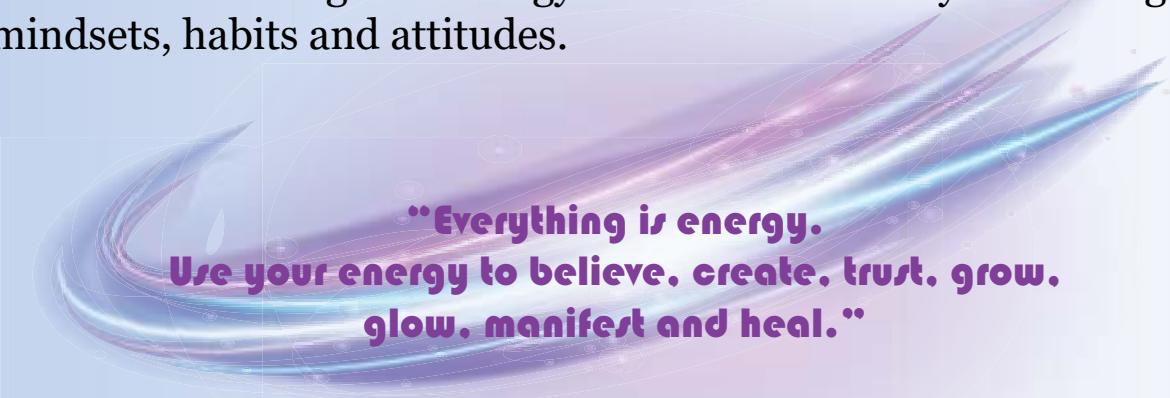

Energy is a very precious resource. Human energy is even more precious it energy keeps us alive. Human energy encompasses physical energy, emotional energy, mental energy, and spiritual energy.

Every day we meet energy that can greatly influence our personal energy levels. There will be places or people who can zap our energy. We will feel tired, confused or fearful after visiting certain locations. We may also feel tired after meeting certain people.

Sometimes, no matter what we do, we will meet with a lot of problems and obstacles that cannot be resolved. The only thing we can do is to wait and wait, seemingly with no light at the end of the tunnel. This negative energy comes from the external environment.

Sometimes we are the creators of the negative energy surrounding ourselves. When we complain a lot or keep thinking negative thoughts, negative energy is created. When we laze around and become couch potatoes for more than a week, we build up negative energy within ourselves. This negative energy is created internally due to negative mindsets, habits and attitudes.

“Everything is energy.
Use your energy to believe, create, trust, grow, glow, manifest and heal.”

While positive energy accelerates our life, negative energy becomes a decelerator in life. It is easier to protect against and clear away negative energy from external forces. We need a lot of discipline, awareness and mindfulness to clear away the negative energy created internally.

A good way to clear away and protect yourself from negative energy is to take a saltwater bath or floral bath from time to time. Kaffir lime and pomelo leaves are usually added to the saltwater bath or floral bath. You can also add essential oils of your liking. You do not need to go to the temple to offer the flowers for prayer or go to a bomoh (a Malay shaman) to invoke energy into your salt or flowers. The salt and flowers have their natural elements and vibrations. There may not be any scientific proof, but there is plenty of anecdotal evidence of their efficacy. A warm saltwater or floral bath is also proven to relax muscles and ease muscle aches and pains. It helps you sleep better and reduces stress. For what it's worth, you will definitely smell better after the bath. When you smell good, your energy levels increase too.

You can take a saltwater or floral bath on special auspicious days to remove negative energy.

The Earth Mother Scripture

地母经 (De mu jīng)

The Earth Mother Scripture is a Tong Shu believed to be written by the Yellow Emperor. It is a record of Sixty Pillars (or years), predicting events or natural disasters related to farming, livestock, the economy, fishing, silkworm cultivation, livestock breeding, pests and diseases. It was a yearly guide for commoners who were mostly farmers. The real origin of this scripture is unknown. Research indicates that the scripture was likely a compilation of works by scholars and literate farmers who recorded the agricultural conditions and natural disasters of ancient China over a period of time for the prevention of plagues and disasters. The Earth Mother Scripture is written in plain language, not fancy words.

The Earth Mother Scripture has this to say about the year 2022:

Earth Mother Scripture Entry for the Year of the Water Tiger:

太岁壬寅年，高低尽得丰。

In the year of the Grand Duke Water Tiger, everyone looks forward to abundance.

Everyone is looking forward to the year of the water Tiger. People are feeling hopeful.

春夏承甘润，秋冬处处通。

In all four seasons, moist and sweet breezes invigorate the fertile land.

The land is fertile which is good for agriculture.

蚕桑熟吴地，谷麦益江东。

The silkworms are matured in the land of Wu, Jiang Dong profited from grains and wheat.

The silk production has increased, and farmers reaped a good harvest.

There were not many types of industries in the old days. Farming can be regarded as a conventional and traditional industry. The silkworm industry can be equated to a higher-skill industry or modern industry. So, we can say that both conventional and modern industries will see an increase in production.

桑叶不堪贵，蚕丝却半丰。

Mulberry leaves are too expensive, silk is half abundant.

Mulberry leaves which are used to feed the silkworms become expensive, and the silk industry became less profitable.

This can be translated to mean that certain industries such as high-skill industries or modern industries will be less profitable because of rising raw material costs.

更看三秋里，禾稻穗重重。

Looking forward to Autumn, the ear of rice is heavy.

The food staples industry will see an increase in production and will be profitable.

人民虽富乐，六畜尽遭凶。

Although people are fortunate and happy, domestic animals suffered.

People will be happier and more fortunate this year. However, domestic animals will suffer from an outbreak of disease.

Prediction: Prediction:

虎首值岁头，在处好田苗。

At the start of the Year of the Water Tiger, it is time to seed the fertile fields.

The Year of the Water Tiger is the year to sow your seeds. It is a good year to begin something new i.e. start a project, a business or change to a new career.

桑柘叶下贵，蚕娘免忧愁。

The mulberry leaf becomes less expensive; silkworm maids are free of worries.

The price of mulberry leaves will decrease; silk businesses no longer worry about the high cost.

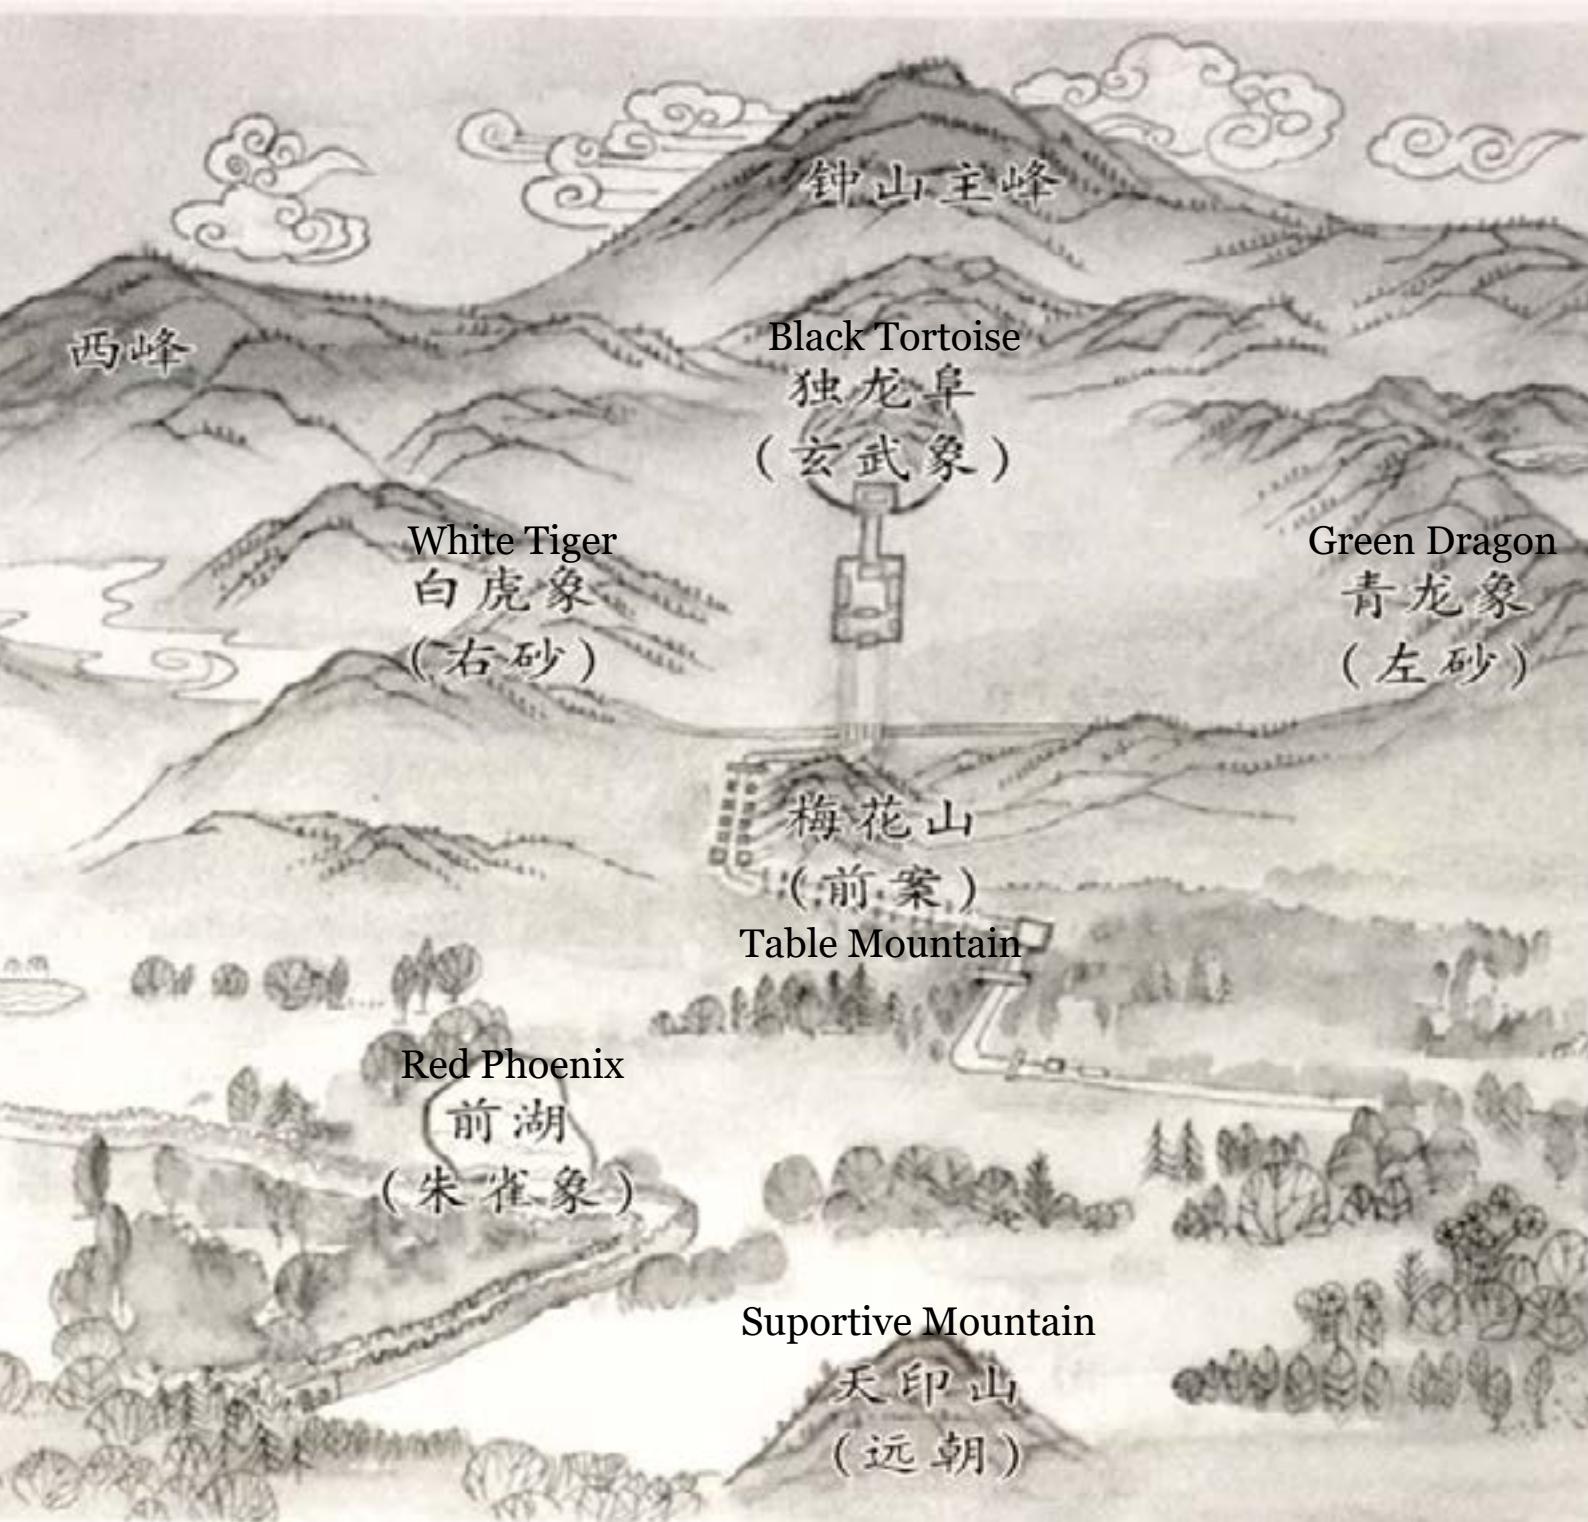

The fourth line states that the price of mulberry leaves became expensive. This line states that the price of mulberry leaves decreases. So, we know that price of raw materials that go up will come down i.e. the price of petrol, cooking oil, food staples etc.

禾稻多成实，耕夫不用忧。

When the grains and wheat are ripe, farmers need not worry.

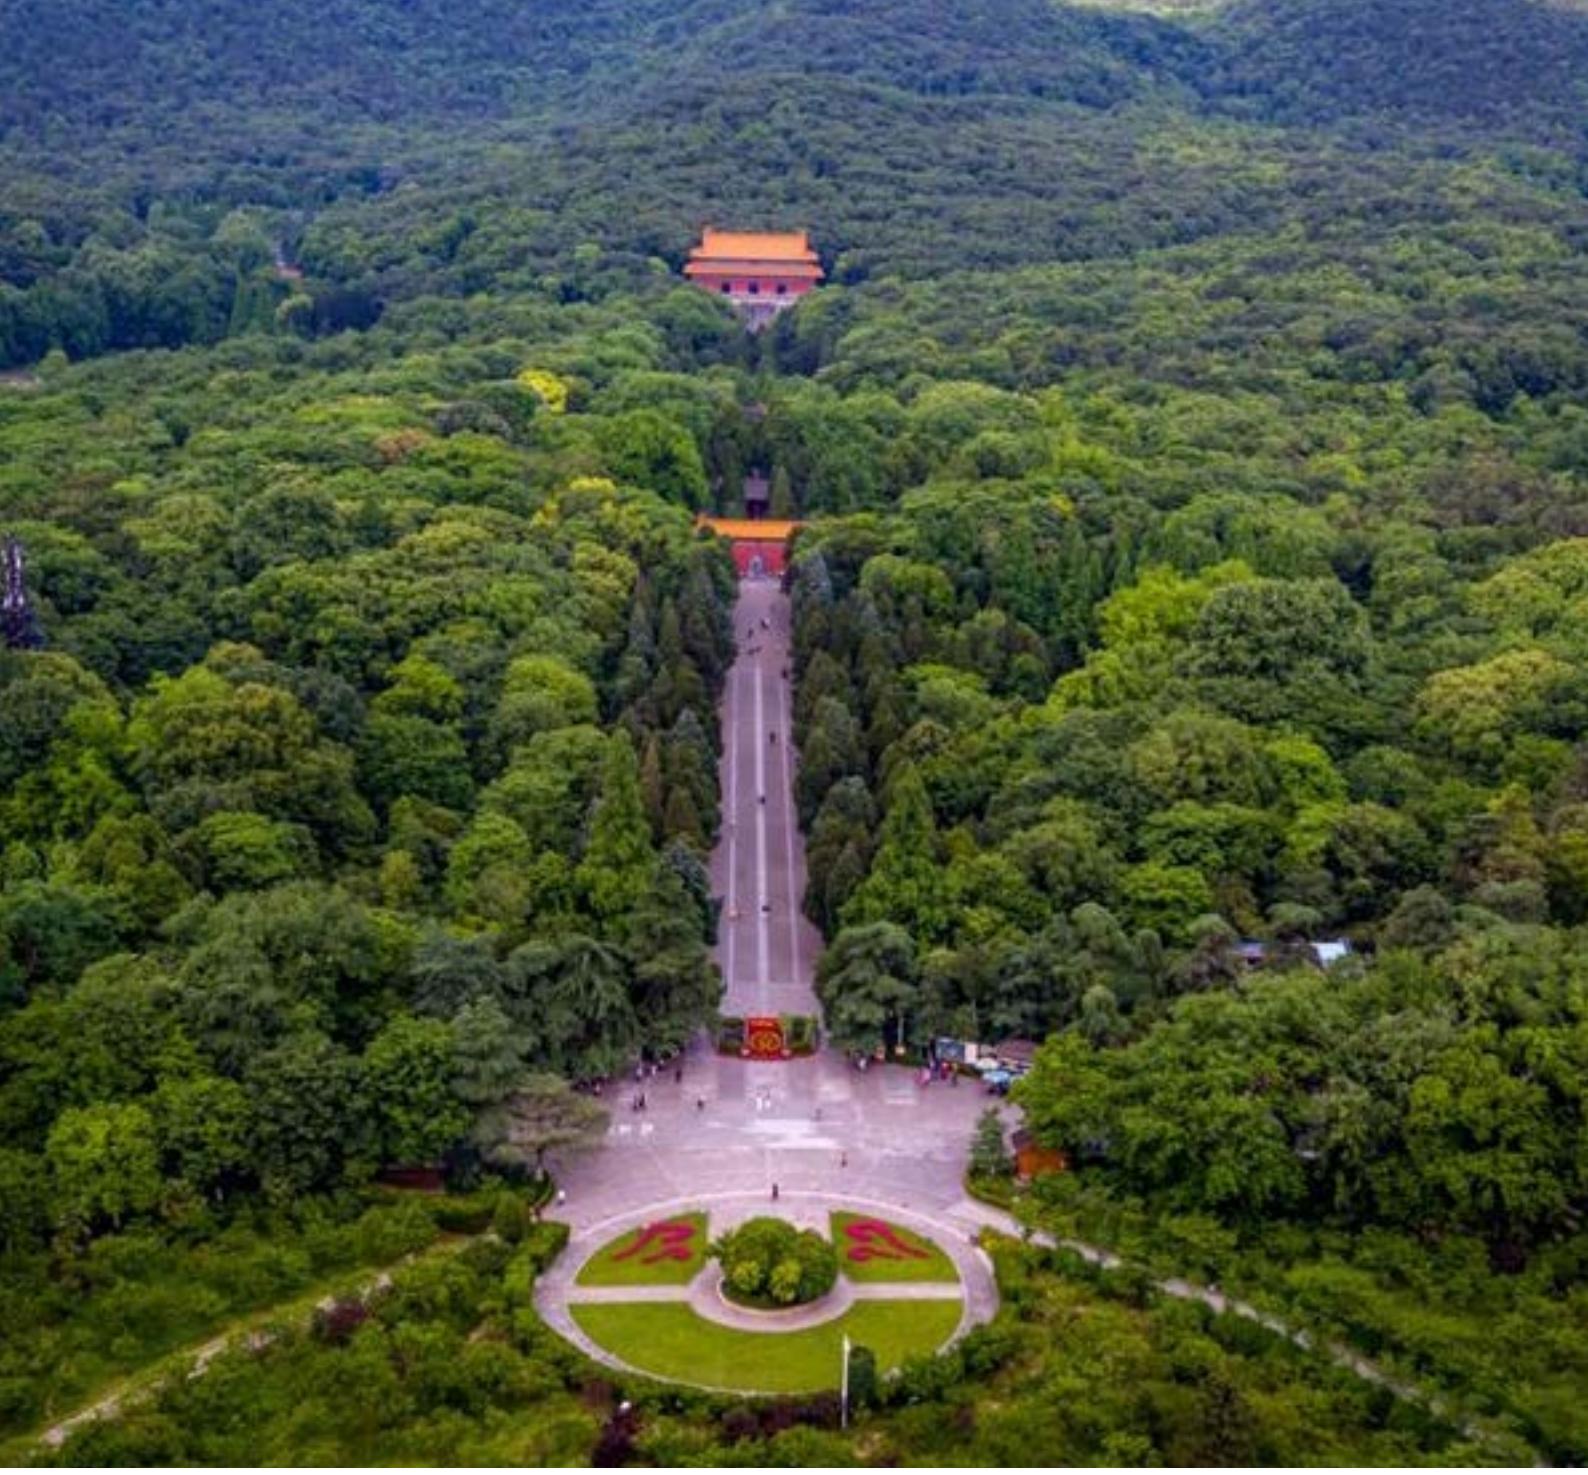

Farmers, plantations and those in the food staples industry will do well.

The accuracy of this classical scripture is limited to the Sixty Pillars where each Pillar represents a year in a sixty-year cycle. The cycle will repeat itself after sixty years. The information on record only considers events in certain states in ancient China. It is not entirely appropriate to apply this information to the events taking place in the world. For one, the records for certain Pillars or years may be inaccurate. The scripture also cannot accurately reflect the complex businesses and industries of this modern era. However, it is still a remarkable document and makes for fascinating study. It enables us to have a better idea of what could happen during the pandemic.

A Meridian Spot for an Emperor

*H*e had been walking for three days now. A drop of sweat slowly travelled from his temple down to his chin. The sun is high, shining brightly and mercilessly. Tired of all the walking, he sat down unsteadily. Breathless, he tapped on the shoulder of the Feng Shui Master next to him and asked, "Where do you see the auspicious point? When can I find it?" The Master replied with a smile: “Your Majesty is sitting on the Dragon's spot. But an old monk is lying down there now. What do you think?” Shocked, he jumped up and became angry. “What do I do now?” he asked. The Master suggested, “Remove the monk and bury him in another place according to the Buddhist customs out of respect of a great monk.” He was very unhappy when he heard this, and said, “I own all the land in the world. I can use any land I want without giving courtesy to anyone.”

Then he ordered his people to dig up the monk’s tomb. Once excavated, two big urns were discovered inside, one stacked on top of the other. Two lines of characters were engraved on the bottom urn that said, "The one who goes by the surname Zhu will dig up my grave in XXX years. Although it is a positive event, my Lord, you should also move me with courtesy and respect." He ordered the guard to open the top urn. They saw the old monk's lifelike figure. His ears hung down to his knees. His fingernails were surprisingly long and coiled all over his body. His eyebrows shining white and long, the monk was sitting cross-legged. Everyone was horrified, and no one dared to move forward.

At this point, Zhu Yuanzhang agreed to what Liu Bowen suggested earlier. He ordered his entourage to set up an altar to pay respects to the monk, and then carefully moved the monk to the top of the hill five miles away. Zhu Yuanzhang built a mausoleum here and named it Ming Xiaoling.

In Feng Shui studies, it is believed that the tomb of the patriarch of a family will affect the lives of his family and descendants. The same applies to the tomb of the emperor. The tomb of the emperor not only affects his family and descendants but also the countries under his governance.

The Ming Dynasty was the last imperial dynasty ruled by the Han people who governed ancient China. Zhu Yuanzhang overthrew the Mongolian rulers of the Yuan Dynasty and founded the Ming Dynasty. He appointed himself as Emperor Taizu.

It was said that if you viewed Emperor Taizu's mausoleum from above, the layout mirrors the shape of the Big Dipper constellation. Emperor Taizu's tomb was selected and constructed under the supervision of the famous Feng Shui Master Liu Bowen. The land selected for Emperor Taizu's tomb was located between Niushou Mountain and Zhongshan Mountain. Holes were drilled and pierced into Niushou Mountain so that it arched inward, forming a guard for the mausoleum. The mausoleum was then built on the southern part of Zhongshan Mountain.

The Xiaoling Mausoleum covers almost the entire Zhongshan Scenic Area. Zhongshan Mountain was known as the "Dragon Mountain" in ancient times. During the Three Kingdoms period of Chinese history, the mountain was regarded as the "Dragon Coil" by the famous Zhuge Liang and Sun Quan. "Dragon Vessel" is the land for burial. The man who held power and governed the Zhongshan and was buried there was regarded as an Emperor who had the mandate of Heaven. The famous Sun Yat-sen and Mao Zedong had also chosen this place as their homes.

Zhongshan has three peaks in the east, middle and west, which are called the "Three Peaks of Canopy (华盖三峰)" in Feng Shui. These three peaks also form the Pen Holder Shape Mountain. Hence, Zhongshan brings influences such as knowledge, wisdom, pride, solitude, ambition, great wealth and power to those who are able to tap into the Qi of this scenic area. The Canopy Star's influence can bring out two extreme results. You either become a wise monk living a solitary life or an emperor who wields great power. There is no middle ground. Hence, some people feel that they are experiencing bad luck when using the Canopy Star's influence, because they cannot handle the pressure and work of an emperor or the life of a lonely monk.

Xiaoling Mausoleum is located at the foot of Mount Everest in the south of Zhongshan. In the west of Xiaoling Mausoleum, there is a hill known as the "Little Tiger Mountain". In the east of Xiaoling Mausoleum, there is another hill forming the Dragon Mountain. These two hills form what Feng Shui studies term the Green Dragon Mountain on the left and White Tiger Mountain on the right.

The Qianhu Lake in the southwest and the Zhongshan bay winding southward also enjoy the presence of a Phoenix Table Mountain. In addition, three rivers are flowing from left to right in front of the mausoleum. This rare water formation is known as "crown belt water (冠带水)" in Feng Shui studies.

Only Emperor Taizu was buried in the Xiaoling Mausoleum. The other thirteen emperors of the Ming Dynasty were buried in the Changling Mausoleum.

FACE READING - TIPS TO IMPROVE YOUR DAILY LUCK

Traditional Chinese face reading asserts that certain facial features bring good fortune and prosperity while others don't. Your face maps out not only your destiny but serves as an indicator of your current state of luck and daily luck.

Here are five tips to improve your overall daily luck.

Skin

Skin that is dull, ashen or marked with a darkish or shadowed patch on any part of the face indicates inauspicious Qi. We always want to have rosy and clear skin. Gently scrub your face with fine salt once a week to remove negative Qi. You can also steam your face or place a warm towel on your face for five to ten minutes. This promotes blood circulation in your face and will bring out a rosy tone.

Nose

The nose represents your wealth. Sometimes your nose can feel itchy. This can be due to sensitivities or allergies to the dust around you. Or it can sometimes indicate a minor loss of wealth. You can use fine salt to gently scrub your nose and wash the salt away with water.

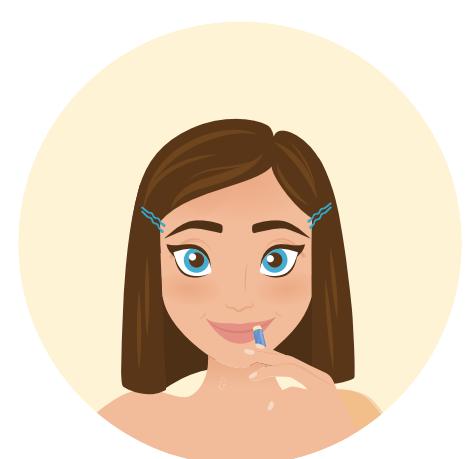

Eyes

Eyes should be bright with clear sclerae. It indicates a clear mind and a happy person without any worries. Always sleep well and use eyedrops if you feel that your eyes are dry. Eye bags or dark eye circles signify a lack of vitality and energy. Reduce your dark eye circles by placing a warm towel over your eyes for 5 minutes every day.

Eyebrows

The eyes should also ideally be framed by arched, full and well-trimmed eyebrows. This indicates good health and prosperity. Eyebrows also indicate your affinity with people. While not many people have beautiful and full eyebrows, you can draw your eyebrows in. However, tattooing your eyebrow is a no-no. Tattoos bring solitude and loneliness.

Lips

Full and rosy lips are deemed lucky because the lips can help you to attract wealth. Irrespective of size or shape, your lips should never be dry or chapped. Dry, chapped lips indicate a loss of good luck. Use a lip balm to keep your lips moist.

“Keep your face always toward the sunshine - and shadows will fall behind you.”
- Walt Whitman

The Tao of Manifesting

2022 Life Accelerators

To accelerate in life, we want to look for low hanging fruit - easily accomplished actions backed by the energy of the Universe. There are eight aspects of life you need to start maximizing to be ready for Period 9. Mastery of these eight aspects may be your end goal or they could be the steppingstones towards another goal. Based on your Qi Men Destiny Chart, take note of the yearly Heavenly Star that appears in your Destiny Palace. The aspect of life associated with the star is the easiest to achieve and maximize. Focus on expanding the aspect associated with this star.

If you want to speed up and reach your goals faster, you can improve on an additional aspect of your life based on the monthly Heavenly Star that enters your Destiny Palace.

The following are the eight aspects that we want to start working on or accelerating:

Energy

In Chinese Metaphysics study, all things are formed by energy. Human beings produce energy too. When you produce high energy or if you are feeling motivated and energetic, your life will tend to run smoothly. You may receive an increment, get a good job with good pay, enjoy happy relationships, connect with others easily or your business may become more profitable. This is because you have the energy, not only to work on your goal, but also to manage and deal with problems. When you are experiencing low energy levels or are feeling down, you will feel hopeless when you meet with obstacles. You will feel confused and unable to solve your problems.

Human energy encompasses the body, mind and spirit. Your physical body, mind and subconscious mind are all interconnected. They energize each other. Hence, regular exercise and a healthy diet not only provides your body with nutrition but will also make you a positive person. Carry out energizing activities if the Heavenly Destructor Star appears in your Destiny Palace.

Mind

Your mind produces energy too. The energy is in your thoughts. There is always a voice conversing with you silently in the back of your mind. Sometimes the “chitchat” is obvious and sometimes it is at a subconscious level. You are only limited by your mind. However, the mind is susceptible to naysayers and can easily get lost in a limiting mindset. Therefore, we want to keep our minds positive always. A positive mind will expand the limits of your mind. It can ignore self-limiting negative opinions. Everything is possible when the mind can say “Yes.”

Besides exercising regularly and eating healthily, sleep is important. Keep positive images around you, watch a happy movie or listen to soothing music or happy and motivational songs. You can also meditate to improve your mental health. The Heavenly Grass

Star helps you to tap into the positive aspects of your mind.

Time

Maximizing your time is very important because everyone has only 24 hours a day. When you are well organized and have planned out your daily, monthly and yearly activities, everything will tend to work efficiently. You will end up working smarter and not harder. Even if unexpected problems crop up, you will be able to allocate time to ratify the issues because you already have your schedule at your fingertips. More can be done in less time. All high achievers manage their time exceptionally well.

If the Heavenly Heart Star is in your Destiny Palace, then it is time to learn how to manage and maximize your time.

Money

Money is an important tool. It helps things run smoothly and easily for us and can resolve many problems. Although you may think that money is not everything, the $ sign gives you the option to live however you choose if you have more than enough of it. When you have enough money, you are its master. However, when you lack money, it will start controlling and limiting your activities. You may not be able to do the things you want because you cannot afford them.

If you are running on a tight budget, you may want to make use of the Heavenly Ambassador Star sector to do your financial planning. If the Heavenly Ambassador Star appears in your Destiny Palace and you are already doing well, you can accelerate your financial growth by tapping into this sector.

Skills

You may be talented, but talent is just an indication of your potential. Your talent will not amount to much if you do not put in effort into practising and studying it. It will not turn into a skill that can give you a great income if you just skim the surface of your talent. You want to learn deeply so that you become a skilled person.

A person may not be talented but can be very skilful if he puts in the effort and works hard to improve and increase his knowledge and skills in a certain field. Yes, it takes a lot of time, but it can be done.

If you have a specific talent, and you put extra effort into learning deeply and improving your skills, you will learn faster and be better than the person who does not have the talent but puts in all his effort into it.

If the Heavenly Assistant Star appears in your Destiny Palace, this is the time to discover your innate talent and turn it into a skill.

Noble People

We tend to shy away from asking for help because of the fear of rejection, fear of showing weaknesses, fear of being a burden, fear of imposing, and fear of being too needy. If the Heavenly Pillar Star appears in your Destiny Palace, then it is time to overcome your fears and start asking. Maximize the power of the Noble people around you. In a world where problems need to be solved fast, there is value in being surrounded by Noble people who can help you in different situations. It doesn't mean that you pass all the responsibility to someone else. You must do your part in solving the problem. Asking for help shows that you are strong, confident and resourceful. Most importantly, you must also make yourself available when others ask you for help.

Connect with more people and make more true and helpful friends. You can use the Heavenly Pillar Star sector or direction.

Resourcefulness

Being resourceful means that you do not allow outside circumstances to determine when or how you act. You do not settle for less. Being resourceful means that you can think out-of-the-box, generate new ideas and are able to find ways to achieve what you desire. Being resourceful will help you to adapt to new or different situations, quickly find solutions, creatively manage your resources and tap into what is available. Resourcefulness is a crucial leadership skill today.

You need to expand and maximize your resources if the Heavenly Grain Star appears in your Destiny Palace. Find out which areas you can expand in terms of resources in this month's Bazi 101 on page 27.

Health

Good health keeps your energy high, keeps you motivated and positive. When you are healthy, there are many things that you can hope for. When you are healthy, you feel good about yourself. You feel confident and happy. Being healthy should be part of your overall lifestyle.

If the Heavenly Hero Star appears in your Destiny Palace, you need to boost your health not only in body, mind and spirit but you must also maintain a clean and attractive image. Your self-image is important because it is how you see yourself and how others see you. It is also how you perceive yourself and others to be seeing you. All these messages will feed into your mind and become a source of energy. It can become a source of power for your mind if you do it right.

All the above are the accelerators for 2022. The main accelerator is the Heavenly Star that appears in your Destiny Palace based on the Qi Men Year Chart. The sub accelerators are the Heavenly Star that comes into your Destiny Palace on a monthly basis.

"A life spent making mistakes is not only more honorable, but more useful than a life spent doing nothing."

The month of the Rabbit will generally be stable if people tread carefully. The appearance of the Seven Killings and Direct Officer Stars indicate abuses of power. Countries with rampant corruption will be affected badly by these stars. People in power will take advantage of their authority for personal gain. They will abuse the law to misappropriate public funds. Countries with good governance will also experience some confusion over the introduction of new laws and policies.

This month will also see a sharp rise in inflation. The people's buying power will be eroded especially in countries with poor governance and entrenched kleptocracy. Businesspeople will be forced to hand over part of their assets or shareholdings to a group of corrupted elites.

Countries in the South and South-Eastern part of the world such as South Africa, South America or Southeast Asia will likely go into an inflation-pushed recession. Countries in the North and North-Eastern part of the world such as China, and Russia will introduce new laws and clamp down on youth culture, education and entertainment to snuff off negative western influence and unhealthy values in these countries. These will have an impact on the related businesses in neighbouring countries such as Taiwan and Korea.

The presence of three Nobleman Stars indicates that there is a good-hearted Samaritan to help out those who are suffering financially. Sky Noble Star also bodes well for those who are studying, in the publishing industry or in research and development.
